

Ode to a Lost Pet

We do not mourn the messes you made
Or miss all the work we had to do
To make sure you did not get lost when we played
Or train you about where to poo.

We miss your soft eyes,
And the kindness they held.
And to our surprise,
We miss your smell as well.

We miss each little thing we remember,
Each thing we loved about you.
You were, after all, a family member,
So, I guess, yes, we even miss the poo.

Barton Ross,2013-05-13 This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating increasing an individual s vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human animal bonding Citing several case studies it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken Mourning Animals Margo DeMello,2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals The Children Who Lived Kathryn A. Markell,Marc A. Markell,2013-03-01 Harry Potter s encounters with grief as well as the grief experiences of other fictional characters can be used by educators counselors and parents to help children and adolescents deal with their own loss issues The Children Who Lived is a unique approach toward grief and loss in children Focusing on fictional child and adolescent characters experiencing grief this book uses classic tales and the Harry Potter books to help grieving children and adolescents Included in the text and the downloadable resources are a number of activities discussion questions and games that could be used with grieving children and adolescents based on the fictional characters in these books The Grieving Child in the Classroom Sue Trace Lawrence,2019-11-27 The Grieving Child in the Classroom integrates the latest research on children s bereavement and adapts it for use in the classroom Chapters tackle the neurological cognitive emotional and social effects of childhood grief and demonstrate the ways in which those reactions can manifest in the classroom By recognizing individual differences in coping styles and considering variables such as developmental stage nature of the loss and availability of support teachers and staff can become better equipped to respond to the bereaved child s needs The book incorporates theoretical explanations of grief responses as well as practical suggestions for supporting bereaved children in real world settings Whether the loss affects one child or the entire student body educators can turn to this comprehensive guidebook for ways to support grieving students in their classrooms Teaching Compassion: Humane Education in Early Childhood Mary Renck Jalongo,2013-07-23 In response to highly publicized incidents of school violence educators across the United States and in many other nations are seeking effective ways to prevent and modify aggressive and anti social behaviors in students One of the major recommendations of the research is that efforts to prevent cruelty need to begin early during the early childhood years of birth through age eight The focus of Teaching Compassion Humane Education in Early Childhood is guiding young children to accept responsibility for and to be kind in their interactions with fellow human beings animals and the environment Although humane education is a relatively new concept in the field of early childhood education professionals in the field are very familiar with many of the related concepts including promoting positive interpersonal interactions teaching children the skills of self regulation giving children experience in caring for living things and protecting the environment This edited volume is an interdisciplinary compendium of professional wisdom gathered from experts in the fields of education child development science psychology sociology and humane organizations As the book amply documents the concept of humane education is powerful integrative timely and appropriate in work with young children Teaching Compassion Humane Education in Early Childhood shows how it is possible for adults dedicated to the care and education of young children to balance attention to the cognitive and affective realms and in so doing to elevate the overall quality of early childhood programs for children families and communities
