Contemporaries, 2002-12 Never before had such a voice sounded in Europe It is little to say that we were thrown into raptures by the creative genius of Tolstoy It became part of our life became our very own wrote Romain Rolland one of Tolstoy s greatest contemporaries This book is neither a biography nor a literary portrait It is the voice of the times in which Tolstoy lived These reminiscences contributed by people from widely different circles by Tolstoy s wife and children whose contributions give us a true picture of the great writer s private life by writers artists and actors who were his friends by comrades who accompanied him on the military campaigns in which he took part by the doctors who tended him by people who served as prototypes of characters from his novels by teachers in his school at Yasnaya Polyana by peasants of Yasnaya Polyana representing that human ocean whose flux and flow Tolstoy followed with such rapt attention all of them taken together present the total impression that Tolstoi made upon his generation In a word the pages of this book reveal to the reader the wisdom and inner conflict of the man whom Gorky has called a one man orchestra the most complicated of all great men of the 19th century

Reminiscences of Leo Nikolaevich Tolstoy Maksim Gorky, 1920 These fragmentary notes were written by me during the period when I lived in Oleise and Leo Nikolaevich at Gaspra in the Crimea They cover the period of Tolstoy s serious illness and of his subsequent recovery The notes were carelessly jotted down on scraps of paper and I thought I had lost them but recently I have found some of them I include here an unfinished written by me under the influence of the going away of Leo Nikolaevich from Yasnaya Polyana and of his death I publish the letter just as it was written at the time and without correcting a single word and I do not finish it for somehow or other this is not possible M Gorky

Reminiscences of Leo Nicolayevitch Tolstoi Maksim Gorky, James Zimmerhoff, 2017-08-16 I The thought which beyond others most often and conspicuously gnaws at him is the thought of God At moments it seems indeed not to be a thought but a violent resistance to something which he feels above him He speaks of it less than he would like but thinks of it always It can scarcely be said to be a sign of old age a presentiment of death no I think that it comes from his exquisite human pride and a bit from a sense of humiliation for being Leo Tolstoy it is humiliating to have to submit one's will to a streptococcus If he were a scientist he would certainly evolve the most ingenious hypotheses make great discoveries II H3e has wonderful hands not beautiful but knotted with swollen veins and yet full of a singular expressiveness and the power of creativeness Probably Leonardo da Vinci had hands like that With such hands one can do anything Sometimes when talking he will move his fingers gradually close them into a fist and then suddenly opening them utter a good full weight word

He is like a god not a Sabaoth or Olympian but the kind of Russian god who sits on a maple throne under a golden lime tree not very majestic but perhaps more cunning than all the other gods III He treats Sulerzhitsky with the tenderness of a woman For Tchekhov his love is paternal in this love is the feeling of the pride of a creator Suler rouses in him just tenderness a perpetual interest and rapture which never seems to weary the sorcerer Perhaps there is something a little ridiculous in this feeling like the love of an old maid for a parrot a pug dog or a tom cat Suler is a fascinatingly wild bird from some strange unknown land A hundred men like him could change the face as well as the soul of a provincial town Its face they would smash and its soul they would fill with a passion for riotous brilliant headstrong wildness One loves Suler easily and gaily and when I see how carelessly women accept him they surprise and anger me Yet under this carelessness is hidden perhaps caution Suler is not reliable What will he do to morrow He may throw a bomb or he may join a troupe of public house minstrels He has energy enough for three life times and fire of life so much that he seems to sweat sparks like over heated iron
