Remnants of Auschwitz Giorgio Agamben, 2002 Giorgio Agamben Leland de la Durantaye, 2009-05-21 A critical introduction to the work of the Italian philosopher Giorgio Agamben After Representation? R. Clifton Spargo, Robert Ehrenreich, 2009-11-11 After Representation explores one of the major issues in Holocaust studies the intersection of memory and ethics in artistic expression particularly within literature As experts in the study of literature and culture the scholars in this collection examine the shifting cultural contexts for Holocaust representation and reveal how writers whether they write as witnesses to the Holocaust or at an imaginative distance from the Nazi genocide articulate the shadowy borderline between fact and fiction between event and expression and between the condition of life endured in atrocity and the hope of a meaningful existence What imaginative literature brings to the study of the Holocaust is an ability to test the limits of language and its conventions After Representation moves beyond the suspicion of representation and explores the changing meaning of the Holocaust for different generations audiences and contexts Politics, Metaphysics, and Death Andrew Norris, 2005-07-11 A collection of essays by political theorists on Agamben's Homo Sacer No One's Witness Syd Zolf, 2021-06-28 In No One's Witness Syd Zolf activates the last three lines of a poem by Jewish Nazi Holocaust survivor Paul Celan No one bears witness for the witness to theorize the poetics and the possibility of witnessing Drawing on Black studies continental philosophy queer theory experimental poetics and work by several writers and artists Zolf asks what it means to witness from the excessive incalculable position of No One In a fragmentary and recursive style that enacts the monstrous speech it pursues No One's Witness demonstrates the necessity of confronting the Nazi Holocaust in relation to transatlantic slavery and its afterlives Thinking along with Black feminist theory's notions of entangled swarm field plenum chorus No One's Witness interrogates the limits and thresholds of witnessing its dangerous perhaps No One operates outside the bounds of the sovereign individual hauntologically informed by the fleshly nothingness that has been historically ascribed to Blackness and that Blackness enacts within apposite to and beyond the No One No One bears witness to becoming beyond comprehension making and unmaking monstrous forms of entangled future anterior life Confessions Thomas Docherty, 2012-08-01 This book explores what is at stake in the confessional culture Thomas Docherty examines confessional writings from Augustine to Derrida arguing that through all this work runs a philosophical substratum the conditions under which it is possible to assert a confessional mode that needs exploration and explication A World Otherwise Yuki Miyamoto, 2021-02-17 In her book A World Otherwise Environmental Praxis in Minamata Yuki Miyamoto examines the struggles of those suffering from Minamata disease eponymous with the Japanese city in which a Chisso factory released methylmercury into the Shiranui Sea leading to widespread poisonings Miyamoto explores Minamata sufferers' struggles examining their physical pains as well as the emotional plight of having lost their loved ones their livelihood and fellowship in communities to the illness Miyamoto's analysis focuses on the philosophies and actions of a group Hongan no kai comprised of Minamata disease sufferers and their supporters in 1994 Relying on the group's newsletter Tamashii utsure Transferring the spirit this monograph explores the ways in which Hongan no kai members have come to terms with their experiences as well as their visions of a world otherwise janaka shaba where ontology epistemology and worldviews are construed differently from those of this modern world The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2012 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts Time, Language, and Visuality in Agamben's Philosophy J. Doussan, 2013-05-21 Giorgio Agamben a philosopher both celebrated and reviled is among the prominent voices in contemporary Italian thought today His work which touches upon fields as diverse as aesthetics and biopolitics is often understood within a framework of Aristotelian potentiality With this incisive critique Doussan identifies a different tendency in the philosopher's work an engagement with the problem of time that is inextricably bound up with language and visuality Founded in his early writings on metaphysics and continuing to his present occupation with inoperativity Time Language and Visuality in Agamben's Philosophy forges an original path through Agamben's extensive commentary on the linguistic and the visual to illuminate the recurrent temporal theme of capture and evasion the cat and mouse game that bears the foundational violence of not just representation but concept formation itself In the process Doussan both reveals its limit and establishes a ground for future engagements

Catastrophe and Redemption Jessica Whyte, 2013-12-01 Offers a striking new reading of Agamben's political thought and its implications for political action in the present Challenging the prevalent account of Agamben as a pessimistic thinker Catastrophe and Redemption proposes a reading of his political thought in which the redemptive element of his work is not a curious aside but instead is fundamental to his project Jessica Whyte considers his critical account of contemporary politics his argument that Western politics has been biopolitics since its inception his critique of human rights his argument that the state of exception is now the norm and the paradigmatic significance he attributes to the concentration camp and shows that it is in the midst of these catastrophes of the present that Agamben sees the possibility of a form of profane redemption Whyte outlines the importance of potentiality in his attempt to formulate a new politics examines his relation to Jewish and Christian strands of messianism and interrogates the new forms of praxis that he situates within contemporary commodity culture taking Agamben's thought as a call for the creation of new political forms Primo Levi and the Identity of a Survivor Nancy Harrowitz, 2017-01-06 Primo Levi 1919-1987 was an Italian chemist writer and Holocaust survivor who used a combination of testimony essays and creative writing to explore crucial themes related to the Shoah His voice is among the most important to emerge from this dark chapter in human history In Primo Levi and the Identity of a Survivor Nancy Harrowitz examines the complex role that Levi s Jewish identity played in his choices of how to portray his survival as well as in his exposition of topics such as bystander complicity Her analysis uncovers a survivor s shame that deeply influenced the personas he created to recount his experiences Exploring a range of Levi s works including Survival at Auschwitz and lesser known works of fiction and poetry she illustrates key issues within his development as a writer At the heart of Levi s discourse Harrowitz argues lies a complex interplay of narrative modes that reveals his brilliance as a theorist of testimony

Decolonizing Memory Jill Jarvis,2021-05-10 The magnitude of the legal violence exercised by the French to colonize and occupy Algeria 1830 1962 is such that only aesthetic works have been able to register its enduring effects In Decolonizing Memory Jill Jarvis examines the power of literature to provide what demographic data historical facts and legal trials have not in terms of attesting to and accounting for this destruction Taking up the unfinished work of decolonization since 1962 Algerian writers have played a crucial role in forging historical memory and nurturing political resistance their work helps to make possible what state violence has rendered almost unthinkable Drawing together readings of multilingual texts by Yamina Mechakra Waciny Laredj Zahia Rahmani Fadhma A th Mansour Amrouche Assia Djebar and Samira Negrouche alongside theoretical juridical visual and activist texts from both Algeria s national liberation war 1954 1962 and war on civilians 1988 1999 this book challenges temporal and geographical frameworks that have implicitly organized studies of cultural memory around Euro American reference points Jarvis shows how this literature rewrites history disputes state authority to arbitrate justice and cultivates a multilingual archive for imagining decolonized futures Design and the Question of History Tony Fry,Clive Dilnot,Susan Stewart,2015-02-26 Design and the Question of History is not a work of Design History Rather it is a mixture of mediation advocacy and polemic that takes seriously the directive force of design as an historical actor in and upon the world Understanding design as a shaper of worlds within which the political ethical and historical character of human being is at stake this text demands radically transformed notions of both design and history Above all the authors posit history as the generational site of the future Blindness to history it is suggested blinds us both to possibility and to the foreclosure of possibilities enacted through our designing The text is not a resolved continuous work presented through one voice Rather the three authors cut across each other presenting readers with the task of disclosing to themselves the commonalities repetitions and differences within the deployed arguments issues approaches and styles from which the text is constituted This is a work of friendship of solidarity in difference an act of cultural politics It invites the reader to take a position it seeks engagement over agreement Better Off Dead Deborah Christie,Sarah Juliet
