Ce volume se propose d'envisager un large panorama de la poésie du XXe siècle du surréalisme nos jours travers une interrogation fondamentale sur la question du lieu. Le lieu n'est pas un thème mais une notion philosophique tout droit venue de Heidegger mais aussi de Kant et de Platon. Comme nous sommes au XXe siècle de la modernité et de l'incertitude il se présente sous forme de question. La variété des lieux ville campagne et de la position face cette question permet de mieux comprendre l'évolution de la poésie au XXe siècle fortement pensante le dialogue philosophie poésie s'impose et la réflexion sur la notion de lieu ouvre sur une meilleure compréhension de ce qui est la poésie en général.

A Sociological Approach to Poetry Translation Jacob S. D. Blakesley, 2018-10-31 This volume provides an in depth comparative study of translation practices and the role of the poet translator across different countries and in so doing demonstrates the need for poetry translation to be extended beyond close reading and situated in context. Drawing on a corpus composed of data from national library catalogues and Worldcat the book examines translation practices of English language French language and Italian language poet translators through the lens of a broad sociological approach. Chapters 2 through 5 look at national poetic movements literary markets and the historical and socio political contexts of translations with Chapter 6 offering case studies of prominent and representative poet translators from each tradition. A comprehensive set of appendices offers readers an opportunity to explore this data in greater detail. Taken together the volume advocates for the need to study translation data against broader aesthetic historical and political trends and will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies and comparative literature.

The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015-09-10 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture. It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure. Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century. The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face. This unknown girl also referred to as The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today. Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups. This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It investigates how the mask s metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age
