Roman Finds Richard Hingley, Steven Willis, 2007-04-10 Studies on finds in Roman Britain and the Western Provinces have come to greater prominence in the literature of recent years The quality of such work has also improved and is now theoretically informed and based on rich data sets Work on finds over the last decade or two has changed our understanding of the Roman era in profound ways and yet despite such encouraging advances and such clear worth there has to date been little in the way of a dedicated forum for the presentation and evaluation of current approaches to the study of material culture The conference at which these papers were initially presented has gone some way to redressing this and these papers bring the very latest studies on Roman finds to a wider audience Twenty papers are here presented covering various themes

Journal of Roman Pottery Studies Steven Willis, 2016-02-29 The Journal of Roman Pottery Studies continues to present a cross section of recent research not just from the UK but also Europe Volume 16 carries papers on a variety of subjects from Britain and the Continent ranging from papers dealing with production sites to those looking at the distribution of types There are case studies on kiln vessels from Essex pottery production in Roman Cologne excavations at Toulouse as well as an examination of transport routes of samian ware to Britain Also included are an editorial obituaries and book reviews
