Second Nature A Gardeners Education:

Second Nature Michael Pollan, 2018-09-01 One of the distinguished gardening books of our time from the 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Omnivore's Dilemma USA Today Chosen by the American Horticultural Society as one of the 75 greatest books ever written about gardening After Michael Pollan bought an old Connecticut dairy farm he planted a garden and attempted to follow Thoreau's example do not impose your will upon the wilderness the woodchucks or the weeds That ethic did not of course work But neither did pesticides or firebombing the woodchuck burrow So Michael Pollan began to think about the troubled borders between nature and contemporary life The result is a funny profound and beautifully written book in the finest tradition of American nature writing It inspires thoughts on the war of the roses sex and class conflict in the garden virtuous composting the American lawn seed catalogs and the politics of planting a tree A blend of meditation autobiography and social history Second Nature from the renowned author of The Botany of Desire In Defense of Food and other bestsellers is as delicious a meditation on one man's relationship with the Earth as any you are likely to come upon The New York Times Book Review Usually when Americans have wanted to explore their relationship to nature they've gone to the wilderness or the woods Michael Pollan went to the garden instead and he's returned with a quirky and pleasing book Annie Dillard A joy to read Los Angeles Times

Second Nature Michael Pollan, 1992 More than eight years ago Harper's editor Michael Pollan bought an old Connecticut dairy farm He planted a garden and adopted Thoreau's viewpoint Do not impose your will upon the wilderness the woodchucks or the weeds Here is his timely meditation and social history on man's relationship with nature and the environment

The Aesthetics Of Human Environments Arnold Berleant, Allen Carlson, 2007-05-24 The Aesthetics of Human Environments is a companion volume to Carlson's and Berleant's The Aesthetics of Natural Environments Whereas the earlier collection focused on the aesthetic appreciation of nature The Aesthetics of Human Environments investigates philosophical and aesthetics issues that arise from our engagement with human environments ranging from rural landscapes to urban cityscapes Our experience of public spaces such as shopping centers theme parks and gardens as well as the impact of our personal living spaces on the routine activities of our everyday life are discussed in terms of their aesthetic value and the nature of our aesthetic appreciation This volume will appeal to any reader concerned about the aesthetic quality of the world in which we live Technology and Values Craig Hanks, 2009-05-04 This anthology features essays and book excerpts on technology and values written by preeminent figures in the field from the early 20th century to the present It offers an in depth range of readings on important applied issues in technology as well Useful in addressing questions on philosophy sociology and theory of technology Includes wide ranging coverage on metaphysics ethics and politics as well as issues relating to gender biotechnology everyday artifacts and architecture A good supplemental text for courses on moral or political problems in which contemporary technology is a unit of focus An accessible and thought provoking book for beginning and advanced undergraduates yet also a helpful resource for graduate students and academics Apprentice to a Garden Evelyn J. Hadden, 2005 Hadden's stories of how a new gardener transforms her urban lawn into a private wild garden evoke the wonder, the drama and the compelling nature of gardening Domestic Wild: Memory, Nature and Gardening in Suburbia Franklin Ginn, 2016-06-23 In Domestic Wild Franklin Ginn sets out to find a new sense of the wild at the heart of modernity. Inspired by experienced skilful gardeners, Ginn analyses what happens when plants, animals and people meet in the suburbs of London. Weaving major theories of landscape, memory and nonhuman subjectivity with the practical wisdom of gardeners, this book offers a radical new account of everyday gardening. Amid spectacular horizons of planetary loss, Domestic Wild argues that gardening offers a means to cultivate a renewed sense of intimacy with nature and ourselves Political Awakenings Harry Kreisler, 2010-03-16 A remarkable collection of insight and inspiration from 20 leaders and thinkers including Elizabeth Warren, Howard Zinn and Oliver Stone. Publishers Weekly starred review. As a kid, Noam Chomsky handed out the Daily Mirror at his uncle's newsstand on 72nd Street, inadvertently finding himself in a buzzing intellectual and political hub for European immigrants in New York. Iranian human rights Nobel laureate Shirin Ebadi and her husband signed their own legal contract attempting to restore equality to their marriage after the Iranian Revolution effectively erased the legal rights of women. Elizabeth Warren set out to expose those frauds declaring bankruptcy and taking advantage of the system, only to discover in her research a very different story of hard-working middle-class families facing economic collapse in the absence of a social safety net. While studying at Oxford, a young Tariq Ali made a bet with a friend that he could work the Vietnam War into every single answer on his final exams. In this rousing, thoughtful, often funny and always inspiring volume, a diverse and impressive group of thinkers reflect on those formative experiences that shaped their own political commitments. A fascinating new window into the revealing links between the personal and the political, Political Awakenings will engage readers across generations. Fascinating Booklist

Summer Gary Schmidt, Susan M. Felch, Barry Moser, 2007 Summer has gone by so fast we often say the only season for which we say that Summer does seem to make us keenly aware of time. In our vacations we step out of time. Watching our gardens we see the progress of time. Seeing the geese come honking back we are aware of the passing of time. In essays, poems and meditations organized around themes of time and our responses to it, twenty-five writers consider summer and its spiritual meanings. Contributors include Anne LaMott, Luci Shaw, Ray Bradbury, Mary Gordon, Richard Selzer, Thomas Lynch, Celia Thaxter, Robert Clark, Michael Pollan, Francis Bacon, Jim Heynen and Emily Dickinson Spiritual Capital Samuel D. Rima, 2017-07-05 Presenting a thorough, comprehensive theory of spiritual capital based on solid academic research, Spiritual Capital serves to reinforce and amplify the notion of a moral economic core that is beginning to feature in contemporary economic arguments. In this rare major work wholly dedicated to the subject of spiritual capital, Sam Rima explains the desperate need for revolutionary and transformational thinking in the area of economic policy and practice and makes the case for a new moral foundation to business and economics that directly addresses today's financial and business crisis.

Writing in an accessible style and drawing on examples from several continents Rima explains spiritual capital theory in terms of the resources needed for its creation how it is formed how it can be invested and what the return on investment can be The book provides practical tools for measuring a personal or organizational store of spiritual capital along with clear guidelines on how to engage in spiritual capital formation These will benefit business leaders interested in developing viable and sustainable enterprises capable of avoiding the disconnection between economic policy and social reality There are also recommendations here for policy makers regarding the macro application of spiritual capital theory This important contribution to Gower's Transformation and Innovation Series will appeal to business leaders and policy makers academicians and students in the fields of sociology theology and economics and anyone interested in social and economic justice issues social innovation and corporate social responsibility

The Little Green Book of Gardening Wisdom Barbara Burn, 2014-03-04

Surprising as it may seem the first place an experienced gardener looks for advice and ideas is not the local gardening store or even the nearby botanical garden but a good library Gardeners have been sharing their wisdom for thousands of years and their books and treatises still provide a rich resource for growers and landscapers today Here in this volume is a bouquet of quotations that will strike a responsive chord with anyone who has ever worked the soil or just admired nature's handiwork Areas that are covered include the metaphorical Some men like to make a little garden out of life and walk down a path Jean Anouilh The Lark 1952 words of encouragement Then seek your job with thankfulness and work till further orders If it's only netting strawberries or killing slugs on borders And when your back stops aching and your hands begin to harden You will find yourself a partner in the Glory of the Garden Rudyard Kipling The Glory of the Garden 1911 reflection To sit in the shade on a fine day and look upon verdure is the most perfect refreshment Jane Austen Mansfield Park 1814 and the practical Three fundamental aspects of border design site shape and size have at least as great an effect on the ease of garden maintenance as does the actual selection of plants Frederick McGourty The Perennial Gardener 1989 and much more

Drawing on sources ranging from the earliest agrarian civilizations to the present The Little Red Book of Gardening Wisdom is a treasury of great ideas that will delight amateur and expert gardeners alike Design Your Natural Midwest Garden Patricia Hill, 2007 Gardening with native species by award winning designer shows you how to combine varieties that are perfect for the soils and climates of the upper Midwest Garden Plots Shelley Saguario, 2017-05-15 Shelley Saguario's unique book illustrates the persistent presence of gardens in literature Gardens in fiction do not simply represent a familiar theme Saguario contends but are bound up with wider aesthetic and ideological issues As with literary forms so too are gardens subject to transformations Encompassing a wide array of twentieth and twenty first century authors including Virginia Woolf Eudora Welty Carol Shields J M Coetzee Toni Morrison Leslie Marmon Silko Jamaica Kincaid Don DeLillo and Philip K Dick this book's preoccupations are signalled in the evocatively titled chapters Botanical Modernisms Natural History and Postmodern Grafting Postcolonial Landscapes How Does Your Cyber Garden Grow and Coevolutionary Histories the Poetics of a Paradox Informed by postcolonial formalist feminist and psychoanalytic theories Garden Plots is a must read for all those alive to the space gardens inhabit in the literary landscape Stuff Every Gardener Should Know Scott Meyer, 2017-03-07 This handy little gift book is the perfect pocket guide to your garden For the green thumb in your life this delightful companion is blooming with fun facts and helpful ideas for everything from indoor seed starting to tips for hassle free roses What's the difference between heirlooms and hybrids How can I stop weeds from invading my flowerbeds And what's the best way to attract helpful beneficial insects All these questions and more are answered for gardeners of all ages and experience Topics include Tips for Hassle Free Roses How to Grow Perfect Tomatoes How to Start Seeds Indoors How to Extend the Growing Season And more The New England Gardener's Year Reeser Manley, Marjorie Peronto, 2017-10-24 Gardeners will find advice and photos for adapting to any microclimate or situation including shade wet soil coastal landscapes container raised bed and extended season gardening and much more Gardeners and landscapers will treasure this book for its elegant writing and full color photography its photo essay tours of outstanding owner maintained gardens throughout New England its focus on organic methods and native plants and its guidance on integrating gardens of every variety into their surrounding landscapes Photo sequences of key techniques enhance the book which is designed and indexed to provide instant access to the information a gardener needs at hand In Reeser Manley and Marjorie Peronto's view the plots of land on which we live are not our yards but our gardens extensions of the surrounding natural world and we as gardeners are caretakers of that world They advocate gardening in tune with nature avoiding pesticides chemical fertilizers and invasive plants while creating a garden that enhances local biodiversity The New England Gardener's Year will guide you to a garden of great beauty and bountiful harvests Paradise Transplanted Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, 2014-08-15 Gardens are immobile literally rooted in the earth but they are also shaped by migration and by the transnational movement of ideas practices plants and seeds In Paradise Transplanted Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo reveals how successive conquests and diverse migrations have made Southern California gardens and in turn how gardens influence social inequality work leisure status and our experiences of nature and community Drawing on historical archival research ethnography and over one hundred interviews with a wide range of people including suburban homeowners paid Mexican immigrant gardeners professionals at the most elite botanical garden in the West and immigrant community gardeners in the poorest neighborhoods of inner city Los Angeles this book offers insights into the ways that diverse global migrations and garden landscapes shape our social world Analysing the Boundaries of the Ancient Roman Garden Victoria Austen,2023-02-09

This book demonstrates how the Romans constructed garden boundaries specifically in order to open up or undermine the division between a number of oppositions such as inside outside sacred profane art nature and real imagined Using case studies from across literature and material and visual culture Victoria Austen explores the perception of individual garden sites in response to their limits and showcases how the Romans delighted in playing with concepts of boundedness and separation Transculturally the garden is understood as a marked off and cultivated space Distinct from their surroundings gardens are material and symbolic spaces that constitute both universal and culturally specific ways of accommodating the natural world and expressing human attitudes and values Although we define these spaces explicitly through the notions of separation and division in many cases we are unable to make sense of the most basic distinction between garden and not garden In response to this ambiguity Austen interrogates the notion of the boundary as an essential characteristic of the Roman garden Global Ecologies and the Environmental Humanities Elizabeth DeLoughrey,Jill Didur,Anthony Carrigan,2015-04-10

This book examines current trends in scholarly thinking about the new field of the Environmental Humanities focusing in particular on how the history of globalization and imperialism represents a special challenge to the representation of environmental issues Essays in this path breaking collection examine the role that narrative visual and aesthetic forms can play in drawing attention to and shaping our ideas about long term and catastrophic environmental challenges such as climate change militarism deforestation the pollution and management of the global commons petrocapi talism and the commodification of nature The volume presents a postcolonial approach to the environmental humanities especially in conjunction with current thinking in areas such as political ecology and environmental justice Spanning regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe Latin America and the Caribbean Australasia and the Pacific as well as North America the volume includes essays by founding figures in the field as well as new scholars providing vital new interdisciplinary perspectives on the politics of the earth disaster vulnerability and resilience political ecologies and environmental justice world ecologies and the Anthropocene In engaging critical ecologies the volume poses a postcolonial environmental humanities for the twenty first century At the heart of this is a conviction that a thoroughly global postcolonial and comparative approach is essential to defining the emergent field of the environmental humanities and that this field has much to offer in understanding critical issues surrounding the creation of alternative ecological futures Locating

Suburbia Paula Hamilton,Paul Ashton,2013-01-01 The identity of suburbia so far as it can be ascribed one is shifting and insecure a borderline and liminal space Dominant stereotypes have listed it as on the margins beyond edges of cultural sophistication and tradition and the areas that make up sprawl But in the twenty first century this static view has to be modified As is evident from this collection suburban dwellers themselves have redefined themselves This collection explores the range and complexity of twenty first century responses to city suburbs predominantly in Sydney It draws on a range of approaches from history to creative non fiction and multi media
