Information Sources in Science and Technology C. C. Parker, R. V. Turley, 2013-10-22 Information Sources in Science and Technology A Practical Guide to Traditional and Online Use presents a selection of traditional and online methods of using information sources in science and technology including people organizations literature hosts and databases This text serves as a reference book that helps the reader choose sources of information and their guides includes a routine for finding and using information and offers tips on searching and obtaining literature in a usable form This book is comprised of nine chapters and begins by explaining how to choose type s of information source that is likely to be most helpful The chapters that follow present guides on people organizations and literature as sources of information A chapter on information services focuses on those organizations that supply information or references to information that could be helpful These services range from answering telephone queries to supplying collections of relevant documents and from broadcast television information to direct connection with computer databases The next chapters discuss ways of searching the literature and computer databases obtaining literature in a usable form and organizing and presenting information This book concludes by considering current awareness or keeping up to date with information about recent developments This monograph is intended for librarians and information officers especially for those working in scientific or industrial environments practicing scientists and engineers and students associated with these professions German-English Genealogical Dictionary Ernest Thode, 1992 German English English German dictionary of genealogical terms phrases and symbols The Anatomy of Censorship Jay Elwood Daily, 1973 Lexical Change in Present-day English Roswitha Fischer, 1998 Search Computing Stefano Ceri, Marco Brambilla, 2011-03-14 Search computing which has evolved from service computing focuses on building the answers to complex search queries by interacting with a constellation of cooperating search services using the ranking and joining of results as the dominant factors for service composition The field is multi disciplinary in nature and takes advantage of contributions from other research areas such as knowledge representation human computer interfaces psychology sociology economics and legal sciences This book the second in the Search Computing series describes the evolution of theories technologies and methods related to search computing The book has been divided into eight parts reflecting the main research directions within the Search Computing project The parts focus on search as an information exploration task interaction design issues when dealing with multi domain search results modeling and semantic description of search services the rank join problem query processing techniques and architectures tools and mashups for application development the application of search computing to bio informatics and the exploitation potentials of project results Dictionary and Introduction to Global Environmental Governance Richard A Meganck, Richard E Saunier, 2013-06-17 This unique dictionary and introduction to Global Environmental Governance GEG written and compiled by two veterans of the international stage provides a compilation of over 5000 terms organizations and acronyms drawn from hundreds of official sources An introductory essay frames the major issues in GEG and outlines the pitfalls of talking past one another when discussing the most critical of issues facing the planet. It challenges those who are concerned with the management of our planet and its inhabitants to understand and accept a vocabulary common to the often opposing objectives sought in the many GEG instruments. The result is a practical tool that should find a central place on the desk of anyone involved in environmental management, development or sustainability issues anywhere in the world, including the United Nations, government, policy makers, NGOs and other stakeholder groups, the business community and students and professionals.
