Second Seduction:

Stripped Maggie M. Werner, 2020-10-14 Stripped examines the ways in which erotic bodies communicate in performance and as cultural figures Focusing on symbols independent of language Maggie M Werner explores the signs and signals of erotic dance audience responses to these codes and how this exchange creates embodied rhetoric Informed by her own ethnographic research conducted in strip clubs and theaters Werner analyzes the movement dress and cosmetic choices of topless dancers and neo burlesque performers Drawing on critical methods of analysis she develops approaches for interpreting embodied erotic rhetoric and the marginal cultural practices that construct women's public erotic bodies She follows these bodies out into the streets into the protest spaces where sex workers and anti rape activists challenge discourses about morality and victimhood and struggle to remake their own identities Throughout Werner showcases the voices of these performers and in the analyses shares her experiences as an audience member interviewer and paying customer The result is a uniquely personal and erudite study that advances conversations about women's agency and erotic performance moving beyond the binary that views the erotic body as either oppressed or empowered Theoretically sophisticated and delightfully intimate Stripped is an important contribution to the study of the rhetoric of the body and to rhetorical and performance studies more broadly

Self and Other Robert Rogers, 1991-10-01 In Self and Other Robert Rogers presents a powerful argument for the adoption of a theory of object relations combining the best features of traditional psychoanalytic theory with contemporary views on attachment behavior and intersubjectivity Rogers discusses theory in relation both to actual psychoanalytic case histories and imagined selves found in literature and provides a critical rereading of the case histories of Freud Winnicott Lichtenstein Sechehaye and Bettelheim At once scientific and humanistic Self and Other engagingly draws from theoretical clinical and literary traditions It will appeal to psychoanalysts as well as to literary scholars interested in the application of psychoanalysis to literature

Subjects and Simulations Anne O'Byrne, Hugh J. Silverman, 2014-11-05 Subjects and Simulations presents essays focused on suffering and sublimity representation and subjectivity and the relation of truth and appearance in the twenty first century Inspired by the work of Jean Baudrillard Philippe Lacoue Labarthe and JeanLuc Nancy sixteen authors study how the real reasserts itself in an age of every more fragmented media and how art and literature give us access to forms of truth that elude philosophy How does representation grant us access to the place once occupied by the subject Is political life possible Can plural thinking be retrieved Will metaphor and simulation give us ways of being in an evanescent world The volume engages discussions of French and Continental philosophy post structuralism deconstruction simulacra aesthetics existentialism and media theory

The Neither/nor of the Second Sex Céline León, 2008 Although Kierkegaard provided many a puzzle for his biographers one would be wrong to assume Kierkegaard invariably lied when he claimed to be telling the truth Tying Kierkegaard's baffling misogyny and ultimately his misogamy to the existence of an inner mysterium The Neither Nor of the Second Sex navigates between the Charybdis of an allegedly insurmountable gulf between works and biography and the Scylla of the biographical fallacy a peril whose threat raised greater alarms in Kierkegaard Celine Leon draws her conclusions by paying close attention to the texts and by carefully distinguishing between author and pseudonyms She only brings works and life together when Kierkegaard ambivalently plays with the former in order to impart something of the secret lying at the core of his being to reverse Sartre's famous formulation to communicate at the heart of hiddenness Leon shows how Kierkegaard a writer whose views on other subjects she holds in high regard projected his lack onto a particular woman Regina Olsen his one time fiancée and lifelong obsession then onto all women and ultimately regarding his own exceptional status as normative elected to ban the heterosexual relation altogether This is not however the same as saying that notwithstanding the religious development and the enormous production whose twin onset he ascribed to the rupture with Regina Kierkegaard did not do so at an egregious personal cost Book jacket Vanquished Hope Tarr, 2006-07-01 Sent to bring down the reputation of suffragist leader Caledonia Callie Rivers Hadrian St Claire soon discovers he is the one in danger of being vanquished He's a Stud, She's a Slut, and 49 Other Double Standards Every Woman Should Know Jessica Valenti, 2008-05-06 With sass humor and in your face facts this book informs and equips women with the tools they need to combat sexist comments topple ridiculous stereotypes and end the promotion of insidious double standards The Sense of Sex Margaret R. Tremear, 1919 The Ontario Weekly Notes, 1919 Opera and the City Andrea Goldman, 2013-12-10 In late imperial China opera transmitted ideas across the social hierarchy about the self family society and politics Beijing attracted a diverse array of opera genres and audiences and by extension served as a hub for the diffusion of cultural values It is in this context that historian Andrea S Goldman harnesses opera as a lens through which to examine urban cultural history Her meticulous yet playful account takes up the multiplicity of opera types that proliferated at the time exploring them as contested sites through which the Qing court and commercial playhouses negotiated influence and control over the social and moral order Opera performance blurred lines between public and private life and offered a stage on which to act out gender and class transgressions This work illuminates how the state and various urban constituencies manipulated opera to their own ends and sheds light on empire wide transformations underway at the time Analectic Magazine and Naval Chronicle, 1816 Generation and Degeneration Valeria Finucci, Kevin Brownlee, 2001-03-13 This collection explores the construction of genealogies both in the biological sense of procreation and in the metaphorical sense of heritage and cultural patrimony The Territories Law Reports Northwest Territories.
