want Meanwhile sexual violence abounds How can women in this environment possibly know what they want And why do we expect them to In this elegant searching book spanning science and popular culture pornography and literature debates on Me Too consent and feminism Katherine Angel challenges our assumptions about women s desire Why she asks should they be expected to know their desires And how do we take sexual violence seriously when not knowing what we want is key to both eroticism and personhood In today s crucial moment of renewed attention to violence and power Angel urges that we remake our thinking about sex pleasure and autonomy without any illusions about perfect self knowledge Only then will we fulfil Michel Foucault s teasing promise in 1976 that tomorrow sex will be good again Naked Truth Judith Lynne

Hanna,2012-05-01 Across America strip clubs have come under attack by a politically aggressive segment of the Christian Right Using plausible sounding but factually untrue arguments about the harmful effects of strip clubs on their communities the Christian Right has stoked public outrage and incited local and state governments to impose onerous restrictions on the clubs with the intent of dismantling the exotic dance industry But an even larger agenda is at work according to Judith Lynne Hanna In Naked Truth she builds a convincing case that the attack on exotic dance is part of the activist Christian Right s grand design to supplant constitutional democracy in America with a Bible based theocracy Hanna takes readers onstage backstage and into the community and courts to reveal the conflicts charges and realities that are playing out at the intersection of erotic fantasy religion politics and law She explains why exotic dance is a legitimate form of artistic communication and debunks the many myths and untruths that the Christian Right uses to fight strip clubs Hanna also demonstrates that while the fight happens at the local level it is part of a national campaign to regulate sexuality and punish those who do not adhere to Scripture based moral values Ultimately she argues the naked truth is that the separation of church and state is under siege and our civil liberties free speech women s rights and free enterprise are at stake

Unveiling Mysteries In Sexual Intercourse Timothy P. Ngwana,2009-01-05 Sex education for long has been a taboo subject in our societies Most parents are always shy to give their children any little information they know about sexual intercourse Many schools give that which they know but in a wrong way Instead they somehow condone to students indulging in sexual intercourse as an adventure The church that could give the truth gives it poorly This lack of communication has given the enemy the opportunity to manipulate people through sex that leads to their doom I say lack of communication because despite the education many have acquired so far sexually related diseases and disasters have led and are still leading many people quickly to their graves and many married couples do not enjoy God s ordained purpose of sexual intercourse in their homes We cannot afford to ignore this knowing that sex is one of the fundamental issues of life Amongst the ten major stimulus of the body scientifically it has been proven that sexual drive is the greatest Due to too many sexual disasters in our societies today many people may ask why is it that God created sexual intercourse Let me tell you Any thing created by God is for the good of man but only becomes bad when misused Through this book I will attempt to wipe away indulgence in ignorance from you by unveiling God's purpose for sexual intercourse. There is a mystery about sexual intercourse that many people have not yet known. God says my people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Reading this book will clear that ignorance and you will not enter into sexual activities for the sake of adventure or experiment. You will also know the consequences of wrong sexual relationships and the solutions to liberate yourself if you are in such bondages. This book is a product of many years of experience and research.
