Selected Poems 1956 1994:

Collected Poems : 1956-1994 ,1996 Time Waits Martin Matz,1994 In Other Words Barbara Williams,2022-04-11 Sixteen of Australia's foremost poets are featured in this volume They talk candidly about their lives and work of the craft the rigour the pangs and pleasures of their calling of winged moments caught however fleetingly on the page These writers also speak of transformation and transcendence the creative process their individual modes and methods of writing and the act of writing itself The interviews provide valuable insights on such topics as gender and writing landscape the function of poetry and the poet's social role influences embraced and withstood literary personal local regional national international The writers and their poetry are discussed from both within and beyond Australian borders This collection offers a broad range of Australian poets most of whom are now in the middle to later years of their career These poets have contributed significantly to the life and quality of poetry in Australia over recent decades and continue to play pivotal roles in Australia's cultural domain today as the country moves towards the threshold of a new century Selected Poems, 1956-1994 ,1995 This selection has been made by the poet himself from his eleven collections published from 1959 in Australia and then since 1980 by Oxford University Press up to the most recent title Rungs of Time He has chosen poems that still work for his readers and which bear witness to past selves Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby,2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s The Poetic Economists of England and Ireland 1912-2000 D. Johnston,2001-08-08 Although modern English and Irish poetry arises from the different cultures of the two countries these poets have shared throughout this century the same editors and publishers competed for the same prizes and been judged ostensibly by the same standards This book examines contexts for these exchanges over four decades tracing the lineages of Yeats and Hardy from their meeting in 1912 through WWI the 30s the 60s and the 90s to see what influences and ideas are exchanged and how poetic value accrues Collected Poems, 1956-1994 Thomas Kinsella,1996 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani,2017-02-27 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry is the first collection of essays to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual gender and comparative approaches The essays encompass a broad range of English speakers from the Caribbean Africa South Asia and the Pacific Islands the former settler colonies such as Canada Australia and New Zealand especially non Europeans Ireland Britain's oldest colony and postcolonial Britain itself particularly black and Asian immigrants and their descendants The comparative essays analyze poetry from across the postcolonial anglophone world in relation to postcolonialism and modernism fixed and free forms experimentation oral performance and creole languages protest poetry the poetic mapping of urban and rural spaces poetic embodiments of sexuality and gender poetry and publishing history and poetry's response to and reimagining of globalization Strengthening the place of poetry in postcolonial studies this Companion also contributes to the globalization of poetry studies A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Poetry & Geography Neal Alexander, David Cooper, 2013-05-22 Collected critical essays examine contemporary poetry in terms of cultural geography Key themes are place and identity literary cartographies walking as trope and spatial practice the poetics of edges margins and peripheries landscape language and form

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets New England Review, 1997 Light, Freedom and Song David Pierce, 2005-01-01 In this absorbing analysis of modern Irish writing an acknowledged expert considers the hybrid character of modern Irish writing to show how language culture and history have been affected by the colonial encounter between Ireland and Britain Examining the great themes of loss and struggle David Pierce traces the impact on Irish writing of the Great Famine and cultural nationalism and considers the way the work of Ireland's two leading writers W B Yeats and James Joyce complicate and elucidate our view of the harp and the crown The book draws a contrast between the West of Ireland in the 1930s when the new Irish State enjoyed its first full independent decade and the North of Ireland in the 1980s when the spectre of British imperialism threatened the stability of Ireland Pierce then surveys contemporary Irish writing and reflects on the legacy of the colonial encounter and on the passage to a postmodern or postnationalist Ireland in the work of such crucial living writers as John Banville Derek Mahon and John McGahern International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry

The Possibility of Love Kathleen O'Dwyer, 2009-01-14 The Possibility of Love is an exploration of a concept close to the human heart Grounded in the ordinary everyday experiences of human living the book provides an exploration of the diverse obstacles to the experience of love the consequences of love's absence and the unquenchable desire for love which propels influences and ultimately motivates much of human behaviour The Possibility of Love poses the question is love actually possible between human beings or is it an ideal a fantasy an illusion or a comforting aspiration which enables a palliative denial and distortion of the reality of human being This expansive question is approached through an interdisciplinary analysis The author addresses the question of love's possibility as it is explored in a selection of literature from the disciplines of philosophy psychoanalysis and poetry The interdisciplinary nature of the study is based on the assertion of an interconnection between the three disciplines and that this interconnection enables a unique and insightful exploration of the question of love's possibility Thus the question is explored from diverse view points and also from different time frames convergences and divergences are noted and discussed and conclusions are drawn from the ensuing findings The book is essentially a philosophical analysis of an emotion that significantly impacts on human experience It attests to the gradually increasing acknowledgement of the power of emotional experience in the search for knowledge wisdom and truth Thus it is a uniquely honest exploration of human nature in contemporary times

Poetry Today Anthony Thwaite, 2016-04-15 This is the most authoritative and up to date survey of contemporary British poetry 1960 1995 It is the third version but second edition published by Longman of a successful survey that first appeared 30 years ago and provides a succinct and accessible overview of British poets movements and themes ideal for English courses and the general reader alike

International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Irish Poetry W. J. McCormack, 2002-04 In this avowedly interpretative anthology of Irish verse W J McCormack traces creativity of contradiction through several centuries finding poets productively at odds with their forebears their contemporaries even with themselves From Yeats's tragic laughter to the quieter ironies of Seamus Heaney from the rambunctious narratives of Merriman and Joyce to the pathos of Wilde's Reading Gaol the same sparring spirit is found
