Excerpt from The Life of Louis Claude De Saint Martin the Unknown Philosopher and the Substance of His Transcendental Doctrine Amidst the fever of the French Revolution we find certain men whether actively or not participating in the turmoil of the time whose intellectual eyes were fixed far off amidst the luminous peace of another and truer order Here it is the Marquis de Condorcet while the chaotic forces of the Reign of Terror are surging madly round his quiet study Again it is the author of Obermann forlorn philosophic exile amidst the scented pines of Switzerland And once more it is Louis Claude de Saint Martin as isolated amongst the peaks of his spiritual aspirations as ever was Etienne Pivert de S nancour amidst the Alpine snows Of these three all after their manner illustrious Saint Martin only had a message of permanent importance to the human race Condorcet was a materialist and in the restricted sense an infidel who looked to the State for salvation his considerable gifts were useful perhaps in their day and he has passed with it not untenderly remembered but still to be classed among those whose prophecies have been made void and those whose tongues have failed The ice of intellectual despair had enervated the soul of Senancour before he went to dwell under the shadow of Jaman and he who rightly called himself un solitaire inconnu had no anodyne for himself or his age About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any
