Andrea Mantegna: Paintings in Close Up Roger Godfrey, 2015-01-06 Andrea Mantegna 1431-1506 one of the foremost north Italian painters of the 15th century A master of perspective and foreshortening he made important contributions to the compositional techniques of Renaissance painting Like other artists of the time Mantegna experimented with perspective e.g. by lowering the horizon in order to create a sense of greater monumentality His flinty metallic landscapes and somewhat stony figures give evidence of a fundamentally sculptural approach to painting He also led a workshop that was the leading producer of prints in Venice before 1500

Arnold Böcklin: Paintings in Close Up Carla Tagloff, 2015-01-06 Arnold Böcklin was a Swiss symbolist painter influenced by Romanticism His painting is symbolist with mythological subjects often related with the Pre-Raphaelites He depicts fantastical figures alongside classical buildings frequently revealing an obsession with death creating a strange fantasy world Art critics have constantly found it not easy to categorize this original and eccentric artist Böcklin hated giving titles to his pictures and declared that he painted in order to make people dream Just as it is poetry's task to express feelings painting must provoke them too A picture must give the spectator as much food for thought as a poem and must make the same kind of impression as a piece of music
