Love And Exile:

Daybreak Alice Mary Buckton, 1918 The Cosmic Relations and Immortality Henry Holt, 1919 A Selection from the Poems of Mathilde Blind Mathilde Blind, 1897 Poetical Works Mathilde Blind, 1900 Saga emotions Gareth Lloyd Evans, Brynja Þorgeirsdóttir, Carlyne Larrington, 2025-06-10

Focusing particularly on historically oriented sagas Saga emotions identifies and examines a range of emotions from across Old Norse Icelandic saga literature Each chapter begins with a discrete emotion term such as rei i anger gle i joy or the peculiarly Old Norse v ghugr killing mood exploring its usages within the broad saga corpus and focusing on its contextual meanings and narrative purposes The contributions explore the specifics of the lexical terms used for different emotion states and offer in depth case studies that consider how various emotions manifest within particular examples of saga literature The book offers the emotional granularity lacking in current studies of Norse emotion and serves as an essential foundation for future research and study into emotional depiction in Old Norse Icelandic saga literature

Exiled Shadow Norman Manea, 2023-01-01 A virtuoso collage novel about narrative identity and exile from international literary sensation Norman Manea One of the most eloquent living witnesses of the European 20th century Norman Manea at 87 has brought out Exiled Shadow a contemplative work of fiction in a strong clarion translation into English by Carla Baricz A fitting summarization of a rich and deeply honorable career Sam Sacks Wall Street Journal Exiled Shadow belongs among the great intricate and uncompromising works of contemporary literature Jan Knoffeke Neue Zürcher Zeitung Switzerland In this vibrant mosaic of voices sources and stories the protagonist known only as the Nomadic Misanthrope leaves communist Romania and is reunited with his friend Gunther an unrepentant Marxist exiled in Berlin Their meeting sparks a spirited dialogue that endures throughout the Nomadic Misanthrope's subsequent decades in the United States At the center of the plot is the figure of the shadow the insubstantial shape of the exile the wandering Jew the death camp survivor the individual under totalitarianism the dark side of the Jungian personality a figure that calls into question the boundaries of the human condition Recalling the beloved nineteenth century German tale of Peter Schlemihl the man who sold his shadow for a bag of gold this is Norman Manea's most daring work yet an intimate record of alienation and endurance

Love for Sale William E. Burgwinkle, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time Modern Love David Shumway,2003-08-01 My ideas of romance came from the movies said Woody Allen and it is to the movies as well as to novels advice columns and self help books that David Shumway turns for his history of modern love Modern Love argues that a crisis in the meaning and experience of marriage emerged when it lost its institutional function of controlling the distribution of property and instead came to be seen as a locus for feelings of desire togetherness and loss Over the course of the twentieth century partly in response to this crisis a new language of love intimacy emerged not so much replacing but rather coexisting with the earlier language of romance Reading a wide range of texts from early twentieth century advice columns and their late twentieth century antecedent the relationship self help book to Hollywood screwball comedies and from the relationship films of Woody Allen and his successors to contemporary realist novels about marriages Shumway argues that the kinds of stories the culture has told itself have changed Part layperson's history of marriage and romance part meditation on intimacy itself Modern Love will be both amusing and interesting to almost anyone who thinks about relationships and who doesn't Greek Love Songs and Epigrams from the Anthology ,1911 The Month ,1916 A life's love [sonnets]. George Barlow,1882 The Works of William Shakespeare: Much ado about nothing. Love's labour's lost. A midsummer-night's dream. The merchant of Venice. E. H. T. van Baest,1998 The Stanzaic Poems written by Hadewijch of Antwerp in the 13th century are a body of 45 lyrical poems in stanzas They are daring God talk in the guise of courtly love songs Hadewijch uses the linguistic style of chivalry but her poems are by no means courtly poetry She shifts the current meaning of chivalry by transferring its context to a field of meaning focused on God Because of the view of Minne love that is embodied in them the Stanzaic Poems are an exponent of the age old tradition of women s songs of which the Song of Songs is the best known example and as such they are an expression of a particular manner of keeping company with God they celebrate a relationship of mutuality between partners equivalent in love An introductory essay highlights some of the striking points of lovers the raging desire of orewoet the gentility of humankind s origin This essay is followed by a rendering of the Stanzaic Poems from Middle Dutch into Modern English prose With an introduction by Edward Schillebeeckx Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi,2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran s modern history By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity Indian Angles Mary Ellis Gibson,2011-05-13 A new historical approach to Indian English literature Mary Ellis Gibson shows that poetry not fiction was the dominant literary genre of Indian writing in English until 1860 and that poetry written in colonial situations can tell us as much or even more about figuration multilingual literacies and histories of nationalism than novels can Gibson re creates the historical webs of affiliation and resistance that were experienced by writers in colonial India writers of British Indian and mixed ethnicities Advancing new theoretical and historical paradigms for reading colonial literatures Indian Angles makes accessible many writers heretofore neglected or virtually unknown Gibson recovers texts by British women by nonelite British men and by persons who would in the nineteenth century have been called Eurasian Her work traces the mutually constitutive history of English language poets from Sir William Jones to Toru Dutt and Rabindranath Tagore Drawing on contemporary postcolonial theory her work also provides new ways of thinking about British internal colonialism as its results were exported to South Asia In lucid and accessible prose Gibson presents a new theoretical approach to colonial and postcolonial literatures
