grinder too with a picture of a blue windmill on it for which I conceived an earnest hatred such as inanimate things sometimes inspire in one It was so silly and so inadequate and in order to get enough ground coffee its futile little handle had to be turned all day while the blue windmill looked busy and did nothing and was perfectly cheerful all the time With these not very useful tools to work with and it was very difficult to buy anything at 1 866 7 Furnes at that time there came a rush of work which is not unusual in war time and there was a great deal to do at the kitchen The first convoy of wounded men used to come in about 10 30 a m They arrived always in one of those road trains which are common in Belgium and which make circuits and stop at various small stations We used to hear a horn blown and then the noisy outer door of the station slammed and we knew the train load of men had arrived The sitting cases were always brought in first These were men damaged for the most part in their feet or hands or with superficial scalp wounds or frostbitten They hobbled in or were carried on men s backs or leaned against some comrade s shoulder And across the entrance hall of the station went day and night a long stream of them to pass under the archway and out at the other

World War II London Blitz Diary Vol. 3 Ruby Alice Side Thompson,2012-03 This diary is the 3rd in a series of four volumes written by Ruby Side Thompson They document her experience about World War Two in England and the London Blitz The diaries are unique written from a woman s experience during war time They include Ruby s opinions written only for the privacy of her diary Her views are often ahead of her time She writes about the war in terms that would have been considered blasphemy if spoken out loud We are fortunate to have this very personal and articulate perspective of that war of seventy years ago March 4 1943 Well today March Fourth I live I still live Last night we had two bad raids The first came at eight thirty and went on until ten p m The second came at four thirty this morning and lasted until a quarter to six Our gunfire was terrific I have not heard yet what damage was done Nothing in this immediate vicinity though when Ted returned from the Home Guard he said one of their officers had come in in an extremely nervous state and said bombs had fallen in Collier Row However when the radio man came this morning about a half and hour ago he said no not Collier Row last night but nearer to Fairlop and Warley the airdromes well we ll know later Whilst the racket is going on I get very sick and retch constantly I can t help it and I can t stop it This morning I feel sore in the ribs as though somebody had kicked me If a bombardment went on for twelve or eighteen hours I think I should expire not from a direct hit but from my one bodily mechanism which will not behave properly and which I can t control no matter how emphatically my will commands it Sheer animal fear over which the soul has no control yes sure it can kill you This blasted war When oh when will it finish If there is anything in this world stupider than war I have never heard of it Men deliberately destroying mankind men deliberately destroying the entire world could there possibly be anything more insane Well I pray like mad God be merciful to me a sinner Deliver us from evil Oh deliver us from evil

Bunty's War Ida Greene,2016-08-19 Bunty s War is a story of hope and survival as seen through the diary entries of Bunty as she grows from schoolgirl to woman in World War Two England It embraces horror and hilarity fear and courage despair and determination cruelty and kindness Ida Greene brings her intimate diary entries to life beginning with carefree pre war days in England with her teenage companions in a quiet London suburb Suddenly turned upside down by the eruption of World War Two life becomes unpredictable and foreboding As she matures Bunty chronicles budding romances and humorous adventures juxtaposed with the unfolding events in the war and the ever present threat of annihilation from the skies As the book ends she meets the love of her life Will he propose

World War II London Blitz Diary Vol. 2 Ruby Side Thompson, Victoria Aldridge Washuk, Adele Thompson Aldridge, 2011-11-05 This is volume two of a four volume series of diaries written in London England during World War II The first volume was comprised of 1939 1940 This volume is 1941 and are Ruby's outpourings of her experience during that year of the War Blitz bombings In this very personal and historical account in which Ruby writes about her truth of the war which she shares with no one but the diary She describes the terror she experiences night after night wondering if she will see the next day What these citizens managed is mind boggling and is a reminder of how atrocious war really is Ruby says September 21 1941 We are hypnotized by propaganda by the impact of particular places and persons by religion by war and by ourselves by our own terrible easy suggestibility We are sheep dumb fool sheep Consider this huge derision of patriotism and of war As I looked over Kent yesterday so peaceful all the harvest in so green so quiet the sense of the folly of the war enveloped me ever more tightly and suffocating then in Blitzed London Much of London is offensive to the sight so that when one sees portions of it utterly destroyed unconsciously one is reconciled to the destruction The further I went from London the more I was convinced that war is only made by the few bad men in power for their own profit War pays the armament makers The puzzle is Why do common men obey the warlords Why Because they are hypnotized by words deluded by propaganda and patriotism Oh God What fools men are One thing I determined and that is to guard my own mind That seems the most important thing to me today to protect my mind and to keep out the crazy propaganda and all the world's false beliefs The everlasting verities those are what I want to discern and the realities and mainly the beautiful and good realities War is a reality and Hitler is a reality but neither Hitler nor war is enduring both will pass away but the grass will remain beauty will remain Ruby says This world is hell and Hitler is Satan himself The last war convinced me of the reality of the Devil this war reinforces that conviction I say men create war yes but the evil in men's hearts which creates this sort of war is the devil's evil itself This is devilish fiendish air war every casualty a civilian Oh the damn foolishness of war and the ineptitude of politicians Where will the bombs drop tonight London Berlin Athens Romford
