Manicasteri, 2011-10-20 Climb into My Mind is a book jam packed with poems essays and short stories The topics addressed are those that pertain to school life political and social issues family and love Meandering through the maze that is my mind I present a different perspective on how I as a teenager look at the way situations unfold and how they affect me This is not quite a typical book yet it is easy to relate to as you find comfort in knowing that you are not alone in the world The section What I See in the Mirror is an introspection of my deepest feelings Undoubtedly we all experience bad and depressing times in our lives We often feel as if no one understands what we are going through but I hope the poem themes in this section will create a connection with you While some of the poems tackle both pleasant and unpleasant experiences the stories introduce you to new characters which bring an imaginative and lively angle to the world around us with a bit of a twist A few of the stories and poems are funny whereas others are more serious as they deal with political events and social awareness bringing different perspectives to controversial topics such as gay marriage and teen pregnancy My hope is that this book comforts intrigues captivates and amuses you So what are you waiting for grab a ladder and climb into my mind My Voice I feel the tattoos on my back sting but I know that one more scar wouldn't change the memory it has left behind With no reason to live I feel ready to take that final step I rise from my spot and give my fingers a break I glance down at the tobacco leaves I have picked knowing I am not allowed to stop But why should I care I have no voice I serve no purpose I am just a slave I

Jean Markale,2000-11 A comprehensive examination of the rituals and philosophies that created and sustained medieval troubadour culture Debunks the myth of the platonic nature of courtly love showing the many sexual similarities to the Tantric practices of India Reveals how the roots of courtly love go back to the matriarchal cultures of neolithic times The widespread turmoil that shook Western Europe as it entered the new millennium with the year 1000 prompted a vast reevaluation of the chief tenets of society Foremost among these was a new way of looking at love and the place held by women in society The Christian inspired tradition that at best viewed women with contempt and often with outright fear and loathing was replaced by a new perspective one in which women enjoyed a central role as the inspiration for all male action For several hundred years courtly love with its emphasis on adultery carnal pleasures and the power of the feminine dominated European culture despite its flouting of conventional Christian morality Medieval historians by and large have tended to regard courtly love as a sterile parlor game for the upper classes To the contrary Jean Markale shows that the stakes were much higher the roots of the ritual re created here go all the way back to the great mother goddess In addition the platonic nature attributed to these relationships is based on a misunderstanding of courtly love underneath the refined poetry of the troubadours verses flourished a system of sexual initiation that rivaled Indian Tantra Lonely Planet
