Proceedings of the National Park Conference... ,1912 Mountains of the Mind Robert Macfarlane,2009-09-09 Combining accounts of legendary mountain ascents with vivid descriptions of his own forays into wild high landscapes Robert Macfarlane reveals how the mystery of the world s highest places has come to grip the Western imagination and perennially draws legions of adventurers up the most perilous slopes His story begins three centuries ago when mountains were feared as the forbidding abodes of dragons and other mysterious beasts In the mid 1700s the attentions of both science and poetry sparked a passion for mountains Jean Jacques Rousseau and Lord Byron extolled the sublime experiences to be had on high and by 1924 the death on Mt Everest of an Englishman named George Mallory came to symbolize the heroic ideals of his day Macfarlane also reflects on fear risk and the shattering beauty of ice and snow the competition and contemplation of the

The Logic of Love Andrew J. B. Cameron, 2022-12-29 Overviewing what makes the intersection between emotion and ethics so confusing this book surveys an older wisdom in how to manage it using a range of Christian theologians and sources More important even than managing we begin to see a vision for a better set of affections to grow within and among us In this vision emerges a practical and nuanced account of what the Christian tradition sometime summarises as love How may we recover a deep affection for what matters both within ourselves and together in groups This book also dialogues with a new movement in moral psychology social intuitionism Cameron argues that researchers in this discipline have interests and conclusions that sometimes overlap with Christian sources even where their respective lenses differ In this way the book overviews recent trends in moral psychology against a recent historical and contemporary cultural backdrop whilst assaying major sources in Christian theology that offer guidance on moral psychology
