Love Letters Of A Portugese Nun:

Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues,1981 Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun ,1925 The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues,1996

These letters were first published anonymously in 1669 Ostensibly they were translations into French of five love letters written by a nun cloistered in a provincial Portuguese convent to a French officer who had loved her and left her More than a hundred years later the nun was identified as Mariana Alfocorado a gentlewoman who had lived in the Franciscan convent of Beja The officer was thought to be Noël Bouton de Chamilly who went to Portugal in 1663 to support the Portuguese in their war against the Spanish Recently scholars have identified the author as the Vicomte de Guilleragues a nobleman at Louis XIV's court who wrote them as a literary exercise The letters display a remarkable psychological insight into the mind of a woman in love attesting to a slow but crucial development of self awareness and a beautifully controlled treatment of passion on the edge of hysteria The love letters of a Portuguese nun (M. Alcoforado). Engl. version by R.H. Marianna d'.

Alexandre Piedagnel in his preface to The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun a reading from which is given in this number says In 1663 it became the policy of Louis XIV to help Portugal against Spain this was done indirectly however subsidies were secretly furnished troops levied and a crowd of volunteers pressed to the front Between this little army commanded by Schomberg and the poor Spanish army which disputed the field each summer much marching and counter marching took place with very small results There were many skirmishes and encounters and among them perhaps one victory Who cares about it today But the curious reader in search of what may charm him cannot help saying as Saint Beuve said This was all well enough since the letters of the Portuguese nun came of it This war which lasted until 1668 and in which Portugal triumphed is indeed quite forgotten The Portuguese Letters on the contrary have passed through twenty editions and their great success is still undiminished This is due above all to the accent of sincerity in the writer The poor nun of Beja Marianna Alcoforado has painted with such fire with so contagious an emotion the state of her wounded heart her helplessness her fleeting hopes and persisting passion her endless and cruel disappointments and her legitimate anger that we eagerly read and read again these ardent and touching pages ever fresh because absolutely true In 1661 Noel Bouton de Chamilly afterward Marquis of Chamilly took service in Portugal He was then twenty five years of age At the same time a convent of the city of Beja sheltered the Franciscan nun who belonged to one of the best families of the country She relates how she saw M de Chamilly for the first time from a balcony of her convent He on his part having been attracted by the charming nun visited the convent several times and gained the heart of the unfortunate Marianna who until her last hour tried vainly to curse the brilliant officer whose desertion so sudden and complete broke her too confiding heart We must read these letters carefully on account of their very simplicity and naive eloquence What exquisite tenderness what profound grief Love regret This is the whole book which will not die because it is pervaded with the suave perfume of youth of passion and sincere tears
