Grafwallner, 2019-11-05 Our sexuality is a key part of who we are and how we live as God's people Many have yearned for a resource on this matter that is helpful and useful to lay people seekers and ministers The stories included here come from singles marrieds gays lesbians parents teens young adults and senior citizens people of faith who struggle with their feelings and behavior around sexual matters What honors God What is acceptable to Jesus How do the Scriptures inform and shape us This is not a dogmatic or a denominational treatise but a minister's own personal and pastoral reflections on the implications of God's call in the life of faith It's a chance to talk out loud with you and provide a resource for living and a catalyst for conversation on what it means to live in God's light and reflect God's love in a holy and hopeful community Marriage Prep 101 Mike Mazzalongo, 2017-06-06 Preparation for marriage should begin long before the wedding day In this book Mike will address the issues that everyone who plans to marry should understand and be able to deal with before ever saying I Do The Invincible Family Kimberly Ells, 2020-07-21 In this shocking report Kimberly Ells tells the story of earth's oldest institution the family in a way it has never been told before The Invincible Family challenges current social doctrines unmask the annihilation of womanhood in the name of women's empowerment and exposes the efforts of United Nations agencies to advance sexual rights for children The Invincible Family is both a call to arms to defend the most essential human institution in its darkest hour and a rich source of encouragement Kimberly Ells is a researcher on family policy and has spoken at the United Nations and around the country on international threats to children and the family A graduate of Brigham Young University she is married and the mother of five children Same-Sex Relationships, Law and Social Change Frances Hamilton, Guido Noto La Diega, 2020-01-15 This edited collection provides a forum for rigorous analysis of the necessity for both legal and social change with regard to regulation of same sex relationships and rainbow families the status of civil partnership as a concept and the lived reality of equality for LGBTQ persons Twenty eight jurisdictions worldwide have now legalised same sex marriage and many others some level of civil partnership In contrast other jurisdictions refuse to recognise or even criminalise same sex relationships At a Council of Europe level there is no requirement for contracting states to legalise same sex marriage Whilst the Court of Justice of the European Union now requires contracting states to recognise same sex marriages for the purpose of free movement and residency rights unlike the US Supreme Court it does not require EU Member States to legalise same sex marriage Law and Sociology scholars from five key jurisdictions England and Wales Italy

Australia Canada and the Republic of Ireland examine the role of the Council of Europe European Union and further international regimes A balanced approach between the competing views of critically analytical rights based theorists and queer and feminist theorists interrogates the current international consensus in this fast moving area The incrementalist theory whilst offering a methodology for future advances continues to be critiqued All contributions from differing perspectives expose that even for those jurisdictions who have legalised same sex marriage still further and continuous work needs to be done The book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of human rights family and marriage law and gender studies

Sexuality in Medieval Poland in a European Context Karolina Morawska, 2025-10-31 This book explores the development of sexual ethics in medieval Poland focusing on how the process of Christianization integrated Poland into the Western European cultural sphere and how the adoption of Christian norms and practices significantly shaped its moral and legal views on sexuality Drawing on a wide array of primary sources the study highlights the tension between official ecclesiastical views and the lived experiences of individuals while also addressing the ways in which various aspects of sexuality such as marital life chastity adultery sexual misconduct and prostitution were understood regulated and punished by both secular and religious authorities It analyzes the influence of Western European sexual ethics especially through the lens of the Church's doctrines and contrasts these with the social and legal realities of life in medieval Poland The book also examines how Christian ideals of love and sexuality intersected with local cultural practices particularly in the context of courtly love This book is aimed at scholars and students of medieval history religious studies and gender studies as well as those interested in the history of sexuality It will appeal to anyone researching the convergence of Christianity and medieval Polish society

Current Literature

,1912 Current Literature Edward Jewitt Wheeler,1912 Marriage and Values in Public Policy Elizabeth van Acker,2017-01-20 Marriage is a site of political conflict It is a controversial issue in the UK Australia and the US where there is a clash of values between neoliberal governments and diverse groups either strongly opposing or supporting marriage In the meantime fewer couples are marrying while other family forms are more widely accepted This book explores this disconnect by examining policy issues such as class divides ethnicity religion same sex marriage gender relations and romantic expectations A top down approach explores different government policy responses to marriage In all three countries there are differences and similarities in how governments react to the changes in family formations but values or conceptions of the desirable play a significant role Enhancing stability and commitment as well as personal responsibility are important for policymakers who aim to keep the family intact and thereby lower the burden on the public purse It is difficult for political actors to respond to conflicting and changing values surrounding the diversity in relationships or to translate them into policies There is a strong case to be made for increased policy attention to adult relationships and a much weaker case for marriage Rich evidence is drawn from interviews with key stakeholders as well as politicians speeches government departmental reports stakeholders documents and responses to government policies and media articles The Police Journal ,1917
