Love's Wounds Cynthia N. Nazarian, 2017-01-10 Love's Wounds takes an in depth look at the widespread language of violence and abjection in early modern European love poetry Beginning in fourteenth century Italy this book shows how Petrarch established a pattern of inequality between suffering poet and exalted Beloved rooted in political paranoia Sixteenth and early seventeenth century French and English poets reshaped his model into an idiom of extravagant brutality coded to their own historical circumstances Cynthia N Nazarian argues that these poets exaggerated the posture of the downtrodden lover adapting the rhetoric of powerless desire to forge a new countersovereignty from within the heart of vulnerability a potentially revolutionary position through which to challenge cultural religious and political authority Creating a secular equivalent to the martyr early modern sonneteers crafted a voice that was both critical and unstoppable because it suffered Love's Wounds tracks the development of the countersovereign voice from Francesco Petrarca to Maurice Scève Joachim du Bellay Théodore Agrippa d'Aubigné Edmund Spenser and William Shakespeare Through interdisciplinary and transnational analyses Nazarian reads early modern sonnets as sites of contestation and collaboration and rewrites the relationship between early modern literary forms

Fantasy in the Grotto: Otherworldly Adventures in Classical Chinese Literature Timothy Wai Keung Chan, 2025-02-20 In a fourth century tale two farmers get lost in a pleasure grotto and unwittingly sever their fragile ties with the mortal world Surprisingly this simple cautionary fantasy spawned a complex literary tradition The narrative instability of the tale was part of its snowballing appeal Early in the tale's journey through literary history the girls met by the farmers morphed into female entertainers Daoist priestesses and spiritual transcendents This malleability offered a wealth of artistic possibilities The feature of time dilation and its associated dangers was also to become a flexible literary instrument and a defining feature of grotto fantasy literature

Fantasy, Fashion, and Affection Jay A. Gertzman, 1986 Robert Herrick (1591-1633) achieved fame only in the nineteenth century. The book features approximately fifty reproductions of illustrations of Hesperides. Ideology and Desire in Renaissance Poetry Ronald Corthell, 1997 Each chapter explores the interrelationships of representation, identification, and desire, while the book as a whole gradually shifts in emphasis from new historicist concerns with representation and the social realm toward psychoanalytic themes of identification, desire, and inwardness. Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples, cultures, and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy, providing much freedom and creativity, and yet have also created much fear, anxiety, and horror. In this regard, the pre-modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own, insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees, but they are fundamentally the same by content. Dreams, illusions, projections, concepts, hopes, utopias, dystopias, desires, and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment. This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions, images, and notions. Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions, whereas here the history of pre-modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position. Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives. This approach facilitates a new, deep structural analysis of pre-modern culture.
