Love Power And Justice Ontological Analysis And Ethical Applications:

Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich,1954 Speaking with understanding and force Tillich offers a basic analysis of love power justice and all concepts fundamental in the mutual relations of people of social groups and of humankind to God His concern is to penetrate to the essential or ontological foundation of the meaning of each of these words Love, Power and Justice Paul Tillich,1954 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich,1974 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Johannes Oskar Tillich,1976 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich,1960 Timeless Experience Nancy Amendt-Lyon,Philip Brownell,2016-05-11 For years psychotherapists have known that Laura Perls was actively involved in the development of what today is known as Gestalt therapy although her husband Frederick Perls officially authored the foundational texts Laura Perls s own professional publications are succinct and appreciated but they are not numerous The present volume comprising Laura Perls s heretofore unpublished writing including journal entries letters poems translations short stories and drafts for lectures and publications offers a very personal perspective on one of the founders of Gestalt therapy The extensive interview that Daniel Rosenblatt conducted with Laura Perls in 1972 published here for the first time in English complements her literary texts and provides valuable background information Laura Perls s history spans two world wars flight from Nazi persecution life on three continents and many new beginnings Together with her known works these literary texts reflect the emergence of women into professional and public life during the 20th century by giving the reader insight into this time period and the influence of a woman on the development of a major school of Humanistic Psychology The rich cultural background from which Laura Perls benefited and the authors whose works inspired her resonate in her literary texts a treasure chest of personal reflections during the decades of her life from 1946 to 1985 In addition a general overview of her life is provided her theoretical and practical contributions to the origins and development of Gestalt therapy are described and her legacy to the field of Gestalt therapy is elucidated Laura Perls was known for making the New York Institute for Gestalt Therapy a viable and important teaching community For decades she was the keeper of the flame of this foundational Gestalt institute Best known for her concepts of contact and support the creative use of experiments and productive use of embarrassment Laura Perls s literary texts are finally made available here Social Justice Handbook Mae Elise Cannon,2009-09-11 Mae Elise Cannon provides a comprehensive resource for Christians like you who are committed to social justice She presents biblical rationale for justice and explains a variety of Christian approaches to doing justice A wide ranging catalog of topics and issues give background info about justice issues at home and abroad and give you the tools you need to take action Swoon Betsy Prioleau,2013-01-28 Lose yourself Swoon has wicked fun answering that age old query What do women want Chicago Tribune Contrary to popular myth and dogma the men who consistently beguile women belie the familiar stereotypes satanic rake alpha stud slick player Mr Nice or big money mogul As Betsy Prioleau author of Seductress points out in this surprising insightful study legendary ladies men are a different complex species altogether often without looks or money They fit no known template and possess a cache of powerful erotic secrets With wit and erudition Prioleau cuts through the cultural lore and reveals who these master lovers really are and the arts they practice to ensnare women What she discovers is revolutionary Using evidence from science popular culture fiction anthropology and history and from interviews with colorful real world ladykillers Prioleau finds that great seducers share a constellation of unusual traits While these men run the gamut they radiate joie de vivre intensity and sex appeal above all they adore women They listen praise amuse and delight and they know their way around the bedroom And they've finessed the hardest part locking in and revving desire Women never tire of these fascinators and often like Casanova's conquests remain besotted for life Finally Prioleau takes stock of the contemporary culture and asks where are the Casanovas of today After a critique of the twenty-first century sexual malaise the gulf between the sexes and women's record discontent she compellingly argues that society needs ladies men more than ever Groundbreaking and provocative Swoon is underpinned with sharp analysis brilliant research and served up with seductive verve

The Juridification of Business Ethics Bart Jansen, 2023-08-25 This book provides a theory of the juridification of business ethics Ethical codes pop up everywhere in the business world and increasingly resemble the code of law A focus on compliance rather than reflection becomes the norm Legal perspectives replace ethical perspectives turning ethicists into lawyers without a law degree This juridification of business ethics conceals a diminishing trust in ethics as legal reasoning substitutes philosophical thinking By appealing to the critical study of law Bart Jansen advocates for a renewed focus on the ethical side of business This book shows the importance of a good balance between law and ethics in business and is of great interest to both academics and professionals

Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness, 2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is God's gift to us in our Imago Dei the image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I don't think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Maness brings some of the brain-splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theism's avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process That's the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net

the alphabetical entries P Sh this book also includes articles on significant topics ranging from Paul political theology and the Qur'an to religious liberty salvation history and scholasticism Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level The Political Theology of Paul Tillich Rachel Sophia Baard, 2024-01-16 The Political Theology of Paul Tillich explores the political theology of one of the foremost thinkers of the 20th century Paul Tillich whose life and scholarship were decisively shaped by his experiences during World War I his resistance to the rising scourge of Nazism in Germany and his subsequent immigration to the United States Tillich's discerning analysis of fascism grounded in his socialist commitments and his continuing efforts to write theology in correlation with culture make his voice a crucial one for contemporary political theology The contributors to this volume represent different generations social and cultural locations and nationalities Together they explore Tillich's early work on religious socialism and its lingering presence in his later systematic theology bring him into dialogue with liberation theologies apply his thought to contemporary political concerns and show the significance of his method of correlation for theological scholarship that engages culture thereby presenting a case for the continued relevance of Tillich for political theology Principles of Neurotheology Assoc Prof Andrew B Newberg, 2013-06-28 Neurotheology has garnered substantial attention in the academic and lay communities in recent years Several books have been written addressing the relationship between the brain and religious experience and numerous scholarly articles have been published on the topic some in the popular press The scientific and religious communities have been very interested in obtaining more information regarding neurotheology how to approach this topic and how science and religion can be integrated in some manner that preserves both If neurotheology is to be considered a viable field going forward it requires a set of clear principles that can be generally agreed upon and supported by both the theological or religious perspective and the scientific one as well Principles of Neurotheology sets out the necessary principles of neurotheology which can be used as a foundation for future neurotheological discourse Laying the groundwork for a new synthesis of scientific and theological dialogue this book proposes that neurotheology a term fraught with potential problems is a highly useful and important voice in the greater study of religious and theological ideas and their intersection with science

Discourse and Affect in Postsocialist Bosnia and Herzegovina Danijela Majstorović, 2021-11-12 This book examines the making and breaking of peripheral selves in and from postsocialist Bosnia in an empirically rich self reflexive account of politico economic and ideological developments Through world systems and postcolonial theory historical and new materialist optics discursive and affective analytical registers and various qualitative methodological choices the author analyzes peripheral subjectivity in connection to global proletarianization as well as past and present resistance via social and personal movement s She refers to past Yugoslav socialist and anticolonial struggles as well as more recent ones including the social justice and feminist collective engaging with workers and women s struggles in postwar Bosnia and the Justice for David movement Finally she analyzes the lives of new third wave Bosnian migrants to Germany post 2015 placing them in juxtaposition with non European migrants in Bosnian reception centers and exposing labor and race border struggles and market as new variables for studying selves in this particular context Writing about situated knowledge and politics of location the author stresses the importance of strong affective ties within researcher researched assemblages urging for deeper coalitions and solidarity among various peripheral power differentiated communities This book will be of interest to readers with backgrounds in linguistics sociology post Yugoslav history cultural studies and anthropology

The Church, Authority, and Foucault Steven G. Ogden, 2017-02-03 The Church Authority and Foucault addresses the problem of the Church s enmeshment with sovereign power which can lead to marginalization Breaking new ground Ogden uses Foucault s approach to power and knowledge to interpret the church leader s significance as the guardian of knowledge This can become privileged knowledge under the spell of sovereign power and with the complicity of clergy and laity in search of sovereigns Inevitably such a culture leads to a sense of entitlement for leaders and conformity for followers All in the name of obedience The Church needs to change in order to fulfil its vocation Instead of a monarchy what about Church as an open space of freedom This book then is a theological enterprise which cultivates practices of freedom for the sake of the other This involves thinking differently by exploring catalysts for change which include critique space imagination and wisdom In the process Ogden uses a range of sources analysing discourse gossip ritual territory masculinity and pastoral power In all the work of Michel Foucault sets the tone for a fresh ecclesiological critique that will appeal to theologians and clergy alike

Beginning from Man and Woman Bernard K. Wong, 2017-04-30 Engaging with contemporary thought on love and the family Bernard Wong argues that our notion of love has been deeply influenced by modern technological culture and political ideologies leading to the detriment of familial relationships Dr Wong demonstrates how Christian doctrines can be used to critique and resist these ideologies Through a careful analysis of Christ s love expressed in his life death and resurrection the author presents a notion of Christ s love bearing the characteristics of fraternal incarnational and unfolding love These aspects of Christ's love are pertinent to the relationships between husbands and wives, parents and children, and families and their neighbours. It is through practicing Christ's love that Christians strengthen their familial relationships and bear witness to Christ in the world.

The Hardened Heart and Tragic Finitude Dan O. Via, 2012-11-05 This book has two main theses. First, for the biblical Christian doctrine of sin, the root of the human problem is hardness of heart, the corruption of the core self, the seat of understanding and will. On the other hand, for an important strand of Greek tragedy, the root of human harm-doing is the nonculpable blindness and anxiety of finitude that, despite the initial nonculpability, lead to evil and suffering. The Hardened Heart shows that these two different interpretations of human existence are amenable to a degree of synthesis that leads to this conclusion: hardness of heart and our ordinary finitude together collude to cause sin in its fullness. The second thesis of this volume is that exegetical studies disclose a deconstructive strand in certain biblical texts that represents the finite world that God created as a source of distress and harm-doing in something like the tragic sense. This subdominant deconstructive position challenges the dominant biblical vision in which the creation came forth from God's creative word as good without qualification.

The Minimalist Vision of Transcendence Jerome A. Stone, 1992-11-03 Embodying Aga

Tausili Mercy Ah Su-Maliko, 2021-02-04 This book breaks new ground in the field of public theology by constructing a public theology which is built on interwoven cultural and Christian values. Writing from the Oceanian context, Samoa, Ah Siu Maliko unpacks the complementary Samoan and Christian core values of service, respect, dialogue, love, and justice as the foundation for a values-centered response to the social realities confronting Oceania. Drawing on the indigenous research paradigm known as talanoa, the author grounds the public theology that emerges in extensive interviews with 75 Samoans from all walks of life, the public who are the subjects of public theology. The resulting framework is then applied to a specific social problem: the crisis of violence against women in Samoa. This pioneering contribution to public theology discourse opens up possibilities for similar contextual approaches to public theology not only across Oceania but around the world.
