Startup Your Life Anna Akbari, 2016-12-27

A young entrepreneur and sociologist shows readers how to reach personal fulfillment using the same strategies that power Silicon Valley's greatest startups As an entrepreneur Anna Akbari learned that one of the best things about startups is their ability to pivot quickly basically a euphemism for failing and starting over And she quickly found that personal success is no different It's not just about developing and following the right process but also having a good idea And that demands rigor and daily maintenance far beyond a few positive affirmations Like any Silicon Valley startup the business of life is not as glamorous as its Instagram account would make it seem What do you do when planning is not an option When control is out of your reach You isolate the small stuff experiment constantly and use the results to lay a more sustainable foundation for the future You validate your idealized vision by testing it out in bite-sized increments You see what sticks integrate and move forward And inevitably you experience a series of failures along the way but those failures are key to your next success Living a start-up life is about maximizing flexibility and measuring on-going results not avoiding failure or reaching one particular end goal It's about embracing defeat analyzing it and failing up In Startup Your Life Akbari shows that after all it's often the stumbles that pave the way for real happiness

Santa's Lost Handkerchief Aubrey Donadelle, 2017-07-10 Santa's Lost Handkerchief is a constructive response by three friends to the notion that Christmas for many children is just a day they receive gifts from loved ones Children are missing out on the nostalgia of Christmas and the personal growth that comes from recognizing it is more important to give than to receive With Santa's Lost Handkerchief we've created a lighthearted and innovative children's book that addresses these two issues and brings enjoyment to all First we aimed to create a magical childhood memory that would remain etched in a young mind long after adulthood Everyone has childhood memories Sadly they aren't always good ones Santa's Lost Handkerchief is our attempt to effect a childhood experience the memory of which could compare to that of a first bicycle or a first pet Secondly in this era of blogging tweeting and interactive gaming we thought Why not interactive reading Any child will be swept away as he/she follows Santa across the globe in preparation of his big night Then just when it seems there will be no Christmas have the special honor of being the one to literally recover Santa's handkerchief and return it to the North Pole in time to save the day for everyone A colorful and powerful lesson in no effort is too small and anything is possible
