A Nation Gone Blind Eric Larsen, 2006-03-29 America's citizens seem plagued by despair and frustration much deeper today than the malaise President Jimmy Carter noted twenty years ago. Our political and social cultures are driven by issues morally complex and yet presented with simple-minded hostility. What's the matter with Kansas? What has happened to the once proud leader of the free world? How secure is our future? Does the republic stand or have we lost it already? Born in 1941, novelist, critic, and teacher Eric Larsen sees his own lifetime as paralleling the arc of a national dissolution, and in three penetrating essays he describes an increasingly desperate situation. A blindness has set in, he argues, producing writers no longer able to write, professors more harmful than helpful, a replacement virtually nationwide of thinking with feeling while the population seems unable to grasp even the remotest outlines of such dangerous radical change. In the tradition of George Orwell, Upton Sinclair, Paul Goodman, and Christopher Lasch, Larsen offers an impassioned critique of where we once were, where we are, and where we're very soon going if we don't watch out.

The Call Peadar O'Guilin, 2016-08-30 You have three minutes to save your life. THREE MINUTES. You wake up alone in a horrible land. A horn sounds. The Call has begun. TWO MINUTES. The Sidhe are close. They're the most beautiful and terrible people you've ever seen. And they've seen you. ONE MINUTE. Nessa will be called soon. No one thinks she has any chance to survive. But she's determined to prove them wrong. TIME'S UP. Could you survive the Call? A genre-changing blend of fantasy, horror, and folklore. The Call will never leave your mind from the moment you choose to answer it.

Partners in Wonder Eric Leif Davin, 2006-01-01 Partners in Wonder revolutionizes our knowledge of women and early science fiction. Davin finds that at least 203 female authors published over a thousand stories in science fiction magazines between 1926 and 1965. This work explores the distinctly different form of science fiction that females wrote, offers a comprehensive bibliography of these works, and provides biographies of 133 of these women authors.

Imagining and the Transformation of Man NEVILLE, 2014-11-14 If one is looking for answers to the meaning of life and how to make a happier, richer existence—e.g., relationships, finances, health—then Neville's teaching from personal experience, testimonies from students, and his amazing visions paralleling and explaining the mysteries of the Old and New Testament will answer those questions. Learn his techniques, unleash your power to create, believe in your imaginary acts, and no power in this world can stop the desired results from appearing in your world. It's the only creative power one that everyone is operating moment to moment. Learning how to direct it deliberately is essential to producing loving positive changes in one's life. These 1963 lectures also begin a nine-year odyssey of discovering the deepest meanings of six visions of the end that had unfolded in Neville 1959. 1963 The visions are the signs that this long journey as limited man, the terrible opacity and contraction is over; that the purpose of human life has been completed; man has endured and overcome six thousand years of amnesia plus the fires of experience and has emerged victorious. He's been transformed by his inner being, I Am or God, back into the divinity he truly is and always was.

The Golden Torc Julian May, 1982-01-27. Second in the series that portrays one of the best thought-out futures ever encountered in science fiction from the author of The Many Colored Land. Joe Haldeman. Six million years in the past, a proto-Europe is inhabited by two extraterrestrial races: the chivalric Tanu and the dwarfish forest-dwelling Firvulag, both of which possess far-reaching psychic powers. But now time-traveling humans from a future society have become involved in the age-old struggle between the two. One group of captured humans is brought to Muriah, the stately capital of the Tanu kingdom. Among them is Elizabeth Orme, who was once in her own world a Grand Master Metapsychic. In spite of Tanu harassment, she begins to recover her lost powers. The other human group, which has managed to overcome its Tanu guards and escape into the northern forests, includes Chief Burke, a Native American, and Felice Uindry, an athlete gifted with certain psychic powers of her own. This group, with the ambiguous aid of the Firvulag, determines to launch an attack against the very heart of Tanu dominance. At the end of the Grand Combat tournament between Tanu and Firvulag comes the astonishing climax to this astonishing novel. Praise for the Saga of Pliocene Exile: Enchanting and engrossing. I was captivated. Fritz Leiber.

God, Time, and Knowledge William Hasker, 2019-06-30. This outstanding book is a genuinely pivotal contribution to the lively current debate over divine foreknowledge and human freedom. Hasker's book has three commendable features worthy of immediate note. First, it contains a carefully crafted overview of the recent literature on foreknowledge and freedom and so can serve as an excellent introduction to that literature. Second, it is tightly reasoned.

and brimming with brisk arguments many of them highly original Third it correctly situates the philosophical dispute over foreknowledge and freedom within its proper theological context and in so doing highlights the intimate connection between the doctrines of divine omniscience and divine providence Faith and Philosophy God Time and Knowledge is an elegantly written forcefully argued challenge to traditional views and a major contribution to the discussion of divine foreknowledge Philosophical Review This is a very competent thorough analysis of the conflict between free will and divine foreknowledge or on some accounts timeless divine knowledge of our future It is exceptionally clear Theological Book Review Magnificat Julian May, 2011-04-20 Fascinating May has cemented her position as one of this generation's foremost storytellers This satisfying end to a remarkable feat of the imagination is a necessary purchase Library Journal By the mid twenty first century humanity is beginning to enjoy membership in the Galactic Milieu Human colonies are thriving on numerous planets life on Earth is peaceful and prosperous and as more humans are being born with metapsychic abilities it will not be long before these gifted minds at last achieve total Unity But xenophobia is deeply rooted in the human soul A growing corps of rebels plots to keep the people of Earth forever separate led by a man obsessed with human superiority Marc Remillard Marc's goal is nothing less than the elevation of human metapsychics above all others by way of artificial enhancement of mental faculties His methods are unpalatable his goal horrific And so Marc and his coconspirators continue their work in secret Only the very Unity he fears and abhors can foil Marc's plans And only his brother Jack the Bodiless and the young woman called Diamond Mask can hope to lead the metaconcert to destroy Marc Unify humanity and pave the way for the Golden Age of the Galactic Milieu to begin A certain crowd pleaser Kirkus Reviews Jack the Bodiless Julian May, 2011-04-27 In the year 2051 Earth stood on the brink of acceptance as full member of the Galactic Milieu a confederation of worlds spread across the galaxy Leading humanity was the powerful Remillard family but somebody or something known only as Fury wanted them out of the way Only Rogi Remillard the chosen tool of the most powerful alien being in the Milieu and his nephew Marc the greatest metapsychic yet born on Earth knew about Fury But even they were powerless to stop it when it began to kill off Remillards and other metapsychic operants and all the suspects were Remillards themselves Meanwhile a Remillard son was born a boy who could represent the future of all humanity His incredible mind was more powerful even than his brother Marc's but he was destined to be destroyed by his own DNA unless Fury got to him first Canadian Painters in a Modern World, 1925-1955 Lora Senechal Carney, 2017-09-27 From the Roaring Twenties and the Group of Seven to the Automatistes and the early Cold War Canadian artists lived through and embodied an era of global tumult and change With an interweaving of historical narrative lavish illustrations and writings by many of Canada's most revered cultural figures Lora Senechal Carney illuminates the lives perspectives and works of the era's painters and provides glimpses of the sculptors poets dancers critics and filmmakers with whom they associated Canadian Painters in a Modern World gives readers direct access to a carefully curated selection of writings artworks photos and other documents that help to reconstruct the public spheres in which
