Many Faces Of Dependency In Old Age:

The Many Faces of Dependency in Old Age Margret M. Baltes, 1996-07-28 Margret Baltes provides insights into the social foundation of dependency with a blend of theoretical and empirical argument Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 23, 2003 Hans-Werner Wahl, PhD, Rick Scheidt, PhD, Paul Windley, PhD, 2003-11-12 In this volume dedicated to M Powell Lawton the editors emphasize the need to create new bridges to connect research studies focusing on objective physical environments and other studies mainly addressing subjective person environment components Thus the major goal of this volume is to provide and stimulate multi directional bridge building from the perspectives of multidisciplinary contributors Comprehensively addressed subjects include Aging in Context Across the Adult Life The General Ecological Model Revisited The Fit Between Older People and Their Environments Domestic Arrangements The Impact of Population Migration Interior Environments Residential Satisfaction Technology Based Products Handbook of Theories of Aging, Second Edition Merrill Silverstein PhD, Vern L. Bengtson PhD, Norella Putney PhD, Daphna Gans PhD, 2008-10-27 The field of gerontology has often been criticized for being data rich but theory poor The editors of this book address this issue by stressing the importance of theory in gerontology While the previous edition focused on multidisciplinary approaches to aging theory this new edition provides cross disciplinary integrative explanations of aging theory The contributors of this text have reached beyond traditional disciplinary boundaries to partner with researchers in adjacent fields in studying aging and age related phenomena This edition of the Handbook consists of 39 chapters written by 67 internationally recognized experts in the field of aging It is organized in seven sections reflecting the major theoretical developments in gerontology over the past 10 years Special Features Comprehensive coverage of aging theory focusing on the biological psychological and social aspects of aging A section dedicated to discussing how aging theory informs public policy A concluding chapter summarizing the major themes of aging and offering predictions about the future of theory development Required reading for graduate students and post doctoral fellows this textbook represents the current status of theoretical development in the study of aging Handbook of Gerontology James A. Blackburn, Catherine N. Dulmus, 2007-06-15 A multidisciplinary resource that combines the latest research with the best practices for working with older adults The Handbook of Gerontology Evidence Based Approaches to Theory Practice and Policy provides an essential source of important theoretical and applied information on gerontology for all mental health professionals interested in optimizing the health and well being of older adults Interdisciplinary and incorporating the most current evidence based practices in its focus this timely book considers the many factors that affect the way this growing population experiences the world and provides a positive and proactive guide to administering care Integrating the latest research findings with important practice implications for working with an older client population the Handbook of Gerontology draws on a multidisciplinary team of expert contributors who provide coverage and insight into a diverse range of topics including A global perspective on aging Elder abuse Family caregiving Parenting grandchildren Depression Substance abuse Alzheimer's disease Successful aging and personality Biological and cognitive aspects and theories of aging An exceptional resource for practitioners researchers policymakers and students the Handbook of Gerontology is essential reading for anyone who works with older adults Aging Independently Klaus Warner Schaie, 2003 This volume is based on the conference Aging in the Community Living Arrangements and Mobility organised by the German Centre for Research on Aging at the University of Heidelberg in cooperation with Pennsylvania State University It explores the similarities and differences of living arrangements and outdoor mobility in both cultures and the impact on older persons roles in community life and sustainable community development Considers the future of aging theoretically from an environmental gerontology perspective and practically in terms of available technology the central tenet of this volume is that future indoor and outdoor environments will become much more intertwined than is the case today Merging the concerns of living arrangements and mobility this volume leads us to a new understanding of distance and nearness even in the presence for example of severe chronic illness
