Resistance to Science in Contemporary American Poetry Bryan Walpert, 2011-09-26 This book examines types of resistance in contemporary poetry to the authority of scientific knowledge tracing the source of these resistances to both their literary precedents and the scientific zeitgeists that helped to produce them Walpert argues that contemporary poetry offers a palimpsest of resistance using as case studies the poets Alison Hawthorne Deming Pattiann Rogers Albert Goldbarth and Joan Retallack to trace the recapitulation of romantic arguments inherited from Keats Shelly and Coleridge which in turn were produced in part in response to Newtonian physics modernist arguments inherited from Eliot and Pound arguments influenced in part by relativity and quantum theory and postmodernist arguments arguments informed by post structuralist theory e g Barthes Derrida Foucault with affinities to arguments for the limitations of science in the philosophy sociology and rhetoric of science Some of these poems reveal the discursive ideologies of scientific language reveal in other words the performativity of scientific language In doing so these poems themselves can also be read as performative acts and therefore as forms of intervention rather than representation Reading Retallack alongside science studies scholar Karen Barad the book concludes by proposing that viewing knowledge as a form of intervention rather than representation offers a bridge between contemporary poetry and science

Alexandrian Cosmopolitanism Hala Halim, 2013-09-19 Interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East this book mounts a radical critique of Eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism The dominant account of Alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things European in the city s culture and simultaneously places things Egyptian under the sign of decline The book goes beyond this civilization barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity Halim presents a comparative study of literary representations addressing poetry fiction guidebooks and operettas among other genres She reappraises three writers C P Cavafy E M Forster and Lawrence Durrell who she maintains have been cast as the canon of Alexandria Attending to issues of genre gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anticolonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations LGBTQ America Today John Charles Hawley,2008-11-30 Lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer culture is a vibrant and rapidly evolving segment of the American mosaic This book gives students and general readers a current guide to the people and issues at the forefront of contemporary LGBTQ America Included are more than 600 alphabetically arranged entries on literature and the arts associations and organizations individuals law and public policy concerns health and relationships sexual issues and numerous other topics Entries are written by distinguished authorities and cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students in social studies history and literature classes will welcome this book s illumination of American cultural diversity LGBTQ Americans have endured many struggles and during the last decade in particular they have made tremendous contributions to our multicultural society Drawing on the expertise of numerous expert contributors this book gives students and general readers a current overview of contemporary LGBTQ American culture Sweeping in scope the encyclopedia looks at literature and the arts associations and organizations individuals law and public policy concerns health and relationships sexual practices and various other areas Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography While extensive biographical entries give readers a sense of the lives of prominent lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer Americans the many topical entries provide full coverage of the challenges and contributions for which these people are known The encyclopedia supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about cultural diversity and it supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn about LGBTQ writers and their works 2012 Poet's Market Robert Lee Brewer,2011-08-20 The Most Trusted Guide for Getting Poetry Published The 2012 Poet s Market includes hundreds of publishing opportunities specifically for poets including poetry publications book chapbook publishers contests and more These listings include contact information submission preferences insider tips on what specific editors want and when offered payment information Plus the editorial content in the front of the book has been revamped to include more articles on the Business of Poetry Promotion of Poetry Craft of Poetry and Interviews with Poets Learn how to navigate the social media landscape write various poetic forms offer writing workshops and more You also gain access to Lists of conferences workshops organizations and grants One year access to the poetry related information and listings on WritersMarket com A free digital download of Writer s Yearbook featuring the 100 Best Markets WritersDigest com upload images WritersDigest Yearbook 11 pdf Includes an exclusive 60 minute FREE WEBINAR with editor and poet Robert Lee Brewer that will teach you how to build an audience for your poetry Ridiculously relevant I ve been using Poet s Market since I was in college more than 20 years ago Since then I ve published hundreds of poems and two books Aaron Belz author of Lovely Raspberry I returned to writing in 2006 and Poet's Market was the first book I purchased. It guides everyone from newbie to seasoned writer on the path to publishing their poems. Jessie Carty, author of Paper House. The Strategic Smorgasbord of Postmodernity Deborah Bowen, 2011-05-25. Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline; instead, the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entries on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature. These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian. In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith. The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory. Daniel Coleman, Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies, Department of English and Cultural Studies, McMaster University. Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature. This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways. I do not know of a similar volume in existence: a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide-ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars. The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate. Susan VanZanten, Gallagher Professor of English, Director, Center for Scholarship and Faculty Development, Seattle Pacific University. Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004. This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets. Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee, Cathy Song, and Garrett Hongo, who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community, this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross-section of the very best work of these young poets, all under the age of forty, including Timothy Liu, Adrienne Su, Sue Kwock, Kim Rick Barot, Brenda Shaughnessy, Mong Lan, as well as less familiar names. A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic, developing part of the poetic world, making it finally accessible to students, scholars, and poetry fans alike. Best of the Best American Poetry David Lehman, Robert Pinsky, 2013-04-09. 100 poems selected by Robert Pinsky that represent each volume in The Best American Poetry series. The Facts on File Companion to World Poetry R. Victoria Arana, 2008. The Facts On File Companion to World Poetry 1900 to the Present is a
