Art Criticism and Modernism in the United States Stephen Moonie, 2022-03-22 This study is an analysis of high and late modernist criticism in New York during the 1960s and early 1970s Through a close reading of a selection of key critics of the period which will expand the remit beyond the canonical texts the book examines the ways that modernist criticism's discourse remains of especial disciplinary interest. Despite its alleged narrowness and exclusion, the debates of the 1960s raised fundamental questions concerning the nature of art writing. Those include arguments around the nature of value and judgement, the relationship between art criticism and art history, and the related problem of what we mean by the contemporary. Stephen Moonie argues that within those often fractious debates, there exists a shared discourse. And further, contrary to the current consensus that modernists were elitist, dogmatic, and irrelevant to contemporary debates on art, the study shows that there is much that we can learn from reconsidering their writings. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, modern art, art criticism, and literary studies. Jacob & Esau Malachi Haim Hachohen, 2019-01-10. Accommodates both the cosmopolitan narrative of the Jewish diaspora with traditional Jews and their culture. Alice Neel: People Come First Kelly Baum, Randall Griffey, Meredith A. Brown, Julia Bryan-Wilson, Susanna V. Temkin, 2021-03-15. For me, people come first. Alice Neel 1900-1984 declared in 1950: "I have tried to assert the dignity and eternal importance of the human being." This ambitious publication surveys Neel's nearly 70-year career through the lens of her radical humanism. Remarkable portraits of victims of the Great Depression, fellow residents of Spanish Harlem, leaders of political organizations, queer artists, visibly pregnant women, and members of New York's global diaspora reveal that Neel viewed humanism as both a political and philosophical ideal. In addition to these paintings of famous and unknown sitters, the more than 100 works highlighted include Neel's emotionally charged cityscapes and still lifes, as well as the artist's erotic pastels and watercolors. Essays tackle Neel's portrayal of LGBTQ subjects, her unique aesthetic language, which merged abstraction and figuration, and her commitment to progressive politics, civil rights, feminism, and racial diversity. The authors also explore Neel's highly personal preoccupations with death, illness, and motherhood while reasserting her place in the broader cultural history of the 20th century. Magdalene Odundo Sequoia Miller, 2024-09-10. Magdalene Odundo b. 1950 is a Kenyan-born British ceramicist whose extraordinary works have been widely celebrated for their beauty and universality. Her studies of classical forms across many global traditions, from Greek and Chinese to Aztec and African, are evident in her intimate, evocative shapes. Gardiner Museum Chief Curator Sequoia Miller sheds light on the colonial and material traditions that inform Odundo's ceramics, showing how the artist deftly blends cultural and ethnographic sources to give expression to the postcolonial experience. This beautifully illustrated book discusses Odundo's innovative method and puts her ceramic forms into conversation with global contemporary art. This close examination allows for a careful look at the artist's works on paper, her prints, and sketchbook drawings, published here in depth for the first time, demonstrating how they are a fundamental aspect of her creative practice. The book also features an in-depth Q&A with Odundo in which she shares rare insights into her sense of self as an artist. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art Sanne Krogh Groth, Holger Schulze, 2020-02-20. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art explores and delineates what Sound Art is in the 21st century. Sound artworks today embody the contemporary and transcultural trends towards the post-apocalyptic, a wide sensorial spectrum of sonic imaginaries as well as the decolonization and deinstitutionalization around the making of sound. Within the areas of musicology, art history and later sound studies, Sound Art has evolved at least since the 1980s into a turbulent field of academic critique and aesthetic analysis. Summoning artists, researchers, curators and critics, this volume takes note of and reflects the most recent shifts and drifts in Sound Art rooted in sonic histories and implying future trajectories.

West Side Story, Gypsy, and the Art of Broadway Orchestration Paul Laird, 2021-11-18. In this groundbreaking study, Paul Laird examines the process and effect of orchestration in West Side Story and Gypsy, two musicals that were among the most significant Broadway shows of the 1950s and remain important in the modern repertory. Drawing on extensive archival research with original manuscripts, Laird provides a detailed account of the process of orchestration for these musicals and their context in the history of Broadway orchestration. He argues that the orchestration plays a vital role in the characterization and plot development in each major musical number, opening a new avenue for analysis that deepens our understanding of the musical as an art form. The orchestration of the score in Broadway musicals deeply shapes their final soundscapes but only recently has it begun to receive real attention. Linked by a shared orchestrator in other ways, West Side Story and Gypsy offer a study in contrasts. Breaking down how the two composers, Leonard Bernstein and Jules Styne, collaborated with orchestrators Sid Ramin, Irwin Kostal and Robert Ginzler, Laird's study enables us to better understand both of these two iconic shows and the importance of orchestration within musical theatre in general.

The Routledge Companion to Architectural Drawings and Models Federica Goffi, 2022-05-30. Architectural drawings and models are instruments of imagination, communication and historical continuity. The role of drawings and models and their ownership, placement and authorship in a ubiquitous digital age deserve careful consideration. Expanding on the well-established discussion of the translation from drawings to buildings, this book fills a lacuna in current scholarship, questioning the significance of the lives of drawings and models after construction. Including emerging, well-known and world-renowned scholars in the fields of architectural history and theory and curatorial practices, the thirty-five contributions define recent research in four key areas: drawing sites, sites of knowledge, construction, drawing office, construction site, the afterlife of drawings and models, archiving, collecting, displaying and exhibiting, tools of making architectural representations and their apparatus over time, and the ethical responsibilities of collecting and archiving, authorship, ownership, copyrights and rights to copy. The research covers a wide range of geographies and delves into the practices of such architects as Sir John Soane, Superstudio, Eugène Emmanuel Viollet-le-Duc, Frank Lloyd Wright, Wajiro Kon, Germán Samper Gnecco, A. P. S. Mies van der Rohe and Renzo Piano.
