Pronoun Envy Anna Livia, 2001 Controversy over gendered pronouns for example using the generic he has been a staple of feminist arguments about patriarchal language over the last 30 years and is certainly the most contested political issue in Western feminist linguistics Most accounts do not extend beyond policy issues like the official institution of non sexist language In this volume Anna Livia reveals continuities both before and after the sexist language reform movement and shows how the creative practices of pronoun use on the part of feminist writers had both aesthetic and political ends Livia uses the term pronoun envy ironically to show that rather being a case of misguided envy battles over gendered language are central to feminist concerns Livia examines a broad corpus of written texts in English and French concentrating on those texts which problematize the traditional functioning of the linguistic gender system They range from novels and prose poems to film scripts and personal testimonies and in time from the 19th century to the present Some withhold any indication of gender others have non gendered characters Livia's goal is two fold to help bridge the divide between linguistic and literary analysis and to show how careful study of the manipulation of linguistic gender in these texts informs larger concerns This fresh and highly interdisciplinary work lies at the intersection of several vital areas including language and gender sociolinguistics and feminist literary analysis

Queer French Denis M. Provencher, 2016-05-23 In this book Denis M Provencher examines the tensions between Anglo American and French articulations of homosexuality and sexual citizenship in the context of contemporary French popular culture and first person narratives In the light of recent political events and the perceived hegemonic role of US forces throughout the world an examination of the French resistance to globalization and Americanization is timely in this context He argues that contemporary French gay and lesbian cultures rely on long standing French narratives that resist US models of gay experience He maintains that French gay experiences are mitigated through gay French language that draws on several canonical voices including Jean Genet and Jean Paul Sartre and various universalistic discourses Drawing on material from a diverse array of media Queer French draws out the importance of a French gay linguistic and semiotic tradition that emerges in contemporary textual practices and discourses as they relate to sexual citizenship in 20th and 21st century France It will appeal to an interdisciplinary readership in gender and sexuality studies cultural studies linguistics media and communication studies and French studies

Grammatical Gender in Interaction Angeliki Alvanoudi, 2014-11-06 In Grammatical Gender in Interaction Cultural and Cognitive Aspects Angeliki Alvanoudi explores the relation between grammatical gender in person reference culture and cognition in Modern Greek conversation The author investigates the cultural and cognitive aspects of grammatical gender by drawing on feminist sociolinguistic and non linguistic approaches cognitive linguistics research on linguistic relativity studies on person reference in interaction and conversation analysis The study presented in this book shows that the use of grammatical gender contributes to the routine achievement of sociocultural gender in interaction and that grammatical gender guides speakers thinking of referents as female or male at the time of speaking

Transgender Identities in the Press Angela Zottola, 2021-01-28 Winner of the PROSE Award 2022 for Language Linguistics For many people newspapers are a key source of information on many topics including issues related to gender and sexuality Applying a broad range of corpus linguistic methods Transgender Identities in the Press critically explores the linguistic cues and patterns used by the print media in their representation of trans people Through close analysis of a corpus of articles collected from English language newspapers from the UK and Canada Angela Zottola focuses on the semantic categories of representation associated with transgender identities Exploring a set of key terms this book examines the semantic prosody and the language choices that each term is invested with using Critical Discourse Analysis to investigate how the way the press represents this topic influences readers and their understanding of the major debates Using a mixture of quantitative and qualitative methods Transgender Identities in the Press casts light on the complex picture of press language during a period of social change and increasing awareness Highlighting both efforts to represent this community in an inclusive and non discriminatory way and areas where there is need for improvement this book illustrates a variety of issues from a critical and social perspective

Falling into the Lesbi World Evelyn Blackwood, 2010-09-13 Falling into the Lesbi World offers a compelling view of sexual and gender difference through the everyday lives of tombois and their girlfriends femmes in the city of Padang West Sumatra While likening themselves to heterosexual couples tombois and femmes contest and blur dominant constructions of gender and heterosexuality Tombois are masculine females who identify as men and desire women their girlfriends view themselves as normal women who desire men Through rich in depth and provocative stories author Evelyn Blackwood shows how these same sex Indonesian couples negotiate transgressive identities and desires and how their experiences speak to the struggles and desires of sexual and gender minorities everywhere Blackwood analyzes the complex and seemingly contradictory practices of tombois and their partners demonstrating how they make sense of Islamic transnational and modern state discourses in ways that seem to align with normative gender and sexual categories while at the same time subverting them The childhood and adolescent narratives of tombois and femmes offer bold new insights into a social process that is rarely addressed in anthropological lesbian gay or transgender studies We see how tombois and femmes come to view themselves as boys and girls respectively through their interactions with family and community and how as teenagers tomboys learn that masculinity needs its opposite feminine women By contrast femmes notice shifts in their desires as they develop long term relationships with tomboys The book reveals the complexity of tomboy masculinity showing how tomboys enact both masculine and feminine behaviors as they move between the anonymity and vulnerability of public spaces and the familiarity of family spaces Falling into the Lesbian World demonstrates how nationally and globally circulating queer discourses are received and reinterpreted by tomboys and femmes in a city in Indonesia Though less educated than many internet savvy activists in major urban centers their identities are clearly both part of yet different than global gay models of sexuality In contrast to the international LGBT model of modern sexualities this work reveals a multiplicity of sexual and gender subjectivities in Indonesia arguing for the importance of recognizing and validating this diversity in the global gay ecumene
