Religion And Society In The Himalayas:

Religion and Society in the Himalayas Tanka Bahadur Subba, Karubaki Datta, 1991 The Vacuum created by the earlier authors by not touching several important areas on this subject have been properly bridged by these authors of the twelve papers included in the book Seven of them centre around Buddhism one on the interrelationship of B Culture and the Environment in the Himalaya Arjun Guneratne, 2009-12-24 Drawing on Himalayan ethnography to interrogate and critique contemporary theorizing about the environment this book examines how the environment is conceptualized among different social groups in the region A new approach to the study of the environment in South Asia this book introduces the new thinking in environmental anthropology and geography into the study of the Himalaya The Sherpas of the Himalayas Manis Kumar Raha, Palash Chandra Coomar, Sudip Bhui, 2016-01-01 The present book is a detailed first of its kind study of the Sherpas inhabiting Darjeeling District of West Bengal and South District of Sikkim This ethnographic study among the Sherpas of these two areas was undertaken by the authors because firstly the Sherpas here have very interesting culture and secondly these people here are very little known All detailed studies so far published are on the Sherpas of Nepal So people know about the Sherpas of Nepal but not about them living in Darjeeling and Sikkim From this detailed study the readers of this book particularly those who are interested about the people of the Himalayas and of North East India will get a comprehensive idea about the life and activities of these inhabitants of the Himalayas Moreover in this book a comparison between their society and culture and those of their congeners in Nepal has also been made As a result the readers will get a complete life sketch of these people from this book This book will also help in formulating and undertaking development programmes among them and also in the areas they live The Origins of Himalayan Studies David Waterhouse, 2004-10-28 Brian Hodgson lived in Nepal from 1820 to 1843 during which time he wrote and published extensively on Nepalese culture religion natural history architecture ethnography and linguistics Contributors from leading historians of Nepal and South Asia and from specialists in Buddhist studies art history linguistics ornithology and ethnography critically examine Hodgson's life and achievement within the context of his contribution to scholarship Many of the drawings photographed for this book have not previously been published The Routledge Companion to Northeast India Jelle J. P. Wouters, Tanka B. Subba, 2022-09-30 The Routledge Companion to Northeast India is a trans disciplinary and comprehensive compendium of a vital yet under researched region in South Asia It provides a unique guide to prevailing themes theories arguments and history of Northeast India by discussing its life forms human and not languages landscapes and lifeways in all its diversity and difference The companion contains authoritative entries from leading specialists from and on the region and offers clear concise and illuminating explanations of key themes and ideas A hands on practical and comprehensive guide to Northeast India this companion fills a significant gap in the literature and will be an invaluable teaching learning and research resource for scholars and students of Northeast India Studies South Asian and Southeast

Megan Adamson Sijapati, Jessica Vantine Birkenholtz, 2016-03-10 Religion has long been a powerful cultural social and political force in the Himalaya Increased economic and cultural flows growth in tourism and new forms of governance and media however have brought significant changes to the religious traditions of the region in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book presents detailed case studies of lived religion in the Himalaya in this context of rapid change to offer intra regional perspectives on the ways in which lived religions are being re configured or re imagined Based on original fieldwork this book documents understudied forms of religion in the region and presents unique perspectives on the phenomenon and experience of religion discussing why when and where practices discourses and the category of religion itself are engaged by varying communities in the region It yields fruitful insights into both the religious traditions and lived human experiences of Himalayan peoples in the modern era Presenting new research and perspectives on the Himalayan region this book should be of interest to students and scholars of South Asian Studies Religious Studies and Modernity

The Ravaged Paradise Dipanwita Dasgupta, 2023-04-03 This book makes a systematic attempt to explore the environmental history of Darjeeling during the British colonial period 1835 1947 which profoundly transformed the environment of Darjeeling by introducing commercial control over the natural resources After the foundation of Darjeeling as the hill station for the low income groups of British administration living in Bengal and Burma the place was transformed into a social recreational and commercial centre for the British authorities The railway construction boom introduction of tea plantation the growth of a commercial market for timber and increasing demands for fuel and building materials depleted the forest cover The less explored regions of Darjeeling attracted the adventure thirsty Britons A series of investigations were made on the marketable products the condition of roads and quality of soil of these regions The ethnographic geological botanical and zoological study of the Darjeeling was started by the colonial officials in the nineteenth century In the early stage of expansion of colonialism in Asia Africa Australia and South America the European colonizers faced numerous problems in dealing with the untouched nature The accumulation of the knowledge of surrounding regions and proper management of the labour became essential for the colonial authority for transformation of the existing environment of the densely forested tropical colonies Taylor and Francis does not sell or distribute the print editions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Human Ecology of Sikkim Kuldeep Singh Gulia, 2005 A historic view on the human ecology of sikkim the culture and structure of local ecosystems human ecosystems various richness of human ecosystems monasteries and the monastic architecture customs and their eco biological significances spirit possession shamans and Jhakis ethno botany and adaptations A complete guide to the tourist industry policy makers and scholars

History, Culture and Customs of Sikkim J. R. Subba, 2008 SIKKIM the tiny Himalayan Kingdom came into existence in 1642 A D with a much larger area than it was in 1975 A D before its integration in the Kingdom was the whole of Limbuwan now the eastern most part of Nepal southern parts of Tibet Autonomous region of China from Nathu La and Jelep La to the Tang La beyond Phari Jong western Bhutan up to the watershed range between the Ammo Chu Valley and Har Chu Valley and the northern plains of West Bengal as far south as Titalaiya and Purnea of Bihar The Kingdom disintegrated in eight phases in different period of time when it s considerable areas were annexed by Bhutan Nepal China and British India of those days and was finally integrated as one of the States of Indian Union in 1975 A D thereby loosing it s identity as a Himalayan Kingdom The book provides insight into the history of its existence as the Himalayan Kingdom and it s disintegration in various phases ethnicity culture and customs of the people of Sikkim About The Author Mr Jash Subba a post graduate in agricultural science from IARI New Delhi is a prolific writer and critic Born in 1949 at Hee one of the villages of Sikkim joined Agriculture service and has retired from Government Service in 2007 after 32 years as Principal Director Agriculture During his long period of service he held a number of posts in the State Government and has contributed a lot for the development of agriculture and horticulture He has also worked as consultant to FAO SARD M project and is an expert on sustainable mountain farming systems Besides he has eighteen books in his credit on diverse subjects ranging from agriculture horticulture biodiversity culture anthropology religion and philosophy He has also contributed a number of articles and participated in seminars in the country and abroad Contents Foreword Acknowledgement Acronyms Chronology History and Culture Land People and Livelihood Landscape Agricultural Ecosystems and Sac Environmental Humanities in the New Himalayas Dan Smyer Yü,Erik de Maaker,2021-06-16 Environmental Humanities in the New Himalayas Symbiotic Indigeneity Commoning Sustainability showcases how the eco geological creativity of the earth is integrally woven into the landforms cultures and cosmovisions of modern Himalayan communities Unique in scope this book features case studies from Bhutan Assam Sikkim Tibet Nepal Pakistan and Sino Indian borderlands many of which are documented by authors from indigenous Himalayan communities It explores three environmental characteristics of modern Himalayas the anthropogenic the indigenous and the animist Focusing on the sentient relations of human animal and spirit worlds with the earth in different parts of the Himalayas the authors present the complex meanings of indigeneity commoning and sustainability in the Anthropocene In doing so they show the vital role that indigenous stories and perspectives play in building new regional and planetary environmental ethics for a sustainable future Drawing on a wide range of expert contributions from the natural sciences social sciences and humanist disciplines this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental humanities religion and ecology indigenous knowledge and sustainable development more broadly The Biography of a God Asaf Sharabi,2025-10-01 Mahasu is the joint name of four gods whose influence is widespread throughout the Indian states of Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand Like other deities in the Western Himalayas they are regarded as royal gods who rule over territories and people This book traces changes in faith and practices surrounding the Mahasu brothers and shows how the locals understand these changes by emphasizing the dominant role of humans in the decisions of the gods The locals are also constantly testing the authenticity of the human mediumship Thus the book presents the claim that the gap between local conceptions of divinity and the perceptions of anthropologists regarding gods may be narrower than we think The Biography of a God Mahasu in the Himalayas is based on ethnographic research resulting in an important contribution to the study of Indian village deities Himalayan Hinduism lived Hinduism and the anthropology of religion Marriage in Human Society Manis Kumar Raha,2023-01-01 Marriage as an institution was introduced among the human beings possible thousands of years ago Human being possible started with promiscuity and then moved to the structured forms of marriages It took no doubt many many years From one form of marriage is human being diversified marriage form into several During last couple of century or more several changes have taken place in marriage pattern forms methods ceremonies etc Still during recent decades only some anthropologists and other social scientists have showed much interest to study marriage These Three Volumes deals with marriage in different parts of the world and its different forms and types in great details But much emphasis has been given on different multiple marriages particularly polyandry its sub types and regions of origin and development of polyandry as practiced in different countries including India Emphasis has also been given on the question of determination and allocation of paternity and decline of polyandry and some other multiple marriages In this study special stress has been given on some of the marriage that is sexuality reproductively and paternity Also provide very good idea about different aspects of marriage and its types and forms The publisher and author of this book will be extremely happy if the reader considers this book as an important contribution to anthropology and other social sciences These volumes are useful for all those who are interested in Sociology Tribal Studies Anthropology and other Social Sciences Ecology, Economy, and Religion of Himalayas Lalita Prasad Vidyarthi,Makhan Jha,1986 Papers presented at a national workshop Dehradun 1982 organized by the Centre of Himalayan Studies Ranchi University Homeland or Religion? Personal Identity Building in Zangskar, Indian Himalayas Salomé Deboos,2023-07-10 Who are you Where do you come from These two simple questions have so many answers and are sometimes even difficult to answer This book tells the story of a Buddhist Muslim community from Padum in the Zangskar Valley Indian Greater Himalayas The author has gained a unique insight into this community during twenty years of research while the people shared doubts and joys with her These experiences showed her that the meaning of belonging to a homeland or a confessional group and therefore the transformation of the process of identity building in our modern world is bridging the gap between tradition and modernity Religion and Society Gnana Stanley Jaya Kumar,1996 In the wake of tremendous progress of industrialization and urbanization religion one of h the powerful tradition institution has undergone far reaching chanes with regards to the criteria of values and standard of behaviour The goal ofall human activity is evidently the attainment of happiness in this life as well as beyond Evidently for a personality both these sets of seemingly opposite categories that is mundane and extra0mundane are indispensable and inseparable Himalayan Anthropology James F.
