Smidt, 2013-03-07 American Evangelicals Today assesses the contemporary social religious and political characteristics of evangelical Protestants today and it does so in light of 1 whether these characteristics are similar to or different from the corresponding characteristics of adherents of other major faith traditions in American religious life and 2 the extent which these particular characteristics among evangelicals may have changed over the past four decades In addition it analyzes the extent which evangelicals are divided today and it does so within the framework of four potential factors that might shape such divisions racial ethnic differences generational differences educational differences and religious differences American Evangelicals Today is designed to serve as an accessible but scholarly overview of American evangelicals one that is appealing to all scholars students and laity alike Smidt offers a discussion of the nature of evangelical Protestantism highlights the particular analytical issues at play when one seeks to determine just who are to be classified as evangelicals and reveals some of the contradictory findings that can emerge through the use of these different analytical frameworks for defining evangelicals The volume not only analyzes the current characteristics of evangelicals in light of those exhibited by other religious traditions as well as how evangelicals have changed over time but it looks toward the future addressing generational differences and other possible factors for change among evangelical Protestants

Hirt, 2006-03-02 This volume challenges the widely held assumption that the professional practice of student affairs administration transcends the influence of organizational culture Based on data and commentaries from more than 1 100 practitioners this book describes how the experience of student affairs administrators varies by institutional type The findings paint a multifaceted and integrated portrait of the profession For instance the standard bearers at liberal art colleges share as much in common with the generalists at comprehensive institutions as they do with the interpreters at religiously affiliated campuses The specialists at research universities are juxtaposed against the producers at community colleges however they have closer ties to the change agents at Hispanic serving institutions The work of the guardians at historically Black colleges and universities is linked to practice at both liberal arts and community colleges Where You Work Matters offers current and future administrators a greater appreciation for the vibrancy and complexity of the student affairs profession

A Kingdom Divided April E. Holm, 2017-12-11 A Kingdom Divided uncovers how evangelical Christians in the border states influenced debates about slavery morality and politics from the 1830s to the 1890s Using little studied events and surprising incidents from the region April E Holm argues that evangelicals on the border powerfully shaped the regional structure of American religion in the Civil War era In the decades before the Civil War the three largest evangelical denominations diverged sharply over the sinfulness of slavery This division generated tremendous local conflict in the border region where individual churches had to define themselves as being either northern or southern In response many border evangelicals drew upon the doctrine of spirituality which dictated that churches should abstain from all political debate Proponents of this doctrine defined slavery as a purely political issue rather than a moral one and the wartime arrival of secular authorities who demanded loyalty to the Union only intensified this commitment to spirituality Holm contends that these churches insistence that politics and religion were separate spheres was instrumental in the development of the ideal of the nonpolitical southern church After the Civil War southern churches adopted both the disaffected churches from border states and their doctrine of spirituality claiming it as their own and using it to supply a theological basis for remaining divided after the abolition of slavery By the late nineteenth century evangelicals were more sectionally divided than they had been at war s end In A Kingdom Divided Holm provides the first analysis of the crucial role of churches in border states in shaping antebellum divisions in the major evangelical denominations in navigating the relationship between church and the federal government and in rewriting denominational histories to forestall reunion in the churches Offering a new perspective on nineteenth century sectionalism it highlights how religion morality and politics interacted often in unexpected ways in a time of political crisis and war

Home Schooling Frederick M. Lawrence,2007 From left to right on the political spectrum there is at least one note of agreement the nation s school system has not delivered universal quality education Accordingly debate has raged over how to rectify this situation Should the government increase funding encourage privatisation some of both Another option though has emerged and is seemingly gaining popularity home schooling Citing both substandard education and displeasure with school environments and curricula many parents have decided to teach their own children Supporters say it is well within their rights to raise their children as they see fit and that at home learning is superior to the public system Detractors claim that home schooled children are deprived of social interaction and the broad based education provided by the system Neither side wants to cede ground making the issue of home schooling an integral part of a wider national debate on education In this book the specific topic of home schooling is presented from all relevant sides to give a complete picture of the present status of the issue and its potential for future resolution Following this overview is a thorough and carefully selected bibliography of literature about home schooling from all viewpoints Easy access to his important resource is then provided via author title and subject indexes
