New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state

Sharing Lights on the Way to God Pim Valkenberg, 2006-01-01 This book seeks to give form to a theology that hyphenates two traditions that have not only been in constant conflict during most of their historical encounters but are also presented as opposite blocks in the threatening clash of civilizations at the beginning of the third millennium Islam and Christianity Based on experiences of dialogue between the three Abrahamic faiths this book analyzes historical and contemporary processes of interreligious dialogue between Christians and Muslims in order to arrive at a concept of dialogue as mutual emulation It shows how in their theologies of religious others Judaism Christianity and Islam have based their images of others on their self images This characteristic makes traditional theologies of religion quite unsuitable for interreligious dialogue Consequently the author of this book develops a model in which comparative theology and interreligious dialogue are connected by studying as a Christian theologian the theological and spiritual sources of his Muslim dialogue partners These exercises in comparative Muslim Christian theology comprise both the medieval Aquinas al Ghazali Rumi and the modern periods Said Nursi Fethullah G len Tariq Ramadan An interlude on Teresa of Avila s poem Nada te turbe shows how Christians may recover important insights from their own tradition by reading these Muslim theological and spiritual sources

Authentic Liturgical Renewal in Contemporary Perspective Uwe Michael Lang, 2017-07-27 The ongoing debates on the present state and the future of the Roman Catholic worship are not confined to specialists but are clearly of interest to a wider public as the responses to the Sacra Liturgia UK conference held in London in July 2016 have shown This volume contains the proceedings of the conference and raises the question of how to bring to fruition the insights and instructions of the Second Vatican Council and its key document on the liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium in the life of the Church today The initial contribution from Robert Cardinal Sarah Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Sacraments calls for a fuller implementation of Sacrosanctum Concilium Following on from this other leading figures and liturgical scholars such as Joris Geldhof David Fagerberg and Alcuin Reid examine Catholic worship from a variety of perspectives including historical pastoral social cultural and artistic themes Taken together these chapters present another crucial step along the route of authentic liturgical renewal in the contemporary world The Rise of the Global South Elijah Jong Fil Kim, 2012-04-06 Global Christianity has been experiencing an unprecedented historical transition from the West to the non Western world The leadership of global Christianity has taken on a new face since the twentieth century Christendom in Europe and America has experienced a great decline while there has been a rise in Majority World Christianity Churches in the Global South have given their voices to global Christianity through their leadership world mission movements and theology The phenomenal church growth has risen from the Pentecostal and Charismatic movement Pentecostalism has become the dominant force in global Christianity today The Rise of the Global South examines the significance this shift has had on global Christianity by going through the history of Christianity in the West and the causes of the shift The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Christianity and World Religions Gavin D'Costa, 2009-03-12 An engaging and accessible introduction to Christianity srelationship with other world religions addressing the questionsof why the reality and vitality of other religions has become achallenge and showing how Christianity is equipped to deal withreligious plurality at both the doctrinal and social level Timely and accessible this book tackles the question of whythe reality and vitality of other religions has become achallenge for Christianity Makes a decisive contribution to debates about the clashbetween Islam and the West arguing that the major threat toreligious freedoms come from secularism and that Islam andChristianity both have the resources to develop a vibrant and pluralist public square one informed by intellectual rigor and debate Considers the wider issue of how modernity has defined religion and provides a substantial critique of secular ways of controlling religions Shows how Christianity is very well suited to deal with religious plurality at the doctrinal and social level Addresses the core issues and describes the various answers that have been proposed in recent years making it an ideal introduction to the field and one which will stimulate ideas and discussions

Regional, Critical, and Historical Approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi R.

Warne, 2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Irish Mormons Hazel

O'Brien, 2023-06-06 The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints is one of the international religions that have arrived from abroad to find adherents in Ireland Drawing on fieldwork in two LDS communities Hazel O'Brien explores how these adherents experience the Church in Ireland against the backdrop of the country's increasingly complex religious identity Irish Latter day Saints live on the margins of the nation's religious life and the worldwide LDS movement Nonetheless they create a sense of belonging for themselves by drawing on collective memories of both their Irishness and their faith As O'Brien shows Irish Latter day Saints work to shift the understanding of Ireland's religious landscape away from a predominant focus on Roman Catholicism They also challenge Utah based constructions of Mormonism in order to ensure their place in the Church's powerful religious and cultural lineage Examining the Latter day Saint experience against one nation's rapid social and religious changes Irish Mormons blends participant observation and interviews with analysis to offer a rare view of the Latter day Saints in contemporary Ireland

Religion and Politics in Interwar Yugoslavia Maria Falina, 2023-01-26

Religion and Politics in Interwar Yugoslavia explores the interaction between religion nationalism and political modernity in the first half of the 20th century taking the case of the Serbian Orthodox Church as an example This book historicizes the widely held assumption that the bond between religion and nationalism in the Balkans is a natural one or that this bond has been historically inevitable It tells a complex story of how East Orthodox Christianity came to be at the core of one version of Serbian nationalism by bringing together the themes of religion nationalism politics state building secularization and modernity Maria Falina reconstructs how the ideological fusion between Serbian nationalism and East Orthodox Christianity was forged The analysis emphasizes ideas and ideologies through a close reading of public discourses and historical narratives while paying attention to individual actors and their personal histories The book argues that the particular political vision of the Serbian Orthodox Church emerged in reaction to and in interaction with the challenges posed by political modernity that were not unique to Yugoslavia These included establishing the modern multinational and multi religious state the fear of secularization and the rise of communism and fascism Religion and Politics in Interwar Yugoslavia makes an important contribution to understanding the history of interwar Yugoslavia 20th century Europe and the ties between religion and nationalism
