Religious Inventions Four Essays:

Religious Inventions Max Charlesworth, 2010-08-04 Many scholars assume that all genuine religions are basically similar and that it is possible to define the sphere of religion in terms of the sacred In his latest book Max Charlesworth argues that we must take the diversity of religions as a primary fact Any religion is an active response to a revelation of the divine and human beings receive these revelations interpret them and develop them in a variety of ways Charlesworth illustrates his thesis with examples ranging from Australian Aboriginal religion to twentieth century Roman Catholicism

Religious Inventions Maxwell John Charlesworth, 1997-06-28 This book argues for the diversity of religions and the human element in the development of religion

Philosophy and Religion M.J. Charlesworth, 2013-10-01 This title presents a core text for undergraduates and those interested in the relationship between philosophy and religion Five chapters track the many different theories of philosophy and religion from medieval times through the Enlightenment to the latest postmodern theories Covering thinkers from Aristotle to Al Ghazali and Kant to Wittgenstein this work is intended for both students and general readers

The Second Vatican Council on Other Religions Gerald O'Collins, 2013-03-28 Many observers greeted the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 as the most important religious event in the twentieth century Its implementation and impact are still being felt in the Catholic Church the wider Christian world and beyond One sea change that Vatican II brought concerned Roman Catholic attitudes towards Judaism Islam and other religions Gerald O'Collins breaks fresh ground by examining in detail five documents from the Council which embodied a new mindset about other religious faiths and mandated changes that quickly led to international and national dialogues between the Catholic Church and the followers of non-Christian religions The book also includes chapters on the insights that prepared the way for the rethinking expressed by Vatican II and on the follow up to the Council's teaching found in the work of Pope John Paul II and Jacques Dupuis O'Collins ably illustrates how the Council made a startling advance in official Catholic teaching about followers of other living faiths Carefully researched the book is written in the clear accessible style that readers of previous works by O'Collins will recognize

Regional, Critical, and Historical Approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi R. Warne, 2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984-85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Considering Religions, Rights and Bioethics: For Max Charlesworth Peter Wong, Sherah Bloor, Patrick Hutchings, Purushottama Bilimoria, 2019-10-17 This volume engages in conversation with the thinking and work of Max Charlesworth as well as the many questions tasks and challenges in academic and public life that he posed It addresses philosophical religious and cultural issues ranging from bioethics to Australian Songlines and from consultation in a liberal society to intentionality The volume honours Max Charlesworth a renowned and celebrated Australian public intellectual who founded the journal Sophia and trained a number of the present heirs to both Sophia and academic disciplines as they were further developed and enhanced in Australia Indigenous Australian studies philosophy of religion the study of the tension between tradition and modernity phenomenology and existentialism hermeneutics feminist philosophy and philosophy of science that is responsive to environmental issues

Religion and Change in Australia Adam Possamai, David Tittensor, 2022-03-30 This timely book offers a panoramic overview of the enduring significance of religion in modern Australian society Applying sociological perspectives and contemporary theories of religion in society it challenges conventional assumptions around the extent of secularisation in Australia and instead argues that religious institutions groups and individuals have proved remarkably adaptable to social change and continue to play a major role in Australian life In doing so it explores how religion intersects with a wide range of other contemporary issues including politics race migration gender and new media Religion and Change in Australia explores Australia's unique history regarding religion Christianity was originally imported as a tool of social control to keep convicts settlers and Australian Aboriginal peoples in check This had a profound impact on the social memory of the nation and lingering resentment towards the excessive presence of religion continues to be felt today Freedom of religion was enshrined in Section 116 of the Australian Constitution in 1901 Nevertheless the White Australia Policy effectively prevented adherents of non Christian faiths from migrating to Australia and the nation remained overwhelmingly Christian However after WWII Australia in common with other western societies appears to have become increasingly secularised as religious observance declined dramatically However Religion and Change in Australia employs a range of social theories to challenge this secularist view and argues that Australia is a post secular society The 2016 census revealed that over half of the population still identify as Christian In politics the socially conservative religious right has come to exert considerable influence on the ruling Liberal National Coalition particularly under John Howard and Scott Morrison New technologies such as the Internet and social media have provided new avenues for religious expression and proselytisation whilst so called megachurches have been built to cater to their increasing congregations The adoption of multiculturalism and increased immigration from Asia has led to a religiously pluralist society though this has often been controversial In particular the position of Islam in Australia has been the subject of fierce debate and Islamophobic attitudes remain common Atheism non belief and alternative spiritualities have also become increasingly widespread especially amongst the young Religion and Change in Australia analyses these developments to offer new perspectives on religion and its continued relevance within Australian society This book is therefore a vital resource for students academics and general readers seeking to understand contemporary debates surrounding religion and secularisation in Australia Excel Senior High School Studies of

Religion Louise Fleming, 2001 Inventing Catholic Tradition Terrence W. Tilley, 2011-06-07 This creative argument that traditions are neither found nor made but are invented and reinvented in practice is carried out in dialogue with scholars such as Yves Congar and George Lindbeck Tilley examines the actual practices as the bearers of tradition and argues that vibrant and meaningful traditions must be reinvented or reconstructed in every generation He demonstrates how deliberately invented or imposed traditions are often resisted Tilley applies his analysis to the Catholic Intellectual Tradition and in the last chapter shows how truth revelation and authority can be accommodated by a constructivist practical theology of tradition The Beginning of All Things Hans Kng, 2008-06-06 In an age when faith and science seem constantly to clash can theologians and scientists come to a meeting of minds Yes maintains the intrepid Hans K ng as he brilliantly argues here that religion and science are not mutually exclusive but complementary Back cover New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches Aboriginal Religions in Australia Françoise Dussart, Howard Morphy, 2017-09-08 Over the last 25 years there has been an explosion of interest in the Aboriginal religions of Australia and this anthology provides a variety of recent writings by a wide range of scholars Australian Aboriginal Religions are probably the oldest extant religious systems Over some 50 000 years they have coped with change and re invented themselves in an astonishingly creative way The Dreaming the mythical time when the Ancestor Spirits shaped the territories of the Aborigines and laid down a moral and ritual law for their occupants is the fundamental religious reality It is the basis of the Aborigines s view of their land or country kinship relationships ritual and art However the Dreaming is not a static principle since it is interpreted in different ways as in the extraordinary movement in contemporary indigenous painting and in attempts at an accommodation with Christianity The contributions of anthropologists cultural historians philosophers of religion and others are included in this anthology which not only guides readers through the literature but also ensures this still largely inaccessible material is available to a wider range of readers and non specialist students and academics Clashes of Knowledge Peter Meusburger, Michael Welker, Edgar Wunder, 2008-04-15 Do traditional distinctions between belief and knowledge still make sense How are differences between knowledge and belief understood in different cultural contexts This book explores conflicts between various types of knowledge especially between orthodox and heterodox knowledge systems ranging from religious fundamentalism to heresies within the scientific community itself Beyond addressing many fields in the academy the book discusses learned individuals interested in the often puzzling spatial and cultural disparities of knowledge and clashes of knowledge

For Self-examination and Judge for Yourself! Robert L. Perkins, 2002 The International Kierkegaard Commentary For the first time in English the world community of scholars systematically assembled and presented the results of recent research in the vast literature of S ren Kierkegaard Based on the definitive English edition of Kierkegaard s works by Princeton University Press this series of commentaries addresses all the published texts of the influential Danish philosopher and theologian This is volume 21 in a series of commentaries based upon the definitive translations of Kierkegaard s writings published by Princeton University Press 1980ff

Sociology of Religion for Generations X and Y Adam Possamai, 2016-04-08 Generations X and Y are plugged into the contemporary world of consumption popular culture and the internet These generations treat knowledge and belief as a more flexible concept often focusing on the practical rather than the theoretical and often drawing on conflicting sources in both popular and cyber culture Their approach to religious belief and practice requires a new way of studying the sociology of religion Sociology of Religion for Generations X and Y examines key world religions Buddhism Christianity and Islam as well as newer religious groups such as Scientology New Age Witchcraft and online communities such as Jediism and Matrixism The book covers a range of key concepts secularisation and modernisation re enchantment the McDonaldisation of society and the easternisation of the west Each chapter opens with a case study from popular culture or the internet which takes the reader to the heart of the topic being discussed Employing both classical sociological theory and contemporary critical theory Sociology of Religion for Generations X and Y explains where contemporary religion and spirituality are coming from where they are now and where they are going

Blood, Bones and Spirit Heather McDonald, 2012-11-27 In this fascinating and beautifully written book Heather McDonald examines Aboriginal people s experiences of colonialism and post colonialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Blood Bones and Spirit analyses how Aboriginal people have appropriated Biblical stories of land inheritance expansion and loss in order to make sense of their own dispossession It investigates the embodiment of Christianity by Aboriginal people through their appropriation of Christ s body his blood bones and spirit in order to replenish and heal their own colonised bodies Indeed this local study of Christianisation in a small East Kimberley town presents a challenge to the very history and philosophy of Western religion Heather McDonald spreads out before the reader various aspects of Aboriginal Christianity the way Aborigines have assimilated Christian stories to make sense of their history and their relationships with the dominant society their understanding of what it means to be Christian their church activities and their conflicting interpretations of the Christian way of life Aboriginal Christians are repossessing the land and reclaiming a traditional earth bound world immanent spirituality These Aboriginal understandings of colonisation including missionisation and Aboriginal ways of interpreting and understanding Christianity offer a unique contribution to the reconciliation process

collection spans twenty years of scholarship on Aboriginal religions Contributors include Diane Bell Ronald M Berndt Deborah Bird Rose Frank Brennan Max Charlesworth Rosemary Crumlin Norman Habel Nonie Sharp W E H Stanner Tony Swain and Peter Willis Worship and Social Engagement in Urban Aboriginal-led Australian Pentecostal Congregations Tanya Riches, 2019-05-15 Worship and Social Engagement in Urban Aboriginal led Australian Pentecostal Congregations Reimagining Identity in the Spirit provides an ethnographic account of three Australian Pentecostal congregations with Aboriginal senior leadership Within this Pentecostalism Dreaming realities and identities must be brought together with the Christian gospel Yet current political and economic relationships with the Australian state complicate the possibilities of interactions between culture and Spirit The result is a matrix or network of these churches stretching across Australia with Black Australian Pentecostals resisting and accommodating the state through the construction of new and ancient identities This work occurs most notably in context of the worship ritual which functions through ritual interaction chains to energise the various social engagement programs these congregations sustain Religion and Popular Culture Adam

Possamai, 2005 This book views itself as the hyper real testament of new religious phenomena by addressing the theories among many others of Baudrillard Jameson and Lipovetsky and by exploring the use of fictions such as those from Harry Potter The Matrix Star Trek Buffy and Lord of the Rings Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15 The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub disciplines and related areas Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics Essays and contributors are The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All
