Remaking The Godly Marriage Gender Negotiation In Evangelical Families:

Remaking the Godly Marriage John P. Bartkowski, 2001 In Remaking the Godly Marriage John Bartkowski studies evangelical Protestants and their views on marriage and gender relations and how they are lived within individual families The author compares elite evangelical prescriptions for godly family living with the day to day practices in conservative Protestant households He asks How serious are the debates over gender and the family that are manifested within contemporary evangelicalism What are the values that underlie this debate Have these internecine disputes been altered by the emergence of new evangelical movements such as biblical feminism and the Promise Keepers And given the fact that leading evangelicals advance competing visions of godly family life how do conservative religious spouses make sense of their own family relationships and gender identities The Divine Institution Sophie Bjork-James, 2021-03-12 The Divine Institution provides an account of how a theology of the family came to dominate a white evangelical tradition in the post civil rights movement United States providing a theological corollary to Religious Right politics This tradition inherently enforces racial inequality in that it draws moral religious and political attention away from problems of racial and economic structural oppression explaining all social problems as a failure of the individual to achieve the strong gender and sexual identities that ground the nuclear family The consequences of this theology are both personal suffering for individuals who cannot measure up to prescribed gender and sexual roles and political support for conservative government policies Exposure to experiences that undermine the idea that an emphasis on the family is the solution to all social problems is causing a younger generation of white evangelicals to shift away from this narrow theological emphasis and toward a more social justice oriented theology The material and political effects of this shift remain to be seen Ring by Spring Stacy Keogh George, 2019-08-01 The phrase ring by spring is used to describe students desire to find a partner and become engaged before they graduate college From where does this pressure come Who is most impacted What are the consequences of this culture This book begins to explore this complicated dynamic that is unique to Christian colleges by describing the experiences of Christian college students and alumni The author provides additional thoughts on how to support students overwhelmed by this culture and how to foster positive relationships of all kinds on college campuses that too often make romantic relationships too serious too quickly Growing Up Pure Lauren D. Sawyer, 2025-12-09 By arguing that young people are moral and sexual agents Growing Up Pure pushes against the prevailing narrative that white youth especially girls and queer youth are always only victims within evangelical purity culture Provided by publisher

Leadership through the Lens Creshema R. Murray, 2017-12-19 Television informs our perceptions and expectations of leaders and offers a guide to understanding how we as organizational actors should communicate act and relate Because of its pervasiveness as a medium and the impact it can have in influencing expectations of leadership and related behavior within organizational life television can be understood an important pedagogical tool Leadership through the Lens

Interrogating Production Presentation and Power is an edited collection of 11 chapters that address representations of leadership in scripted and unscripted workplace settings showcasing the innovative ways in which diverse leadership styles are illustrated in a variety of contexts on television With a unique approach at the intersection of leadership and mass media studies this book shows how the two disciplines coexist to inform how leadership culture is produced and transformed via presentation and representations on television The Bible, Centres and Margins Johanna Stiebert,Musa W.

Dube,2018-08-23 There has rarely been an effort to address the missing dialogue between British and African scholars including in regard to the role of British missionaries during the introduction ofthe Bible and Christianity to many parts of Africa To break this silence Musa W Dube and Johanna Stiebert collect expressions from both emerging and established biblical scholars in the United Kingdom and predominantly southern African states Divided into three sets of papers these contributions range from the injustices of colonialism to postcolonial critical readings of texts suppression and appropriation each section complete with a responding essay Questioning how well UK students understand Africacentred and generated approaches of biblical criticism whether African scholars consider UK centric criticism valid and how accurately the western canon represents current UK based scholarship these essays illustrate the trends and challenges faced in biblical studies in the two centres of study and discusses how these questions are better answered with dialogue rather than in isolation
