Remarriage After 50 Jane Hughes Barton,1994-02-01 What women men and adult children need to know Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis,Amanda E. Barnett,2018-10-05 Providing an integrated and thorough representation from current research and contemporary society Family Ties and Aging shows how pressing issues of our time an aging population changing family structures and new patterns of work family balance are negotiated in the family lives of middle aged and older adults Focusing on key questions such as How do current trends and social arrangements affect family relationships and What are the implications of what we know for future research theory practice and policy authors Ingrid Arnet Connidis and Amanda E Barnett explore groups and relationships that are typically overlooked including the unique family situations of older single and childless persons sibling ties older lesbian and gay adults and new forms of intimate relationships The Third Edition is thoroughly updated to include the latest research and theoretical developments recent media coverage of related issues and new information on intimate relationships in later life and elder neglect abuse

Divorce, Separation, and Remarriage Giovanna Ganesini,Sampson Lee Blair,2016-10-10 Divorce separation and remarriage have become a normative part of family life These changes have led to a diversification of the behaviors attitudes and norms concerning marriage and family To better comprehend these issues this volume addresses topics including marital instability step parenting and extra marital affairs among others Diversity in Families Maxine Baca Zinn,D. Stanley Eitzen,2002 This text treats family diversity as the norm while showing how race class gender and sexuality produce a variety of familial relationships The text examines families as products of social forces within society and exposes myths stereotypes and dogmas related to families This sixth edition is organized around the framework of structural diversity stressing that family forms are socially constructed and historically changing and that family diversity is constructed through social structure and human agency Zinn teaches at Michigan State University Eitzen teaches at Colorado State University Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Families in Ageing Societies Sarah Harper,2004-09-02 Western families are undergoing considerable change The demographic ageing of societies is increasing the number of living generations and decreasing the number of living relatives within these generations These ageing societies are also seeing an ageing of some life transitions with individuals choosing to delay full economic independence from parents formal adult union through marriage or committed long term cohabitation and parenting Such demographic change is occurring within the context of a variety of new kin structures stepfamilies ethnic minority families single parent families cohabiting couples This volume takes an inter disciplinary research approach to consider the implications of demographic ageing for European and American families Fathering Behaviors Wade C. Mackey,2012-12-06 Like the lines of a secret map made dimly apparent by the chemical potion brushed on a piece of paper from a child s detective kit the outlines of what may be a substantial behavioral biology of human life seem to be coming clear From genetic science at its most molecular to demography with its assessment of the vital experience of massive populations there is a growing understanding of the various ways in which the human species reveals underlying commonalities of experience through the life cycle and over the web of interactions that constitutes the basic matter of social life At the same time research has been successful in two superficially and contradictory directions first in showing the enormous variation in human arrangements and consciousness across and within cultures and second in showing the similarity between cultures as far as basic processes of physiology neurophysiology and even so-called life are concerned But the contradiction only exists in the absence of an understanding of the fact that in a species living under as many ecological historical and economic niches as Homo sapiens cultural variation is what one would naturally expect

Remaking Families in Contemporary China Xiaoying Qi, 2021 Surnaming veiled patriarchy Floating grandparents intergenerational exchange Intimacy and a third element Divorce broken and unbroken bonds Flowering at sunset remarriage and co habitation among the elderly

Families in the Roman and Late Antique World Lena Larsson Loven, Mary Harlow, 2012-02-02 This volume seeks to explain developments within the structure of the family in antiquity in particular in the later Roman Empire and late antiquity Contributions extend the traditional chronological focus on the Roman family to include the transformation of familial structures in the newly formed kingdoms of late antiquity in Europe thus allowing a greater historical perspective and establishing a new paradigm for the study of the Roman family Drawing on the latest research by leading scholars in the field the book includes new approaches to the life course and the family in the Byzantine empire family relationships in the dynasty of Constantine the Great death burial and commemoration of newborn children in Roman Italy and widows and familial networks in Roman Egypt In short this volume seeks to establish a new agenda for the understanding of the Roman family and its transformation in late antiquity

Intimate Relationships across the Lifespan Abdul Khaleque, 2018-02-08 This comprehensive research based book is a next generation study of intimate relationships that explores implications for health and well being across cultures genders and traditional as well as non traditional relationships This book fills the need for a contemporary analysis of intimate relationships and their implications for people's health well being and quality of life It covers topics not ordinarily included in textbooks on this topic in non traditional areas such as LGBT relationships The text also addresses intervention strategies for relationship problems and offers tools and techniques for assessing intimate relationships Chapters are organized to present information about the origin formation development enrichment and maintenance of intimate relationships in a way that allows readers to build upon what they have learned The text provides integrated and evidence based information on almost all aspects of intimate relationships and will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in family studies psychology and other social sciences Moreover counselors clinicians and therapists working on conflict violence abuse maladjustment depression deterioration dissolution reconstruction and enrichment of marital and non marital intimate relationships will find this text valuable for their practice
