Remember This! Angela Cavender Wilson, Eli Taylor, 2005-01-01 Situating Dakota language and oral tradition within the framework of decolonization Remember This Dakota Decolonization and the Eli Taylor Narratives makes a radical departure from other works in Indigenous history because it relies solely on Indigenous oral tradition for its primary sources and privileges Dakota language in the text Waziyatawin Angela Wilson both a historian and a member of the Dakota Nation demonstrates the value of oral history in this bilingual presentation and skillful analysis of the stories told by the Dakota elder Eli Taylor 1908 99 Taylor lived on the Sioux Valley Reserve in Manitoba Canada and was adopted into Wilson's family in 1988 He agreed to tell her his story and to share his accounts of the origins history and life ways of the Dakotas In these pages he tells of Dakota history the United States Dakota Conflict of 1862 Dakota values and the mysterious powers of the world Wilson gracefully contextualizes and complements Taylor's stories with a careful analysis and distillation of the narratives Additionally she provides an overview of Dakota history and a substantial critique of the use of oral accounts by mainstream historians By placing Dakota oral tradition within the academic discipline of history this powerful book illuminates the essential connections among Dakota language history and contemporary identity Waziyatawin Angela Wilson is an assistant professor of American Indian history at Arizona State University She is a coeditor of Indigenizing the Academy Transforming Scholarship and Empowering Communities Wahpetunwin Carolyn Schommer is a well known Dakota language speaker and teacher who taught for more than two decades in the Dakota language program at the University of Minnesota She has co produced an extensive array of Dakota language curriculum materials and has served as a consultant on numerous language projects A Pedagogy of Kindness Catherine J.
