Remembering Babylon A Novel Vintage International:

Remembering Babylon David Malouf, 1994-10-04 Winner of the IMPAC Award and Booker Prize nominee In this rich and compelling novel written in language of astonishing poise and resonance one of Australia's greatest living writers gives an immensely powerful vision of human differences and eternal divisions In the mid 1840s a thirteen year old British cabin boy Gemmy Fairley is cast ashore in the far north of Australia and taken in by aborigines Sixteen years later he moves back into the world of Europeans among hopeful yet terrified settlers who are staking out their small patch of home in an alien place To them Gemmy stands as a different kind of challenge he is a force that at once fascinates and repels His own identity in this new world is as unsettling to him as the knowledge he brings to others of the savage the aboriginal Breathtaking To read this remarkable book is to remember Babylon well whether you think you've been there or not The New York Times Book Review David Malouf Don Randall, 2013-07-19 Don Randall's comprehensive study situates Malouf within the field of contemporary international and postcolonial writing but without losing sight of the author's affiliation with Australian contexts The book presents an original reading of Malouf finding the unity of his work in the continuity of his ethical concerns for Malouf human lives find their value in transformations specifically in instances of self overcoming that encounters with difference or otherness provoke However the book is fully aware of and informed by the quite ample body of criticism on Malouf and thus provides readers with a broad based understanding of how Malouf's works have been received and assessed It is an effective companion volume for studies in postcolonial or Australian literature for any study project in which Malouf figures prominently The San Francisco Review, 1996 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The Vintage Book of War Fiction Sebastian Faulks, Jorg Hensgen, 2007-12-18 In this powerful anthology Sebastian Faulks author of the international bestseller Birdsong and J rg Hensgen have put together some of the finest fictional writing about war in the 20th century Whether reporting with sober clarity or raw despair the assembled novelists each found a way to transcend the facts of death and metal tanks and blood Many of the writers are concerned with battle but others dwell on moments of calm love and friendship From revolutionary Russia to Republican Spain from the trenches of the Western Front to the skies over

Korea and the jungles of Vietnam this is a book filled with heroism and horror savagery and compassion and lightning flashes of anarchic humor From the Trade Paperback edition International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond,2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels The Language of Postcolonial Literatures Ismail S. Talib,2002 Exploring literatures from a range of countries this book provides a comprehensive introduction to some of the central features of language in a wide variety of postcolonial texts The Publishers Weekly ,1993 Horizon Barry Lopez,2019-03-19 ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR THE NEW YORK TIMES NPR THE GUARDIAN From pole to pole and across decades of lived experience National Book Award winning author Barry Lopez delivers his most far ranging yet personal work to date Horizon moves indelibly immersively through the author s travels to six regions of the world from Western Oregon to the High Arctic from the Gal pagos to the Kenyan desert from Botany Bay in Australia to finally unforgettably the ice shelves of Antarctica Along the way Lopez probes the long history of humanity s thirst for exploration including the prehistoric peoples who trekked across Skraeling Island in northern Canada the colonialists who plundered Central Africa an enlightenment era Englishman who sailed the Pacific a Native American emissary who found his way into isolationist Japan and today s ecotourists in the tropics And always throughout his journeys to some of the hottest coldest and most desolate places on the globe Lopez searches for meaning and purpose in a broken world
