Remembering Childhood In The Middle East Memoirs From A Century Of Change:

Remembering Childhood in the Middle East Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, 2002-11-01 Elizabeth Warnock Fernea a well known writer of books and documentary films about women and the family in the Middle East has collected stories of childhoods spent in Egypt Iran Iraq Israel Jordan Kuwait Lebanon Morocco Palestine Saudi Arabia Sudan Syria Tunisia and Turkey The accounts span the entire twentieth century a full range of ethnicities and religions and the social spectrum from aristocracy to peasantry They are grouped by eras for which Fernea provides a concise historical sketch and include a brief biography of each contributor The introduction by anthropologist Robert A Fernea sets the memoirs in the larger context of Middle Eastern life and culture Remembering Childhood in the Middle East Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, 2010-01-01

Growing up is a universal experience but the particularities of homeland culture ethnicity religion family and so on make every childhood unique To give Western readers insight into what growing up in the Middle East was like in the twentieth century this book gathers thirty six original memoirs written by Middle Eastern men and women about their own childhoods Elizabeth Warnock Fernea a well known writer of books and documentary films about women and the family in the Middle East has collected stories of childhoods spent in Egypt Iran Iraq Israel Jordan Kuwait Lebanon Morocco Palestine Saudi Arabia Sudan Syria Tunisia and Turkey The accounts span the entire twentieth century a full range of ethnicities and religions and the social spectrum from aristocracy to peasantry They are grouped by eras for which Fernea provides a concise historical sketch and include a brief biography of each contributor The introduction by anthropologist Robert A Fernea sets the memoirs in the larger context of Middle Eastern life and culture As a collection the memoirs offer an unprecedented opportunity to look at the same period in history in the same region of the world from a variety of very different remembered experiences At times dramatic humorous or tragic and always deeply felt the memoirs document the diversity and richness of people s lives in the modern Middle East Postcolonial Memoir in the Middle East Norbert Bugeja, 2012-11-27 This book reconsiders the notion of liminality in postcolonial critical discourse today By visiting Mashriqi writers of memoir Bugeja offers a unique intervention in the understanding of in between and threshold states in present day postcolonialist thought His analysis situates liminal space as a fraught form of consciousness that mediates between conditions of historical contingency and the memorializing present Within the present Mashriqi memoir form liminal spaces may be read as articulations of representational spaces narrative spaces that based as they are within the histories of local communities are nonetheless redolent with memorial and imaginary elements Liminal consciousness today Bugeja argues is a direct consequence of the impact of volatile present day memories on the re conception of the open wounds of history Incisive readings of life writings by Mourid Barghouti Amin Maalouf Orhan Pamuk Amos Oz and Wadad Makdisi Cortas demonstrate the double edged representational chasm that opens up when present acts of memorializing are brought to bear upon the elusive histories of the early twentieth century Mashriq Sifting through the wide ranging theoretical literature on liminality and challenging received views of the concept this book proposes a nuanced materialist and original rethinking of the liminal as a more vigilant outlook onto the political literary and historical predicaments of the contemporary Middle East

A Concise History of the Middle East Ibrahim Al-Marashi, Arthur Goldschmidt Jr., 2018-09-03 A Concise History of the Middle East provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of this turbulent region Spanning from pre Islam to the present day it explores the evolution of Islamic institutions and culture the influence of the West modernization efforts in the Middle East the struggle of various peoples for political independence the Arab Israel conflict the reassertion of Islamic values and power the issues surrounding the Palestinian Question and the Middle East post 9 11 and post Arab uprisings The twelfth edition has been fully revised to reflect the most recent events in and concerns of the region including the presence of ISIS and other non state actors the civil wars in Syria and Yemen and the refugee crisis New parts and part timelines will help students grasp and contextualize the long and complicated history of the region With updated biographical sketches and glossary and a new concluding chapter this book remains the quintessential text for students of Middle East history

The War That Made the Middle East Mustafa Aksakal, 2026-01-13 A new history that tells the story of how European imperial ambitions destroyed the Ottoman Empire during the Great War and created a divided and unstable Middle East The Ottoman Empire's collapse at the end of the First World War is often treated as a foregone conclusion It was only a matter of time the story goes before the so called Sick Man of Europe succumbed to its ailments incompetent management nationalism and ethnic and religious conflict In The War That Made the Middle East Mustafa Aksakal overturns this conventional narrative He describes how European imperial ambitions and the Ottoman commitment to saving its empire at any cost including the destruction of the Armenian community and the deaths of more than a million Ottoman troops and other civilians led to the empire's violent partition and created a politically unstable Middle East The War That Made the Middle East shows that until 1914 the Ottoman Empire was a viable multiethnic multireligious state and that relations between the Arabs Jews Muslims and Christians of Palestine were relatively stable When war broke out the Ottoman government sought an alliance with the Entente but was rejected because of British and French designs on the Eastern Mediterranean After the Ottomans entered the fight on the side of Germany and were defeated Britain and France seized Ottoman lands and new national elites in former Ottoman territories claimed their own states The region was renamed the Middle East erasing a robust and modernizing 600 year old empire A sweeping narrative of war great power politics and ordinary people caught up in the devastation The War That Made the Middle East offers new insights about the Great War and its profound and lasting consequences Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life
