Macdonald,2020-03-20 Scotland s Gift Golf is a masterpiece of early golf literature written by the Father of American Golf Course Architecture C B Macdonald Considered by historians to be the most important book ever written on early American golf this book details the birth of golf in the United States in the late nineteenth century and the formation of the U S G A in 1894 In addition to a detailed summary of the characteristics of an ideal golf course this guide provides rare insight into the methods and philosophies that Macdonald used to design some of the world s most renowned courses including the National Golf Links of America Mid Ocean Club Lido and Yale Golf Club It also includes personal anecdotes and correspondence describing the development of the rules of golf as well as the evolution of the modern golf ball and golf club Written in 1928 this book features 56 black and white photographs from the author s personal collection including rare photos of Bobby Jones Young Tom Morris and Francis Ouimet Also included is an appendix which highlights the oldest surviving rules of golf from 1754 as well as the amended version from 1858 Storying Later Life Gary Kenyon,Ernst Bohlmeijer,William L. Randall,2010-12-20 In its brief but vigorous history gerontology has spawned a broadening range of specializations One of the newest of such specializations is narrative gerontology so named for its emphasis on the biographical or inside dimensions of the experience of aging Telling stories about our world our relationships and ourselves is fundamental to how we make meaning Everything from our history to our religion and our memories to our emotions is linked to the tales we tell ourselves and others about where we have come from and where we are going They are central to who we are The biographical side of human life is every bit as critical to fathom as the biological side if we seek a more balanced positive and optimistic perspective on what aging is about if we would honor the dignity and complexity the humanity and uniqueness of the lives of older persons no matter what their health or economic standing In this respect a narrative approach is particularly suited to the exploration of such topics as meaning spirituality and wisdom and the connections they share This volume reflects a selection of new directions and insights and constitutes a general broadening and deepening of narrative gerontology exploring its implications for theory and research in the field of aging and for the quality of life of older adults themselves Such deepening indicates a greater refinement of thought method and intervention The evolution of narrative gerontology is also evidenced by a significant increase in the number of faculty and graduate students engaged in research in this area as well as by increasing collaboration among researchers practitioners and administrators in applying narrative insights to contexts such as long term care indeed healthcare in general These initiatives have given rise to the phrase narrative care as core care Reminiscences of the Impressionist Painters George Moore,1906 Reminiscences of Manchester, and Some of Its Local Surroundings from the Year 1840

Hayes,1905 Collections and Recollections George William Erskine Russell,1898 John Cruickshank, a memoir Joseph Ogilvie,1896 International Perspectives on Reminiscence, Life Review and Life Story Work Faith Gibson,2018-11-21 This book collates the latest research developments and evidence base for reminiscence life review and life story work in a single volume Charting the wide applications for narrative therapeutic methods the book emphasises the effectiveness of these approaches with varied people from different cultural backgrounds Collections & Recollections George William Erskine Russell,1904 The Human Quest for Meaning Paul T. Zone concerns itself with important aspects of learning that are not always prominent in government policy and legislation. In particular, it argues that challenge is an essential element of true learning without which there can be no progress. It brings together supportive materials aimed at encouraging teachers to reflect on their present practice, take sensible risks with their teaching, and understand the importance of enjoyment and engagement for both teachers and pupils. Importantly, the book is fully up to date with the new Ofsted Education Inspection Framework and current thinking around positive pupil mental health. In the Zone is a concise and accessible book focused on children's learning and how, as a teacher, we can maximise this both at school and beyond. It is hard to strike the right balance, and the author helps with this by offering questions or tasks at the end of each chapter, providing structured reflection and prompts to relate the content to personal practice and experience. Furthermore, the author's use of a wide range of research opinions and visual aids alongside real-life examples was thought provoking. Therefore, the book is ideal as a point of reference if you want to try something new or want to be reminded of personal key motivators for becoming a teacher. Remembering British Television Kristyn Gorton, Joanne Garde-Hansen, 2019-03-21. This original book asks how, in an age of convergence when television no longer means a box in the corner of the living room that we sit and watch together, do we remember television of the past? How do we gather and archive our memories? Kristyn Gordon and Joanne Garde-Hansen explore these questions through first-person interviews with TV producers, curators, and archivists, and case studies of popular television series and fan communities such as Cold Feet and Doctor Who. Their discussion takes in museum exhibitions, popular television nostalgia programming, and vintage TV websites.

Reminiscences of the Old Runtsfield Links Golf Club, 1866-1874 (Classic Reprint) Thomas S. Aitchison, 2018-02-02. Excerpt from Reminiscences of the Old Runtsfield Links Golf Club 1866-1874. In conclusion, I have to thank that eminent body of Christians known as the Monks of St Giles for their permission, courteously expressed through Father Peerie, to make use of the poems Play on Paxton and Oro, which have already appeared in their collections. I have also to thank Mr R K Inches for the use of the sketch of the Old Club house at Bruntsfield Links, which has been reproduced as an illustration, and the Rev Mr Kerr for the loan of one or two of the early numbers of the Golfers' About.
