Thompson,2015-02-10 the river one behind another forming a corral with the open side facing the river in the form of a half wheel When the wagons had all been crossed the loose stock was swum over into the opening There was no confusion but everything proceeded with almost military precision A committee had been appointed to keep tally on the number of wagons crossed on the boats The traders were then paid 4 for each and every wagon Still they fumed and threatened The faces of the more timid blanched and a few women were in tears I beheld the whole proceedings with childish wonder But the circumstances of that 4th of July and the execution of the murderer were burned into my brain with letters of fire never to be effaced while memory holds her sway Reminiscences of Pioneer Life Robert Ray Latta,1912
