Render Unto Caesar The Religious Sphere In World Politics:

Render Unto Caesar Sabrina P. Ramet, Donald W. Treadgold, 1995 From the introduction For many people it may come as a surprise to learn that the history of ecological politics has not always been inherently and necessarily progressive and benign In fact ecological ideas have a history of being distorted and placed in the service of highly regressive ends even of fascism itself This theme is discussed in the two essays presented here Fascist Ideology The Green Wing of the Nazi Party and its Historical Antecedents and Ecology and the Modernization of Fascism in the German Ultra Right Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Three Yugoslavias Sabrina P. Ramet, 2006-06-06 Based on extensive archival research and fieldwork and the culmination of more than two decades of study The Three Yugoslavias is a major contribution to an understanding of Yugoslavia and its successor states

Understanding the War in Kosovo Florian Bieber, Zidas Daskalovski, 2004-08-02 The war in Kosovo has been a defining moment in post Cold War Europe Kosovo has great importance beyond the Balkans as the most ambitious attempt of the international community to prevent internal conflicts and rebuild a society destroyed by war and ethnic cleansing As the danger of ethnic conflict prevails in the region and elsewhere around the world the experience of Kosovo offers important lessons This is a comprehensive survey of developments in Kosovo leading up to during and after the war in 1999 providing additionally the international and regional framework to the conflict It examines the underlying causes of the war the attempts by the international community to intervene and the war itself in spring 1999 It critically examines the international administration in Kosovo since June 1999 and contextualizes it within the relations of Kosovo to its neighbours and as part of the larger European strategy in Southeastern Europe with the stability pact It does not seek to promote one interpretation of the conflict and its aftermath but brings together a range of intellectual arguments from some sixteen researchers from the Balkans the rest of Europe and North America

The End That Does Cathy Gutierrez, Hillel Schwartz, 2014-12-18 Millennial movements have had a significant impact on history and lie behind many artistic and scientific views of the world The End that Does tracks the interplay of the arts sciences and millennial imagination across 3000 years The volume presents essays ranging across the study of ancient ritualistic sacrifice utopian technology and the American millennial dream science fiction and the apocalypse of the tabloids The End that Does will be invaluable to any student or scholar interested in the history of millennialism

Shamanism, Discourse, Modernity Thomas Karl Alberts, 2016-03-03 Shamanism Discourse Modernity considers indigenous peoples struggles for human rights anxieties about anthropocentric mastery of nature neoliberal statecraft and entrepreneurialism of the self The book focuses on four domains shamanism indigenism environmentalism and neoliberalism in terms of interrelated historical processes and overlapping discourses In doing so it engages with shamanism s manifold meanings in a world increasingly sensitive to indigenous peoples practices of territoriality increasingly concerned about humans integral relationship with natural environments and increasingly encouraged and coerced to adjust self conduct to comport with and augment government conduct The Catholic Church in Polish History Sabrina P. Ramet, 2017-06-22 The book chronicles the evolution of the church's political power throughout Poland's unique history Beginning in the tenth century the study first details how Catholicism overcame early challenges in Poland from converting the early polytheists to pushing back the Protestant Reformation half a millennium later It continues into the dawn of the modern age including the division of Poland between Prussia Russia and Austria between 1772 and 1795 the interwar years the National Socialist occupation of World War Two and the communist and post war communist eras during which The Church only half correctly presented itself as a steadfast protector of Poles with clergy members who either stood up to foreign authorities or collaborated with those same Nazi and Communist leaders This study ends with a consideration of how the Church has taken advantage of the fall of communism to push its own social agenda at times against the wishes of most Poles Balkan Babel Sabrina Petra Ramet, 2018-02-19 The fourth edition of this critically acclaimed work includes a new chapter a new epilogue and revisions throughout the book Sabrina Ramet a veteran observer of the Yugoslav scene traces the steady deterioration of Yugoslavia's political and social fabric in the years since 1980 arguing that while the federal system and multiethnic fabric laid down fault lines the final crisis was sown in the failure to resolve the legitimacy question triggered by economic deterioration and pushed forward toward war by Serbian politicians bent on power either within a centralized Yugoslavia or within an ethnically cleansed Greater Serbia With her detailed knowledge of the area and extensive fieldwork Ramet paints a strikingly original picture of Yugoslavia's demise and the emergence of the Yugoslav successor states Local Organizations and Urban Governance in East and Southeast Asia Benjamin L. Read, Robert Pekkanen, 2009-06-02 This edited collection brings together enterprising pieces of new research on the many forms of organization in East and Southeast Asia that are sponsored or mandated by government but engage widespread participation at the grassroots level Straddling the state-society divide these organizations play important roles in society and politics yet remain only dimly understood This book shines a spotlight on this phenomenon which speaks to fundamental questions about how such societies choose to organize themselves how institutions of local governance change over time and how individuals respond to and make use of the power of the state The contributors investigate organizations ranging from volunteer-based organizations that partner with government in providing services for homeless children to state-managed networks of neighborhood or village-level associations that perform representative as well as administrative functions and seeks to answer a number of questions When do the vertical top-down imperatives of the state stifle horizontal solidarities and when might the two work in harmony Are useful social and administrative purposes served by this type of fusion Does it amplify or merely muffle citizens' voices What does it tell us about existing accounts of community social capital synergy complementarity subsidiarity and related concepts Representing seven countries China Japan Vietnam Thailand Indonesia Taiwan and Singapore this volume will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and academics in Asian studies political science sociology anthropology development history nonprofit studies A Cultural History of Women in the Middle Ages Kim M. Phillips, 2015-04-02 The medieval era has been described as the Age of Chivalry and the Age of Faith but also as the Dark Ages Medieval women have often been viewed as subject to a punishing misogyny which limited their legal rights and economic activities but some scholars have claimed they enjoyed a rough and ready equality with men The contrasting figures of Eve and the Virgin Mary loom over historians interpretations of the period 1000 1500 Yet a wealth of recent historiography goes behind these conventional motifs showing how medieval women s lives were shaped by status age life stage geography and religion as well as by gender A Cultural History of Women in the Middle Ages presents essays on medieval women s life cycle bodies and sexuality religion and popular beliefs medicine and disease public and private realms education and work power and artistic representation to illustrate the diversity of medieval women s lives and constructions of femininity Church, State, and Democracy in Expanding Europe Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2011-09-22 Lavinia Stan and Lucian Turcescu examine the relationship between religion and politics in ten former communist Eastern European countries showing church state relations in the new EU member states through study of political representation for church leaders governmental subsidies registration of religions by the state and religious instruction in public schools The Oxford Handbook of Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Judith M. Bennett, Ruth Mazo Karras, 2013-08-22 The Oxford Handbook of Women and Gender in Medieval Europe provides a comprehensive overview of the gender rules encountered in Europe in the period between approximately 500 and 1500 C E The essays collected in this volume speak to interpretative challenges common to all fields of women s and gender history that is how best to uncover the experiences of ordinary people from archives formed mainly by and about elite males and how to combine social histories of lived experiences with cultural histories of gendered discourses and identities The collection focuses on Western Europe in the Middle Ages but offers some consideration of medieval Islam and Byzantium The Handbook is structured into seven sections Christian Jewish and Muslim thought law in theory and practice domestic life and material culture labour land and economy bodies and sexualities gender and holiness and the interplay of continuity and change throughout the medieval period It contains material from some of the foremost scholars in this field and it not only serves as the major reference text in medieval and gender studies but also provides an agenda for future new research Medieval Religion Constance H. Berman, 2005 Constance Hoffman Berman presents an indispensable collection of the most influential and revisionist work to be done on religion in the Middle Ages in the last two decades Bringing together an authoritative list of scholars from around the world this book is a comprehensive compilation of the most important work in this field Medieval Religion provides a valuable service for all those who study the Middle Ages church history or religion From Texts to Bodies Jacqueline Murray, 2025-04-24 From Texts to Bodies Sexes Genders and Sexualities in Premodern Europe reflects the historiographical changes to the study of women gender and sexuality in premodern Europe across the 1990s into the 2010s Developing from post Baby Boom interest in marriage and the family subsequently inspired by feminist theory and cultural studies scholars turned their gaze to the wider field of sex and gender Using an interdisciplinary methodology and a broad cross section of medieval primary sources these articles trace the evolution of medieval studies from the family through women and gender to focus on sex and sexuality concluding with critical analyses of men masculinity and male embodiment Part I focuses on medieval women within the context of marriage family and the church and reveals new approaches to recovering women s experiences The articles sit at the transition point between recuperative women s history and critical gender history Part II uses an interdisciplinary lens to examine the body sex and sexuality and the intersections of sex sexualities and genders The innovative articles in Part III comprise the foundations for the critical analysis of premodern men masculinity embodiment and male sexuality Together these studies demonstrate the expansion of research from the examination of theoretical texts to the analysis of bodies as lived experience This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of premodern marriage genders sexualities and embodiment as well as those interested in the social and religious contexts of premodern society Clear and accessible this volume also provides an introduction and overview for readers with a broad interest in the Middle Ages

Christian Churches in Dahomey-Benin Patrick Claffey, 2007 The Republic of Benin struggles to find its way into socio political modernity The Christian churches have played various roles in this struggle This book is an account of both the historical difficulties of state formation and the role the Churches have played in this process

Uncertain Path Rudi Rizman, Rudolf Martin Rizman, 2006 In this case study of the politics of transition in Eastern Europe Rudolf Martin Rizman provides a careful detailed sociological explanation and narrative on the emergence of independent statehood and democracy in Slovenia In his focus on the transition from an authoritarian to a democratic regime Rizman analyzes social processes and political issues in the context of the Third Wave of democratization identifying zones of certainty and uncertainty Challenging many generally accepted ideas about small states and their transitions to democracy this book places Slovenia s pattern of democratization in the wider regional context of eastern and central European post communist transitions

Nobody's People Anastasia Piliavsky, 2020-11-24 What if we could imagine hierarchy not as a social ill but as a source of social hope Taking us into a caste of thieves in northern India Nobody s People depicts hierarchy as a normative idiom through which people imagine better lives and pursue social ambitions Failing to find a place inside hierarchic relations the book s heroes are nobody s people perceived as worthless disposable and so open to being murdered with no regret or remorse Following their journey between death and hope we learn to perceive vertical non equal relations as a social good not only in rural Rajasthan but also in much of the world including settings stridently committed to equality Challenging egalitarian normative commitments Anastasia Piliavsky asks scholars across the disciplines to recognize hierarchy as a major intellectual resource

A Companion to Hrotsvit of Gandersheim (fl. 960) Phyllis R. Brown, Stephen L. Wailes, 2012-10-12 Hrotsvit wrote stories plays and histories during the reign of Emperor Otto the Great 962-973 12 original essays survey her work showing historical roots and contexts Christian values and a surprisingly modern grappling with questions of identity and female self realization The Mysteries of Artemis of Ephesos Guy MacLean Rogers,2012-11-27 Artemis of Ephesos was one of the most widely worshiped deities of the Graeco Roman World Her temple the Artemision was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world and for more than half a millennium people flocked to Ephesos to learn the great secret of the mysteries and sacrifices that were celebrated every year on her birthday In this work Guy MacLean Rogers sets out the evidence for the celebration of Artemis s mysteries against the background of the remarkable urban development of the city during the Roman Empire and then proposes an entirely new theory about the great secret that was revealed to initiates into Artemis s mysteries The revelation of that secret helps to explain not only the success of Artemis s cult and polytheism itself but more surprisingly the demise of both and the success of Christianity Contrary to many anthropological and scientific theories the history of polytheism including the celebration of Artemis s mysteries is best understood as a Darwinian tale of adaptation competition and change

Colonial Modernity in Korea Gi-Wook Shin,Michael Robinson,2020-03-23 The twelve chapters in this volume seek to overcome the nationalist paradigm of Japanese repression and exploitation versus Korean resistance that has dominated the study of Korea s colonial period 1910 1945 by adopting a more inclusive pluralistic approach that stresses the complex relations among colonialism modernity and nationalism By addressing such diverse subjects as the colonial legal system radio telecommunications the rural economy and industrialization and the formation of industrial labor one group of essays analyzes how various aspects of modernity emerged in the colonial context and how they were mobilized by the Japanese for colonial domination with often unexpected results A second group examines the development of various forms of identity from nation to gender to class particularly how aspects of colonial modernity facilitated their formation through negotiation contestation and redefinition A World History of Christianity Adrian Hastings,2000-07-05 This superb volume provides the first genuinely global one volume history of the rise and development of the Christian faith An international team of specialists takes seriously the geographical diversity of the Christian story discussing the impact of Christianity not only in the West but also in Latin America Africa India the Orient and Australasia
