Grounding God Arianne Conty,2023-12-01 Now that we have entered the Anthropocene the geological age in which humans have altered the natural world to such an extent that nature and culture can no longer be separated the modern dichotomies of mind versus body and culture versus nature have become implausible and need to be replaced In Grounding God Arianne Conty argues that it is in the field of religion where we can find a new ontology better suited for the Anthropocene Conty calls this new religious ontology the grounding of the sacred in that it seeks to deconstruct the binaries of modernity and provide in their place a revalorization of the immanent earth and the more than human beings that inhabit it Such a grounding of the sacred is a potent means to overcome the exploitation and desecration of the earth and its nonhuman beings and to provide in its stead an inclusive cosmopolitics that extends mind into matter and culture into nature Tracing such a grounding in the Christian Buddhist neopagan and animist traditions Conty seeks to elaborate an interdisciplinary ecosophy one that uses philosophy anthropology and religious studies to provide new values for the present age

Memory and Emotion James L. McGaugh,2003 Memories come in many different forms and vary substantially in strength some such as where you put your car keys can be brief while others remain in the mind forever James McGaugh a leading neurobiologist provides an accessible and thought provoking look at how we remember and why we forget Beginning with the first scientific studies of learning and ending with the latest cutting edge research he explores how memories are made and preserved why some experiences fade and disappear with time how stress hormones effect the consolidation of memory whether drugs would improve our ability to learn and what studies of extraordinary memories and disorders tell us about the workings of the brain systems involved in memory formation

Metaphors in the History of Psychology David E. Leary,1994-07-29 Arguing that psychologists and their predecessors have invariably relied on metaphors in articulation the contributors to this volume offer a new key to understanding a critically important area of human knowledge by specifying the major metaphors River Bed Andrea L. Weiser, 2011-02-22 Nature based poetry with heart These fine lyric poems venture into the earth's wild places while exploring the depths of the poet's heart Family love loss ritual and the mysteries of the natural world come alive in these poems The poet engages them fearlessly with an open heart and keen and generous sensibility Readers will recognize River Bed as our shared world where the poems flow as clear fresh and true as mountain snowmelt Tim McNulty poet essayist and author of Olympic National Park A Natural History amazon.com

Sensory Environmental Relationships: Between Memories of the Past and Imaginings of the Future Blaž Bajič, Ana Svetel, 2023-09-26 Sensory environmental relationships understood as dynamic embodied and emplaced affective sensory perceptions in and of the environment invite us to remember the past infuse our experiences of the present and entice us to imagine the future Ethnographically specific socially and culturally nuanced approaches to environmental relationships require considerable conceptual and practical flexibility and inventiveness Reflecting this commitment Sensory Environmental Relationships aims to offer a new anthropological understanding of how in our individual and collective lives senses places and temporalities intersect While anthropologists have been studying the sensory environmental relationships in connection to people's pasts and presents futures remain conspicuously absent By bringing different timeframes into the foreground of the analysis this volume contributes to filling in the gap in our understanding of the human experience The volume s ethnographically based contributions address the questions of how embodied and emplaced practices of sensing while moving or staying in place in diverse environments engender inform and affect the processes of remembering and forgetting the past experiencing the present and imagining the future Drawing on the fields of environmental anthropology sensory studies studies of movement and mobility memory studies and other related sub disciplines as well as diverse epistemologically and methodologically experimental approaches the volume explores the ways in which sensory environmental relationships touch upon our pasts presents and futures

Mycelial Memories Kara Villa, 2024-11-21 In 2145 Earth is a dichotomy gleaming skyscrapers pierce the smog choked sky while ecological rot festers below Dr Lisa Silva a mycologist who finds solace in the hushed reverence of ancient forests stumbles upon a hidden grove of bioluminescent mushrooms pulsating with an ethereal glow These fungi aren t simply organisms they re living archives their interconnected mycelial network a repository of Earth s memories Through a neural interface Lisa merges with this network experiencing the planet s history firsthand the reign of dinosaurs humanity s nascent steps civilizations rising and falling a breathtaking panorama whispered by the silent fungal kingdom She discovers the network is not merely a recorder it s a sentient guardian acutely aware of the looming ecological apocalypse fueled by human avarice BioGenesis Corp a pharmaceutical behemoth led by the ruthlessly ambitious Angela Henderson excavates ancient mushroom colonies driven by insatiable greed Lisa recognizes this isn t just a disaster it s a man made cataclysm Her unlikely ally emerges in Eric Gray a disillusioned BioGenesis scientist burdened by his complicity in the corporation s destructive practices Together they embark on a perilous quest to expose BioGenesis their journey taking them from primeval forests to sterile corporate boardrooms They must awaken a world seduced by technological promises a society blind to the interconnectedness of life deaf to the wisdom of the fungal realm Lisa s connection with the network deepens transforming her into a fierce protector a voice for the voiceless fungal kingdom She sees the intricate dance of nutrients the silent conversations between trees the delicate equilibrium threatened by BioGenesis Meanwhile Angela remains undeterred viewing the network not as a planetary savior but as an untapped goldmine Lisa and Eric uncover the network s ability to influence biological processes discovering encoded instructions for a symbiotic relationship between fungi and plants that can draw down atmospheric carbon This becomes their beacon of hope a weapon against BioGenesis s devastation But their path is fraught with peril BioGenesis unleashes its formidable security apparatus and Lisa and Eric must evade surveillance navigate treacherous terrain and outwit their pursuers They find solace and wisdom in communities living in harmony with fungal networks indigenous peoples who have long understood the interconnectedness of life Angela s greed triggers a violent response from the fungal network mutated species proliferating threatening both BioGenesis and humanity Lisa must now not only stop BioGenesis but also mitigate the unintended consequences of the network s defense Through her deepening connection she learns to communicate with the network discovering the ability to influence it but this raises a profound ethical dilemma does she have the right to manipulate a planetary consciousness The climax arrives as Lisa and Eric infiltrate BioGenesis headquarters confronting Angela in a battle of ideologies corporate greed versus ecological harmony Lisa unleashes the network's stored evidence of BioGenesis's crimes sparking global outrage and igniting protests The world awakens to the vital role of the fungal kingdom BioGenesis collapses and the world begins the long process of ecological restoration guided by the wisdom of the mycelial network Lisa forever changed dedicates her life to fostering symbiotic coexistence between humans and fungi while Eric becomes a passionate advocate for environmental protection The mycelial memories once on the brink of extinction become a source of guidance a testament to the profound interconnectedness of all life

Icarus, 1987      Topographies of Memories Anita Bakshi, 2017-11-09 This book explores new approaches towards developing memorial and heritage sites moving beyond the critique of existing practices that have been the traditional focus of studies of commemoration Offering understandings of the effects of conflict on memories of place as manifested in everyday lives and official histories it explores the formation of urban identities and constructed images of the city Topographies of Memories suggests interdisciplinary approaches for creating commemorative sites with shared stakes The first part of the book focuses on memory dynamics the second on Nicosia the divided capital of Cyprus and the third on physical and material world interventions Design practices and modes of engagement with places of memory are explored making connections between theoretical explorations of memory and forgetting and practical strategies for designers and practitioners

Affects, Interfaces, Events Bodil Marie Stavning Thomsen, Jette Kofoed, Jonas Fritsch, 2021-03-01 This book engages with how affective encounters are shaped and conditioned by interfacial events Together the chapters explore the implications of this on a micro perceptual and macro relational level through an experimental middling of approaches and examples While broadly departing from a Spinozist and Deleuzian theoretical foundation the book weaves together a compelling number of conceptual and empirical trajectories Always attuned to the implications modulations and tonalities arising in the readings through art journalism bodies an archives data and design Affects Interfaces Events allows for a truly transdisciplinary resonance driven by theory technology and practice
