Rivers of Delight Fola Omotunde, 2016-01-18 In both the Old and New Testaments the word water is used for salvation and eternal life which God offers mankind through faith in his Son. When Jesus engaged the woman by Jacob's well in a conversation He said to her: whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life. When the Samaritan woman caught the revelation of these words she became a delight flowing living water: the evidence of her encounter was the conversion of souls. We need an encounter with Jesus to fulfil our life purpose. God is spirit and we can only reach Him through the spirit. This prayer walk programme will help us attain new levels in our spiritual journey, understand the importance of hearing from God and develop inner strength to face difficult circumstances of life. Your commitment to this is an hour out door prayer walk for 40 days. The guide includes daily bible verses, declaration of faith, confessions and conversation starter with God. The Burn Fat Build Faith prayer walk series are compilations from the themed programmes delivered by Woman at Bethany Ministry

Tale of Three Rivers: Matthew Dickerson, 2018-09-01 Matthew Dickerson takes his readers from an Appalachian trout stream in western North Carolina where wild trout are reduced to sipping cigarette butts up through his home state of Vermont where development and the ski industry threaten the state's iconic pastoral riversides and finally into western Maine to a once dead river that has returned to life. The tale takes us not only to the three eponymous rivers but to other nearby streams and waters. Though neither an historical nor as scientific text the writing is informed by both and as readers are drawn through the tale they will grow in their own understanding of both stream ecology and the history of human habitation and consumption. The book is illustrated by original prints from Vermont artist Courtney Allenson
