The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1901 Contemporary Canadian Women's Fiction C. Howells, 2003-08-22 This book charts the significant changes in contemporary Canada's literary profile since the mid 1990s within a context of the new national rhetoric of multiculturalism By looking closely at a representative range of fictions in English by women from a variety of ethnocultural backgrounds Howells examines the complexities embedded within Canadian identity What does Refiguring Identities mean for these writers given their individual agendas and the multiple affiliation of any woman's identity construction All these writers are engaged in rewriting history across generation and Howells argues that woman's fiction negotiates new possibilities for cultural change introducing more heterogeneous narratives of identity in multi cultural Canada

The Settlers in Canada ... New Edition, with Illustrations by Gilbert and Dalziel Frederick Marryat, 1869

Writing with Intent Margaret Atwood, 2009-04-21 From one of the world's most passionately engaged and acclaimed literary citizens comes Writing with Intent the largest collection to date of Margaret Atwood's nonfiction ranging from 1983 to 2005 Composed of autobiographical essays cultural commentary book reviews and introductory pieces to great works of literature this is the award winning author's first book length nonfiction publication in twenty years Arranged chronologically these writings display the development of Atwood's worldview as the world around her changes Included are the Booker Prize winning author's reviews of books by John Updike Italo Calvino Toni Morrison and others as well as essays in which she remembers herself reading Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse at age nineteen and discusses the influence of George Orwell's 1984 on the writing of The Handmaid's Tale Atwood's New York Times Book Review piece that helped make Orhan Pamuk's Snow a bestseller can be found here as well as a look back on a family trip to Afghanistan just before the Soviet invasion and her Letter to America written after September 11 2001 The insightful and memorable pieces in this book serve as a testament to Atwood's career reminding readers why she is one of the most esteemed writers of our time The Prestige of Violence Sally Bachner, 2011 In The Prestige of Violence Sally Bachner argues that starting in the 1960s American fiction laid claim to the status of serious literature by placing violence at the heart of its mission and then insisting that this violence could not be represented Bachner demonstrates how many of the most influential novels of this period are united by the dramatic opposition they draw between a debased and untrustworthy conventional language on the one hand and a violence that appears to be prelinguistic and unquestionable on the other Genocide terrorism war torture slavery rape and murder are major themes yet the writers insist that such events are unspeakable Bachner takes issue with the claim made within trauma studies that history is the site of violent trauma inaccessible to ordinary representation Instead she argues both trauma studies and the fiction to which it responds institutionalize an inability to address violence Examining such works as Vladimir Nabokov's Pale Fire Thomas Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 Norman Mailer's Armies of the Night Margaret Atwood's

Surfacing and Philip Roth's The Plot Against America Bachner locates the postwar prestige of violence in the disjunction between the privileged security of wealthier Americans and the violence perpetrated by the United States abroad The literary investment in unspeakable and often immaterial violence emerges in Bachner's readings as a complex and ideologically varied literary solution to the political geography of violence in our time The Journal of Commonwealth Literature

British Books, 1903 Traces of Aging Marta Cerezo Moreno, Nieves Pascual Soler, 2016-05-15 This collection consists of eight essays that examine the way narratives determine our understanding of old age and condition how the experience is lived Contributors to this volume have based their analysis on the concept of narrative identity developed by Paul Ricoeur built upon the idea that fiction makes life and on his definition of trace as the mark of time By investigating the traces of aging imprinted in a series of literary and filmic works they dismantle the narrative of old age as decline and foreclosure to assemble one of transformation and growth Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi-layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen, Ashley Thomson, 2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles short stories letters and individual poetry Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations Secondary entries i.e. interviews scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories Atwood's Works Adaptations Quotations Interviews Scholarly Resources Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material a feature that will be welcomed by university public and school librarians Margaret Atwood A Reference Guide 1988 2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

Cultural Circulation Waldemar Zacharasiewicz, Christoph Irmscher, 2013 The present volume is based on an international colloquium convened in 2010 to which scholars from North America and Europe contributed papers dealing with the historical cultural and literary connections between Canada and the American South The essays on this broad but under researched topic are arranged in four sections reflecting the multiple ties and the cultural circulation between the two large North American regions They illuminate demographic facts and developments and their literary representations such as the enforced displacement of the 18th century Acadiens who later reassembled in Louisiana Cajun culture and the flight of thousands of fugitive African American slaves to the safe haven of Canada Special attention is focused on the intertextual links between Southern writers and their Canadian counterparts with William Faulkner and Eudora Welty especially providing inspiration for Canadian authors such as Alice Munro Jack Hodgins and Margaret Atwood
