Robert M. MacIver on Community, Society and Power Robert Morrison MacIver, 1970 On Community, Society, and Power Robert Morrison MacIver, 1970 Mission Strategy in the City Enoch Jinsik Kim, 2017-11-07 This book was written to suggest an appropriate mission strategy by identifying key issues that impact urban ethnicities through an urban socioanthropological lens This book is based on the author's sixteen years of living in China where he conducted missionary work in urban areas The book discusses the author's interactions with enclaves of ethnic minorities who had recently arrived in the city after migrating from rural areas The minorities' struggles to balance cultural assimilation and tradition preservation are highlighted throughout The book explains that similar phenomena occur within Korean American communities in Los Angeles as well Based on these observations the author states that immigrants in many cities face similar social issues and find similar resolutions to them Though there are many negative aspects to urban areas readers will see some positive features of cities that can contribute to effective evangelism The book highlights three main points 1 Ethnic urban dwellers evolve into many more diverse ways than commonly thought 2 Ethnic groups are actively choosing the future of their community types 3 Modern cities create many new communication channels interethnically and also across social strata within ethnicities Fifty Years in the Sociological Enterprise Charles Hunt Page, 1982 This is a memoir of a sociologist who explores the sociological enterprise especially in academia as well as many of its enterprisers Community of Faith Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, James D. Nichols, 1981 Culture and Civilization Irving Horowitz, 2018-02-06 Intellectual activity in the twentieth century took place largely under the banner of science and society As the new millennium develops it is becoming evident that science and society are not words that represent an unmitigated good nor for that matter do they exhaust what is new in the human condition Past writing on the theme of culture has emphasized the growth and expansion of human capabilities Recent use of the term civilization has placed great emphasis on the fall from grace of human beings The use of both terms is rapidly changing Culture and Civilization develops critical ideas intended to produce a positive intellectual climate one that is prepared to confront threats and alert us to the opportunities of the twenty first century It recognizes that the twenty first century presents people in all fields and of all faiths with shared challenges Culture and Civilization embraces the work of novelists journalists cultural figures technologists physical sciences historians and policy personnel who range beyond social science areas What they have in common is a view that civilization is under assault and that it represents a cause worth advancing and defending This publication does not embrace idiosyncratic visions of the clash of world civilizations or the end of Western civilization It does attempt to bring together immediate issues of the century that are substantially new and challenging We see that the essential polarity between democracy and autocracy has now taken on larger deeper dimensions

in a different political economic and ecological terrain the central issue of our day is now civilization versus barbarism The character of democratic culture is central to the global equation and the systemic challenge This publication is a sober response to such a challenge Political Science Quarterly Columbia University.
