Cultures, Ideologies, and the Dictionary Braj B. Kachru, Henry Kahane, 2013-03-01 A pioneering volume addressing issues related to cultures ideologies and the dictionary A cross cultural and cross linguistic study with focus on selected Western and non Western languages A number of in depth case studies illustrates the dominant role ideology and other types of bias play in the making of a dictionary The volume includes invited papers of 40 internationally recognized scholars Dictionnaire des proverbes anglais-français, français-anglais Françoise Bulman,1998 Initiative opportune que de pr senter 1800 proverbes dans les deux langues Int r t imm diat pour le lecteur qui aime les nuances et surtout int r t court terme pour le traducteur qui ne veut pas s y perdre Pr sentation th matique Le Robert & Collins super senior: Anglais-français ,1995 Pardon My French Allen Johnson,2015-10-27 To make a friend is a joy To make a friend in another country is a wonderment a small miracle Pardon My French follows the lives of an American couple who have embraced a daunting mission Not to be spectators in France but to be absorbed by France Amidst the minefields of linguistic faux pas the perplexities of French gestures the exquisite and often exotic cuisine and the splendor of Christmas on the Mediterranean see what it is like for an occasionally gruff American to be adopted into a new family Witness the hugging the teasing and the laughter that follows when nothing on earth could be more perfect Experience what it is like to fall in love with the French Follow the adventures of the author as he pits his rather staid and conventional driving skills against the French speed demons of Languedoc Step into his sneakers as he tests his basketball prowess against the young French bucks adorned with backward ball caps and over the knee Chicago Bulls game shorts Watch how he frolics in the Mediterranean Sea for the first time with a French topless companion Marvel as he sits in with a world class French jazz band Observe him overcome his shyness in talking to the beautiful nude model from his painting class in the studio atop the village police station Envision how he learns to dance the tango with his head upright his chest expanded and his strides befitting a newly adorned French god one with sensuality on his mind Dictionary Visions, Research and Practice Henrik Gottlieb,Jens Erik Mogensen,2007 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session An English-French Dictionary of Clipped Words Fabrice Antoine,2000 This dictionary deals with the little words which everyone uses every day without even noticing them and which are so liable to escape the grasp of a speaker of another language clipped words obtained by back clipping or apocope the dropping of one or more final syllables by front clipping or aphesis the dropping of one or more final syllables by the combination of these two processes and sometimes further transformed especially in slang by the addition of a new ending The aim is not of course merely to list all these words and say from which longer words they were obtained an attempt is made here to retrace the history of each of them its stylistic semantic and often morphological evolution to illustrate this with authentic and often pungent or humorous quotations and also to show how each can be translated into the other language Indeed this is an English French bilingual dictionary whose aim is to translate clipped words according to principles of historical and register fidelity which bilingual dictionaries do not ordinarily set for this type of headword Thus clipped words will be shown to have meaning precisely because they are clipped consequently this meaning must be preserved and conveyed in translation This dictionary thus aims at being different from traditional bilingual dictionaries dictionaries of slang and colloquialisms included in the structure and content of its articles in which much space is devoted to the lexicological data which inform the strictly lexicographical information. Special attention and care have been devoted to the system of cross references, the recording and presentation of derived forms, variants and compounds and to the presentation of slang or colloquial synonyms of the headwords. The body of the dictionary is preceded by a preface in which the editing principles and methods are outlined and an attempt is made at analyzing the corpus. Its historical, sociological and morphological aspects are reviewed together with the motivations of those that coin or use clippings. These motivations appear essential to the proper appraisal of this body of slang and colloquial words. This dictionary's intention is to pay homage to all the unknown people who have made the lexicon richer by playing with and on words with joyful humour, zest and gusto. It is hoped that all lovers of words will have the same pleasure exploring this dictionary as its author had writing it.

Professor Fabrice Antoine teaches English at the Université Charles de Gaulle Lille III, France. His research fields are bilingual lexicography, lexicology and translation; he has been a consulting editor for a dozen bilingual dictionaries, general as well as slang ones. He is especially interested in French and English slang and colloquialisms and co-edits ELEXTRA: Etudes sur le Lexique et la Traduction, a research centre at the University of Lille.

Robert. Collins Dictionnaire Français-Anglais, Anglais-Français Beryl T. Alkins, 1991 The Adam Smith Review Volume 7 Fonna Forman, 2013-11-07

Adam Smith's contribution to economics is well recognised but in recent years scholars have been exploring anew the multidisciplinary nature of his works. The Adam Smith Review is a refereed annual review that provides a unique forum for interdisciplinary debate on all aspects of Adam Smith's works, his place in history and the significance of his writings to the modern world. It is aimed at facilitating debate between scholars working across the humanities and social sciences, thus emulating the reach of the Enlightenment world which Smith helped to shape. The seventh volume of the series contains contributions from specialists across a range of disciplines including Christopher Berry, Maureen Harkin, Edith Kuiper, N B Leddy, Catriona Seth, Henry C Clarke, Deidre Dawson, Dionysios Drosos, Ioannis A Tassopoulos, Jeremy Jennings, Ryan Patrick Hanley, Fotini Vaki, Spiros Tegos, Nicholas J Theocarakis, Chandran Kukathas, Donald Winch, Fonna Forman, Craig Smith, Nicholas Phillipson, Chad Flanders, Emily Nacol, Andrea Radasanu, Rachel Zuckert, Michael L Fraser, Ian S Ross, Daniel B Klein, Douglas J Den Uyl, James A Harris, Geoffrey Kellow, Paul Dumouchel, Jan Horst, Kepler, Paul Oslington, Adrian Walsh, Spencer J Pack and Dennis C Rasmussen. How Does it Feel? Point of View in Translation Charlotte Bosseaux, 2007-01-01

Narratology is concerned with the study of narratives but surprisingly it does not usually distinguish between original and translated texts. This lack of distinction is regrettable. In recent years the visibility of translations and translators has become a widely discussed topic in Translation Studies yet the issue of translating a novel's point of view has remained relatively unexplored. It seems crucial to ask how far a translator's choices affect the novel's point of view and whether characters or narrators come across similarly in originals and translations. This book addresses exactly these questions. It proposes a method by which it becomes possible to investigate how the point of view of a work of fiction is created in an original and adapted in translation. It shows that there are potential problems involved in the translation of linguistic features that constitute point of view: deixis, modality, transitivity and free indirect discourse, and that this has an impact on the way works are translated. Traditionally, comparative analysis of originals and their translations have relied on manual examinations; this book demonstrates that corpus-based tools can greatly facilitate and sharpen the process of comparison. The method is demonstrated using Virginia Woolf's To The Lighthouse (1927) and The Waves (1931) and their French translations.
