Welcome to the Jungle Kobena Mercer, 2013-09-13 Welcome to the Jungle brings a black British perspective to the critical reading of a wide range of cultural texts events and experiences arising from volatile transformations in the politics of ethnicity sexuality and race during the 1980s The ten essays collected here examine new forms of cultural expression in black film photography and visual art emerging with a new generation of black British artists and interprets this prolific creativity within a sociological framework that reveals fresh perspectives on the bewildering complexity of identity and diversity in an era of postmodernity Kobena Mercer documents a wealth of insights opened up by the overlapping of Asian African and Caribbean cultures that constitute Black Britain as a unique domain of diaspora The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework Jane Chin Davidson,Amelia Jones,2023-10-04 A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework explores the ways specialists and institutions in the fine arts curation cultural studies and art history have attempted to situate art in a more global framework since the 1980s Offering analyses of the successes and setbacks of these efforts to globalize the art world this innovative volume presents a new and exciting way of considering art in its global contexts Essays by an international panel of leading scholars and practicing artists assert that what we talk about as art is essentially a Western concept thus any attempts at understanding art in a global framework require a revising of established conceptual definitions Organized into three sections this work first reviews the history and theory of the visual arts since 1980 and introduces readers to the emerging area of scholarship that seeks to place contemporary art in a global framework The second section traces the progression of recent developments in the art world focusing on the historical and cultural contexts surrounding efforts to globalize the art world and the visual arts in particular global and transnational frameworks The final section addresses a wide range of key themes in contemporary art such as the fundamental institutions and ontologies of art practice and the interactions among art politics and the public sphere A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students scholars researchers and general readers interested in exploring global art beyond the traditional Euro American context Critical Readings in Bodybuilding Adam Locks,Niall Richardson,2013-03-01 In recent years the body has become one of the most popular areas of study in the arts humanities and social sciences Bodybuilding in particular continues to be of interest to scholars of gender media film cultural studies and sociology However there is surprisingly little scholarship available on contemporary bodybuilding Critical Readings in Bodybuilding is the first collection to address the contemporary practice of bodybuilding especially the way in which the activity has become increasingly more extreme and to consider much neglected debates of gender eroticism and sexuality related to the activity Featuring the leading scholars of bodybuilding and the body as well as emerging voices this volume will be a key addition to the fields of Sociology Sport Studies and Cultural Studies Ecce Homo Kent Brintnall,2011 Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain Queering the Popular Pitch Sheila Whiteley,Jennifer Rycenga,2013-01-11 Queering the Popular Pitch is a new collection of 19 essays that situate queering within the discourse of sex and sexuality in relation to popular music This investigation addresses the changing debates within gay lesbian and queer discourse in relation to the dissemination of musical texts performance cultural production and sexual meaning situating music within the broader patterns of culture that it both mirrors and actively reproduces The collection is divided into four parts queering borders queer spaces hidden histories queer thoughts mixed media Queering the Popular Pitch will appeal to students of popular music Gay and Lesbian studies With case studies and essays by leading popular music scholars it provides insightful discourse in a growing field of musicological research

Ecce Homo Kent L. Brintnall, 2024-05-31 Images of suffering male bodies permeate Western culture from Francis Bacon's paintings and Robert Mapplethorpe's photographs to the battered heroes of action movies Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain Acknowledging that representations of men confronting violence and pain can reinforce ideas of manly tenacity Kent L Brintnall also argues that they reveal the vulnerability of men's bodies and open them up to eroticization Locating the roots of our cultural fascination with male pain in the crucifixion he analyzes the way narratives of Christ's death and resurrection both support and subvert cultural fantasies of masculine power and privilege Through stimulating readings of works by Georges Bataille Kaja Silverman and more Brintnall delineates the redemptive power of representations of male suffering and violence
