The Collar Sue Sorensen, 2014-12-25 Combining thematic analysis and stimulating close readings The Collar is a wide ranging study of the many ways heroic or comic shrewd or dastardly in which Christian clergy have been represented in literature from George Herbert and Laurence Sterne via Anthony Trollope G K Chesterton T S Eliot and Graham Greene to Susan Howatch and Robertson Davies and in film and television such as Pale Rider The Thorn Birds The Vicar of Dibley and Father Ted Since all Christians are expected to be involved in ministry of some type the assumptions of secular culture about ministers affect more than just clergy Ranging across several nations particularly Britain the U S and Canada denominations and centuries The Collar encourages creative and faithful responses to the challenges of Christian leadership and develops awareness of the times when leadership expectations become too extreme Using the framework of different media to make inquiries about pastoral passion frustration and fallibility Sue Sorensen's well informed sprightly and perceptive book will be helpful to anyone who enjoys evocative literature and film as well as to clergy and those interested in practical theology Beacham's Encyclopedia of Popular Fiction: Achebe-Gaddis. v. 2. always been a prominent concern and one that has frequently been explored in the literature of that nation The theme of identity often merges into that of language the forging of names and the elaboration of narratives being perceived as means through which identity is constructed in both the private and the public spheres This study examines the relation between identity and language as this is evidenced in a number of works of Canadian literature ranging from Susanna Moodie's Roughing It in the Bush to Timothy Findley's Famous Last Words Particular attention is dedicated to the telling of stories in these books both as an existential strategy on the part of particular authors or the characters they create and as an explicitly thematized concern It is argued that while the works under discussion dramatize the paradoxes and the perils inherent in the endeavour to construct the self by narrative means they also insist on the primacy of narrative in imparting a coherent pattern to experience and on the centrality of the role it plays in humanity's quest for meaning
