Russia Since 1917 J. N. Westwood, 1980 Russia Since 1917 Frederick L. Schuman, 1957 The Soviet Union Since 1917 Martin McCauley, 1981 Russia Since 1917 George Barr Carson, 1972 American Policy Toward Russia Since 1917 Frederick Lewis Schuman, 1928 Russia Since 1980 Steven Rosefielde, Stefan Hedlund, 2009

Russia since 1980 recounts the epochal political economic and social changes that destroyed the Soviet Union ushering in a perplexing new order Two decades after Mikhail Gorbachev initiated his regime wrecking radical reforms Russia has reemerged as a superpower It has survived a hyperdepression modernized restored private property and business adopted a liberal democratic persona and asserted claims to global leadership Many in the West perceive these developments as proof of a better globalized tomorrow while others foresee a new cold war Globalizers contend that Russia is speedily democratizing marketizing and humanizing creating a regime based on the rule of law and respect for civil rights Opponents counterclaim that Russia before and during the Soviet period was similarly misrepresented and insist that Medvedev's Russia is just another variation of an authoritarian Muscovite model that has prevailed for more than five centuries The cases for both positions are explored while chronicling events since 1980 and a verdict is rendered in favor of Muscovite continuity Russia will continue challenging the West until it breaks with its cultural legacy

Modernisation has been a constant theme in Russian history at least since Peter the Great launched a series of initiatives aimed at closing the economic technical and cultural gap between Russia and the more advanced countries of Europe All of the leaders of the Soviet Union and post Soviet Russia have been intensely aware of this gap and have pursued a number of strategies some more successful than others in order to modernise the country But it would be wrong to view modernisation as a unilinear process which was the exclusive preserve of the state Modernisation has had profound effects on Russian society and the attitudes of different social groups have been crucial to the success and failure of modernisation This volume examines the broad theme of modernisation in late imperial Soviet and post Soviet Russia both through general overviews of particular topics and specific case studies of modernisation projects and their impact Modernisation is seen not just as an economic policy but as a cultural and social phenomenon reflected through such diverse themes as ideology welfare education gender relations transport political reform and the Internet The result is the most up to date and comprehensive survey of modernisation in Russia available which highlights both one of the perennial problems and the challenges and prospects for contemporary Russia
