Rwanda Burundi:

Les Anciens Royaumes de la Zone Interlacustre Meridionale (Rwanda, Burundi, Buha) M. d'Hertefeldt, A. Trouwborst, J. Scherer, 2017-02-10 Routledge is proud to be re issuing this landmark series in association with the International African Institute The series published between 1950 and 1977 brings together a wealth of previously un coordinated material on the ethnic groupings and social conditions of African peoples Concise critical and for its time accurate the Ethnographic Survey contains sections as follows Physical Environment Linguistic Data Demography History Traditions of Origin Nomenclature Grouping Cultural Features Religion Witchcraft Birth Initiation Burial Social Political Organization Kinship Marriage Inheritance Slavery Land Tenure Warfare Justice Economy Trade Domestic Architecture Each of the 50 volumes will be available to buy individually and these are organized into regional sub groups East Central Africa North Eastern Africa Southern Africa West Central Africa Western Africa and Central Africa Belgian Congo The volumes are supplemented with maps available to view on routledge com or available as a pdf from the publishers Rwanda and Burundi René Lemarchand, 1970 Historical study of Rwanda and Burundi with particular reference to social change resulting from the transition from the traditional political and social structures since deconolization covers the role of Belgium the role of the Church the role of China etc and examines the intergroup relations between the hutu and tutsi tribal peoples and the refugee problems resulting from the revolution in rwanda UN mentioned Bibliography references and statistical tables A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Steed, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler s long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject Rwanda and Burundi: A General Introduction Rehema Gwangu Syabumi, 2019-03-17 This is a general introduction to Rwanda and Burundi twin nations in the Great Lakes region of East Africa which are composed of members of the same ethnic groups Hutu Tutsi and Twa Subjects covered include geography recent history and how the people live some of their customs and traditions and how they earn their living among other subjects The book also covers some of the crises the countries have faced in recent years to provide a more comprehensive picture of life in those countries which have been some of the most traumatised in the history of post colonial Africa The book is intended for members of the general public although some of them may find the work too detailed in terms of recent history for general purposes and may feel that it is better suited to those interested in research and academic pursuits relating to these twin nations It will probably serve both the general reader and members of the academic community without being too detailed yet comprehensive enough to be of interest to students in African studies including those who specialise in doing research on the Great Lakes region of East Africa with particular emphasis on Rwanda and Burundi Rwanda's Radical Transformation Since the End of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi Sheriff F. Folarin, 2023-08-07 This book discusses the radical transformation of Rwanda focusing on the dynamics of its society before and after the genocide against the Tutsis in 1994 Through contextualizing the significant changes experienced by the country it throws searchlights on a number of other African states facing similar challenges The author analyses Rwanda's challenges of nationhood after the genocide the vision and will of the country's leadership its social programs and strategies for cohesion and national development the population's resilience and its growing regional influence in the twenty first century Rwandan society is here considered not only through the lens of existing literature on African politics but also through direct engagement and fieldwork with local populations scholars and policymakers In addition the book weighs in on narratives of survivors and victims of the genocide to understand and present local dispositions to current realities such as reforms development plans inclusive policies and programs and determine how Rwandans deal with historical identity issues and conflicts This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers interested in Rwandan and African politics peace and conflict studies security strategic studies and genocide studies

The Specter of Genocide Robert Gellately, Ben Kiernan, 2003-07-07 Genocide mass murder and human rights abuses are arguably the most perplexing and deeply troubling aspects of recent world history This collection of essays by leading international experts offers an up to date comprehensive history and analyses of multiple cases of genocide and genocidal acts with a focus on the twentieth century The book contains studies of the Armenian genocide the victims of Stalinist terror the Holocaust and Imperial Japan Several authors explore colonialism and address the fate of the indigenous peoples in Africa North America and Australia As well there is extensive coverage of the post 1945 period including the atrocities in the former Yugoslavia Bali Cambodia Ethiopia Rwanda East Timor and Guatemala The book emphasizes the importance of comparative analysis and theoretical discussion and it raises new questions about the difficult challenges for modernity constituted by genocide and other mass crimes

Preventing Genocide in Burundi Stephen R. Weissman, 1998 Since 1993 interethnic violence between the 15 to 20 percent Tutsi minority and the 80 to 85 percent Hutu majority in Burundi has taken an estimated 150 000 lives The continuation of the conflict helps place tens of millions of people at risk in Central Africa and erodes the international norm against genocide Despite considerable time and effort the world's peacemakers have been unable to stop the bloodshed and facilitate a political settlement An examination of the international response to the crisis furnishes valuable lessons for peacemaking in Burundi and other areas of genocidal conflict A long term political settlement that took adequate account of Burundian history and circumstances would have three basic characteristics 1 a form of democratic power sharing that was more majoritarian than consociational but provided significant protection for minority security and economic interests 2 measures to address collective fears and memories of genocide by acknowledging past crimes and fixing individual responsibility for them and 3 impartial outside military forces sufficient to control the Burundian military until it is reformed and ethnically integrated However as the democratization and power sharing movements of the early 1990s indicated a settlement is unlikely to develop without substantial international pressure and assistance The lesson of these movements tragic demise is that outside carrots and sticks must be focused on obtaining the engagement of all important parties especially the powerful extremists in compromise political negotiations      The Dynamics of Violence in Central Africa Rene Lemarchand, René Lemarchand, 2012-04-18 Endowed with natural resources majestic bodies of fresh water and a relatively mild climate the Great Lakes region of Central Africa has also been the site of some of the world's bloodiest atrocities In Rwanda Burundi and the Congo Kinshasa decades of colonial subjugation most infamously under Belgium's Leopold II were followed by decades of civil warfare that spilled into neighboring countries When these conflicts lead to horrors such as the 1994 Rwandan genocide ethnic difference and postcolonial legacies are commonly blamed but with so much at stake such simple explanations cannot take the place of detailed dispassionate analysis The Dynamics of Violence in Central Africa provides a thorough exploration of the contemporary crises in the region By focusing on the historical and social forces behind the cycles of bloodshed in Rwanda Burundi and the Congo Kinshasa Ren Lemarchand challenges much of the conventional wisdom about the roots of civil strife in former Belgian Africa He offers telling insights into the appalling cycle of genocidal violence ethnic strife and civil war that has made the Great Lakes region of Central Africa the most violent on the continent and he sheds new light on the dynamics of conflict in the region Building on a full career of scholarship and fieldwork Lemarchand's analysis breaks new ground in our understanding of the complex historical forces that continue to shape the destinies of one of Africa's most important regions      The Failure to Prevent Genocide in Rwanda Fred Grünfeld, Anke Huijboom, 2007-05-23 This volume is about the failure to prevent genocide in Rwanda in 1994 In particular the research focuses on why the early warnings of an emerging genocide were not translated into early preventative action The warnings were well documented by the most authoritative source the Canadian U N peace keeping commander General Romeo Dallaire and sent to the leading political civil servants in New York The communications and the decisionmaking are scrutinized i e who received what messages at what time to whom the messages were forwarded and which non decisions were taken in response to the alarming reports of weapon deliveries and atrocities This book makes clear that this genocide could have been prevented Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint      Peace and Stability in Rwanda and Burundi Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2013-05 THIS work looks at some of the ways to achieve lasting peace and stability in Rwanda and Burundi whose destiny is inextricably linked with the entire Great Lakes region of East Africa Conflicts in the two countries affect the entire region especially their neighbours Tanzania Congo and Uganda and have ripple effects which go far beyond the region Therefore all the countries in the region have direct interest in what goes on in Rwanda and Burundi and in the resolution of the conflicts in the twin nations But resolution of the conflict between the Hutu and the Tutsi in Rwanda and Burundi may require a solution that has never been tried before It may even require a combination of solutions in order to be resolved permanently Any solution however radical should be tried even if it runs counter to the logic of what African leaders and many other Africans consider to be the proper way to build nations and achieve unity transcending racial ethnic and regional differences Resolution of the conflict in Rwanda and Burundi may also provide some insights into the complexities of conflict management and conflict resolution in other intra territorial and regional conflicts and disputes in other parts of the continent      Africa South of the Sahara 2004 Europa Publications,2003 A definitive one volume guide to all sub Saharan African countries providing invaluable economic and directory data      War, Hunger, and Displacement: E. Wayne Nafziger,Frances Stewart,Raimo Väyrynen,2000-10-19 Since the end of the cold war the number of civil wars in developing countries has escalated to the point where they are the most significant source of human suffering in the world today Although there are many political analyses of these emergencies this two volume work is the first comprehensive study of the economic social and political roots of humanitarian emergencies identifying early measures to prevent such disasters Nafziger Stewart and Väyrynen draw on a wide range of specialists on the political economy of war and on major conflicts to show the causes of conflict The first volume provides a general overview of the nature and causes of the emergencies including economic political and environmental factors The second volume provides detailed case studies of thirteen conflicts including Rwanda Burundi the Congo Afghanistan and the Caucasus that originated in the weakness of the state or where economic factors predominate The volumes emphasize the significance of protracted economic stagnation and decline high and increasing inequality government exclusion of distinct social groups state failure and predatory rule They debunk beliefs recurrent in the literature that emergencies are the result of deteriorating environmental conditions structural adjustment and deep seated ethnic animosity By analysing the causes and prevention of war and humanitarian emergencies in developing countries this work outlines a less costly alternative to the present strategy of the world community of spending millions of dollars annually to provide mediation relief and rehabilitation after the conflict occurs

Soldiers Without Borders, Crisis in Central Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations,1998      Measuring Food Security Using Household Expenditure Surveys Lisa C. Smith,Ali Subandoro,2007-01-01      A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman,Esther Brito Ruiz,2024-11-01 This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether Divided into four thematic sections Genocide and Imperialism War and Genocide State Repression Military Dictatorships and Genocide and Human Caused Famine Attrition and Genocide A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents including case studies from Biafra Yemen Argentina Russia China and Bengal They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe      Africa South of the Sahara 2003 Europa Publications,2002-10-31 A one volume library of essential and comprehensive data on all the countries of sub Saharan Africa including essays on regional issues statistical surveys and directories of invaluable contact names and addresses      State Fragility Nematullah Bizhan,2022-09-27 Presenting case studies and comparisons across seven countries this book addresses key questions as to the nature of state fragility policies used to mitigate it assessment of outcomes and prospects It offers a novel empirical contribution in examining a range of distinct but interdependent dimensions of state fragility not only focusing on questions of state legitimacy capacity and authority but also involving the economy and resilience to political and economic shocks as well as at vital questions of context and diversity Examining Afghanistan Lebanon Burundi Pakistan Sierra Leone Papua New Guinea and Rwanda within the context of their different local circumstances and within broader questions of global security the book identifies unique factors that have played a part in their specific context and explores key drivers and dominant features This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of state fragility and more broadly to students of politics public policy development studies state society relations political economy state building peace and conflict studies international studies security studies regional studies as well as NGOs and international organizations

Genocide and Crisis in Central Africa Christian P. Scherrer,2001-11-30 Scherrer examines the ethnicized conflicts periodic war and genocide in Rwanda and Burundi The 1994 genocide in Rwanda may have resulted in the murder of a million Tutsi and moderate Hutu while the mass killings in Burundi especially in 1993 when some 200 000 Hutu and Tutsi were killed and the current ongoing war in the Congo appear to have the potential to escalate into another round of genocide in the region Scherrer explores the background to the conflicts in the Great Lakes Region as well as what the international community might do to break this tragic cycle of violence and despair Following a chapter on the history of the region before independence in 1960 61 he examines the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and the subsequent attempts to promote justice reconstruction human rights work and genocide prevention Scherrer pays particular attention to the role of the Western powers the UN and the aid system and he is critical of all of these institutions He also analyzes what is happening in neighboring Burundi and the Congo An important research for scholars and policymakers involved with Central African affairs and ethnicized conflict      African Borders, Conflict, Regional and Continental Integration Innocent

Moyo,Christopher Changwe Nshimbi,2019-04-25 This book looks at the ways African borders impact war and conflict as well as the ways continental integration could contribute towards cooperation peace and well being in Africa African borders or borderlands can be a source of problems and opportunity There is often a historical geospatial and geopolitical architecture rooted in trajectories of war conflict and instability which could be transformed into those of peace regional and continental integration and development An example is the cross border and regional response to the Boko Haram insurgency in West Africa This book engages with cross border forms of cooperation and opportunity in Africa It considers initiatives and innovations which can be put in place or are already being employed on the ground within the current regional and continental integration projects Another important element is that of cross border informality which similarly provides a ready resource that if properly harnessed and regulated could unleash the development potential of African borders and borderlands Students and scholars within Geography International Relations and Border Studies will find this book useful It will also benefit civil society practitioners policymakers and activists in the NGO sector interested in issues such as migration social cohesion citizenship and local development      Undercurrent Journal: Vol. 8, Issue 2 (Fall/Winter 2011) [Color]
