Heaven on Earth: The Order and Meaning of Mass Ralph Barnett, 2024-03-27 The Catechism of the Catholic Church encourages parents to catechize their children Parents duty to educate their children is instinctive and inalienable Parents have the first responsibility for educating their children Parents role in education is so important it is near impossible to offer an adequate substitute By marriage parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children Parents educate their children to fulfill God's law As first heralds parents should initiate their children into the mysteries of the faith Education in the faith by parents should begin in the child's earliest years Family catechesis precedes other forms of religious instruction in the faith But catechize on what and how As a cradle Catholic father grandfather layperson and ardent student of our Faith I offer a suggestion based on common sense and a book series We're living through the greatest loss of faith in the history of the Catholic Church a refrain reverberating thru Catholic America Likely you are familiar with the statistics 25% percent decline in Mass attendance 15% of churches closed and or consolidated 65% of Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence Catholicism the largest Christian creed followed closely by fallen away Catholics America's religious decline is not new Experts claim Christianity has been on decline since the removal of prayer from public schools in 1962 Catholic school enrollment declined concurrently Yet prayer was not removed from Catholic schools Predictably Mass attendance followed What changed Catholic authorities proffered explanations and recommendations none of which stemmed the tide a sure sign the root cause was not rightly identified What changed was the equivalent of removing the pillar of prayer from public schools Mass was removed from Catholic catechesis school CCD RCIA adult formation ambo and domestic church A cursory look at a Baltimore Catechism the 1950-60s field manual for Catholics reveals a 30 page segment Catechism of the Mass immersing students in liturgical details A cursory look at current Catholic curricula reveals a paucity of information on Mass
