This Must Be the Place Milton Brasher-Cunningham, 2015-11-10 The author writes One of the characters in Robert Frost's Death of a Hired Man says Home is that place where when you go there they have to let you in I have found that place in my marriage around our dining room table for Thursday Night Dinners with friends who have helped me make a mosaic out of the shards of my fractured past Home for me means to belong to feel wanted Connects the metaphor of home that runs through the stories of our faith the Prodigal Son the Son of Man has nowhere to call home heaven as home with the deep desire to belong and to feel wanted

The Remarkable Ordinary Frederick Buechner, 2017-10-03 Learn to see God's remarkable works in the everyday ordinary of your life Your remarkable life is happening right here right now You may not be able to see it your life may seem predictable and your work insignificant until you look at your life as Frederick Buechner does Named the father of today's spiritual memoir movement by Christianity Today Frederick Buechner reveals how to stop look and listen to your life He reflects on how both art and faith teach us how to pay attention to the remarkableness right in front of us to watch for the greatness in the ordinary and to use our imaginations to see the greatness in others and love them well Pay attention says Buechner Listen to the call of a bird or the rush of the wind to the people who flow in and out of your life The ordinary points you to the extraordinary God who created and loves all of creation including you Pay attention to these things as if your life depends upon it Because of course it does As you learn to pay attention to your life and what God is doing in it you will uncover the plot of your life's story and the sacred opportunity to connect with the Divine in each moment

Indigenous and Christian Perspectives in Dialogue Allen G. Jorgenson, 2020-12-30 In Indigenous and Christian Perspectives in Dialogue Allen G. Jorgenson asks what Christian theologians might learn from Indigenous spiritualities and worldviews Jorgenson argues that theology in North America has been captive to colonial conceits and has lost sight of key resources in a post Christendom context The volume is especially concerned with the loss of a sense of place evident in theologies written without attention to context Using a comparative theology methodology wherein more than one faith tradition is engaged in dialogical exploration Jorgenson uses insights from Indigenous understandings of place to illumine forgotten or obstructed themes in Christianity In this constructive theological project kairotic places are named as those that are kenotic harmonic poetic and especially enlightening at the margins where we meet the religious other

Tug of War Wilmer G. Villacorta, 2017-07-14 A treatment of power vulnerability and suffering in the life and ministry of mid career leaders offers a reminder of the need to rethink power The push and pull of power dynamics unless acknowledged and surrendered can impact leaders spirituality relationships character and ultimately their faithfulness in ministry To supplement countless books on leadership models techniques and motivation this book offers a counter narrative of power informed by and embedded in the message of the cross it elaborates on a humble use of power and proposes a reframing of power as seen in Christ's downward ascent and cruciform strength This book is of critical importance in the field of ministry formation local and global because it probes to the very core of our human condition illuminating one of the chief perils in lives of position and leadership the misconstrual and misuse of power a reality that can be particularly destructive in spiritual and ministry contexts The larger Christian community will also find relevance in this message as leaders of every ilk share common challenges in the struggles of power and control You will find a very personal and deeply reflective treatment on our common human condition and an invitation to admit our inner and external struggles over the use and practice of power in ministry

A Table in the Wilderness Thom Rock, 2015-02-13 The joyful premise at the heart of this book is that there is a table lavishly spread for all who hunger for forgiveness the believer the doubter and the famished The book's journey begins and ends with this assertion not only is there a table of forgiveness set for us in the many wildernesses of life there is a seat waiting for each and every one of us at that table What matters is whether we take that seat and if so how we behave at the feast Rooted in the notion of journeying of setting out each day to discover some new vista along the many paths to the banquet hall of forgiveness A Table in the Wilderness draws upon the wisdom of multiple religious traditions as well as non religious sources in order to gain perspective on this long misunderstood subject Readers are just as likely to encounter Dr Seuss as they are to read the words of Sri Ramakrishna or Saint Augustine along the way Anyone who has ever been hurt or has hurt another will find this book a helpful guide

Racism and Borders Jeff Shantz, 2010 Despite claims about globalization we see increasing surveillance tightened restrictions and growing punitive regimes at international borders This critical collection examines processes of racialization in relation to border regulations and restrictions It analyses border controls racism and representations of race within multinational contexts as aspects of neo liberal governance It also looks at means by which people resist or challenge racialization This collection uses the lenses of sociology criminology art literary criticism and political science to critically examine varied processes of racialization criminalization and resistance in relation to borders with reference to multi national contexts in the current period a a Making the Best of It John G. Stackhouse Jr.,2008-04-02 What should be the Christian s attitude toward society When so much of our contemporary culture is at odds with Christian beliefs and mores it may seem that serious Christians now have only two choices transform society completely according to Christian values or retreat into the cloister of sectarian fellowship In Making the Best of It John Stackhouse explores the history of the Christian encounter with society the biblical record and various theological models of cultural engagement to offer a more balanced and fruitful alternative to these extremes He argues that rather than trying to root up the weeds in the cultural field or trying to shun them Christians should practice persistence in gardening God s world and building toward the New Jerusalem Examining the lives and works of C S Lewis Reinhold Niebuhr and Dietrich Bonhoeffer for example and direction Stackhouse suggests that our mission is to make the most of life in the world in cooperation with God s own mission of redeeming the world he loves This model takes seriously the pattern of God s activity in the Bible and in subsequent history of working through earthly means through individuals communities and institutions that are deeply flawed but nonetheless capable of accomplishing God s purposes Christians must find a way to live in this world and at the same time do work that honors God and God s plan for us In an era of increasing religious and cultural tensions both internationally and domestically the model that Stackhouse develops discourages the all or nothing attitudes that afflict so much of contemporary Christianity Instead he offers a fresh and refreshingly nuanced take on the question of what it means to be a Christian in the world today rightfully share To do otherwise opens the door to idolatry and leaves the church doing what Watts calls bowing toward Babylon He reviews the development of the symbols songs and gestures that celebrate America and how they were introduced into worship Watts concludes that the spirituality of American Christian nationalism does not complement the faith of the church but distorts it hindering global Christian unity and the peaceable witness of the church in a divided world

Furious Pursuit Tim King, Frank Martin, 2010-03-24 You re not defined by what you ve done You re defined by Who pursues you What if you could believe that God not only chases you but has yet to leave your side for a second has yet to go a minute without courting you whispering in your heart I m right here What if you could believe that God is never distant never out of reach never indifferent to what s going on in your life Would that make a difference in your relationship with him And what if you could go a step further and believe that God s pursuit has nothing to do with your level of faithfulness He is just as near and just as vigilant in his pursuit regardless of your dedication to the spiritual disciplines and in spite of your struggle with sin Because of his nature it is impossible for God not to pursue you In Furious Pursuit Tim King and Frank Martin invite you to lay down the smaller story of your life and instead tap into the Larger Story To begin today by allowing God to transform the nature of your relationship with him To stop chasing God and start embracing the Romance that is already well under way Begin today Open yourself to God s Furious Pursuit Companion workbook also available
