Sacred Spaces Stations On A Celtic Way:

Sacred Spaces Margaret Silf, 2014-05-15 Popular author Margaret Silf introduces you to the seven traditional sacred spaces reflect on practises and scripture There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story

Sacred Spaces Margaret Silf, 2013-05 There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church

Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life's landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

Leadership in Unknown Waters Lisa Withrow,2020-10-29 Leadership in Unknown Waters invites organizational leaders and their teams to engage powerful questions amidst ambiguity and uncertainty as they move from the way things were to an emerging future This liminality a threshold in space and time allowing for transition from something old to something new is fraught with both difficulty and opportunity Leaders teams and individuals who navigate this space skillfully will land in surprisingly dynamic places encountering stories metaphors and inspiration for traversing the threshold not only competently but with curiosity and confidence In this way futures are created that are not possible with fear based planning or quick fixes Withrow s method intersects the human imagination through a visual living metaphor water with attention to space liminality or transitional space and focus on role leadership development for powerful engagement with what organizational learning theorists call the emerging future Here the theoretical meets the practical and research informs the how to and why Diving into unknown waters with tools and wisdom can create a better future for all who face change whether within corporations not for profit organizations faith communities family systems or interpersonal relationships

Wayfaring Margaret Silf,2002-09-10 This informal inspiring book teaches readers how to create a personal spiritual retreat through readings prayer and their own imagination Trained by the Jesuits to accompany and guide others in prayer Margaret Silf brings her experiences and insights to a guide that will help all spiritual seekers whether they are steeped in Christian tradition or have no background in prayer retreat and meditation make their own journeys of prayer In Wayfaring Silf takes readers step by step through the Gospels examining and elucidating the teachings they contain Like a personal spiritual trainer she deftly encourages readers to tap into their own hearts and minds and discover how the life of Jesus can help them shape their own paths through life Sil s previous books have garnered critical acclaim and have attracted a wide enthusiastic audience in the United Kingdom Wayfaring the first of her books to be published by a mainstream publisher in America is a valuable contribution to spiritual literature sure to be embraced by many on this side of the Atlantic The Divine Embrace (Ancient-Future) Robert E. Webber, 2006-10-01 One of the most popular current views on spirituality is that there are varied paths to God In this new Ancient Future series book Bob Webber evaluates this common misunderstanding of spirituality as separated from God's story extremely self focused and shaped by our surrounding culture This challenging work offers a corrective calling us to an alternative Christian spirituality one that reveals two sides that of God's divine embrace of us and our passionate response The Divine Embrace is a fresh grounded look at true spirituality that will be embraced by pastors thinking Christians and anyone looking for an engaging and thorough treatment of this topic

Emotion, Place and Culture Mick Smith, Liz Bondi, 2016-05-06 Recent years have witnessed a rapid rise in engagement with emotion and affect across a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences with geographers among others making a significant contribution by examining the emotional intersections between people and places Building on the achievements of Emotional Geographies 2005 the editors have brought together leading scholars such as Nigel Thrift Alphonso Lingis and Frances Dyson as well as young up and coming academics from a diverse range of disciplines to investigate feelings and affect in various spatial and social contexts environments and landscapes The book is divided into five sections covering the themes of remembering understanding mourning belonging and enchanting Creating Sanctuary Jessi Bloom, 2025-04-08 In this beautiful inspiring and practical book we are invited to look deeply at the landscape around us and create sacred respites from our busy worlds Rosemary Gladstar herbalist and author We all need a personal sanctuary A place where we can be in harmony with the natural world and nurture our bodies minds and souls And this sanctuary doesn't have to be a far away destination it can be in your own backyard In Creating Sanctuary natural living expert Jessi Bloom taps into multiple sources of traditional plant wisdom to help you find a deeper connection to the outdoor space you already have no matter the size You will learn how to design a healing space how to harness the power of 50 sacred plants and how to create recipes and rituals that soothe and calm Hands on inspiring and packed with gorgeous photography Creating Sanctuary will help you find new ways to revitalize your life
